Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On May 17, 2010, State Street Corporation completed its previously announced acquisition of Intesa Sanpaolo's Securities Services business (ISPSS) for 1.28 billion in cash, financed through available capital. The acquisition includes the global custody, depository banking, correspondent banking (banca corrispondente) and fund administration portions of the ISPSS business, with operations in Italy and Luxembourg. It also includes a long-term investment servicing agreement with Intesa Sanpaolo for State Street to service its investment management affiliates, including Eurizon Capital. State Street will support the acquired ISPSS balance sheet with approximately 450 million of additional capital, subject to a closing adjustment mechanism.
