Item 5.02. Departure of Certain Officers.

Lockheed Martin Corporation today announced that its Senior Vice President and General Counsel, James B. Comey, will leave to take a position with Bridgewater Associates, LP. Mr. Comey, 49, has served as Senior Vice President and General Counsel since September 2005.

Mr. Comey will remain as Senior Vice President and General Counsel through June 24 and will continue to serve on Lockheed Martin's executive management team through the summer to ensure a smooth transition. The Corporation expects to name his replacement in the near future.

Mr. Comey joined Lockheed Martin from the U.S. Department of Justice, where he had served as Deputy Attorney General and United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York. From 1996 through 2001, he was Managing Assistant U.S. Attorney in charge of the Richmond Division of the U.S. Attorney's office for the Eastern District of Virginia. Mr. Comey also has worked in commercial litigation, having been a partner with the law firm of McGuireWoods, LLP. He is a 1982 graduate of the College of William & Mary and earned his law degree from the University of Chicago Law School in 1985.
