Item 1.03 Bankruptcy or Receivership.

On December 12, 2010, The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, Inc. (the Company) and all of its U.S. subsidiaries (the Filing Subsidiaries and, together with the Company, the Debtors) filed voluntary petitions for relief (the Bankruptcy Filing) under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the Bankruptcy Code) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York in White Plains (the Bankruptcy Court), case number 10-24549. The Bankruptcy Filing was made in response to, among other things, the Company's deteriorating liquidity and the challenges of successfully implementing additional financing initiatives and of obtaining necessary cost concessions from the Company's business and labor partners, which was negatively impacting the Company's ability to implement its previously announced turnaround strategy. The Debtors will continue to operate their businesses in the ordinary course of business as debtors-in-possession under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the orders of the Bankruptcy Court. The Company's non-U.S. subsidiaries were not part of the Bankruptcy Filing and will continue to operate in the ordinary course of business.

In connection with the Bankruptcy Filing, on December 13, 2010, the Bankruptcy Court entered its interim financing order, among other things, permitting the Debtors to enter into a Superpriority Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement (the DIP Credit Agreement) with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent and as collateral agent (in such capacity, the Agent), the lenders from time to time party thereto (collectively, the Lenders) and the Debtors as borrowers or guarantors thereunder. On December 14, 2010, the Debtors satisfied all of the conditions to the effectiveness of the DIP Credit Agreement and consummated the transactions contemplated thereunder including the refinancing in full of the Company's pre-existing first lien credit facility with Bank of America, N.A. as administrative agent. Pursuant to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement:

the Lenders agreed to lend up to $800 million in the form of a $350 million term loan and a $450 million revolving credit facility with a $250 million sublimit for letters of credit, in each case subject to the terms and conditions therein;

the Company's and the Subsidiary Borrower's obligations under the DIP Credit Agreement and the other specified loan documents are guaranteed by the Company's certain other subsidiaries that are Debtors (Subsidiary Guarantors) and, together with the Company and the Subsidiary Borrowers, the Loan Parties); and the Loan Parties' obligations under the DIP Credit Agreement and such other specified loan documents are secured by a security interest in, and lien upon, substantially all of the Loan Parties' existing and after-acquired personal and real property, having the priority and subject to the terms therein and in the order(s) entered into by the Bankruptcy Court, as applicable.

The Company will have the option to have interest on the revolving loans under the revolving credit facility provided under the DIP Credit Agreement accrue at an alternate base rate plus 200 basis points or at adjusted LIBOR plus 300 basis points. The Company will have the option to have interest on the term loan provided under the DIP Credit Agreement accrue at an alternate base rate plus 650 basis points or at adjusted LIBOR plus 750 basis points. The DIP Credit Agreement limits, among other things, the Company's and the other Loan Parties' ability to (i) incur indebtedness, (ii) incur or create liens, (iii) dispose of assets, (iv) prepay certain indebtedness and make other restricted payments, (v) enter into sale and leaseback transactions and (vi) modify the terms of certain indebtedness and certain material contracts. The DIP Credit Agreement also contains certain financial covenants, including a minimum excess availability covenant, minimum liquidity covenant and minimum cumulative EBITDA covenant. The DIP Credit Agreement matures upon the earliest to occur of (a) June 14, 2012, (b) the acceleration of the loans and the termination of the commitment thereunder, (c) 40 days after the entry of the interim order of the Bankruptcy Court if the final order has not been entered by the Bankruptcy Court prior to the expiration of such 40-day period and (d) the substantial consummation (as defined in Section 1101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, which for purposes hereof shall be no later than the effective date thereof) of a plan of reorganization that is confirmed pursuant to an order entered by the Bankruptcy Court.

The foregoing summary of the DIP Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the DIP Credit Agreement.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

Item 1.03 herein is incorporated by reference.

Item 2.04 Triggering Events That Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

The Bankruptcy Filing described in Item 1.03 above constituted an event of default with respect to the following debt instruments (collectively, the Debt Documents ):

Indenture, dated as of January 1, 1991, between the Company and JPMorgan Chase Bank (formerly The Chase Manhattan Bank as successor by merger to Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company), as trustee;

Indenture, dated as of December 18, 2007, between the Company and Wilmington Trust Company, as Trustee;

First Supplemental Indenture, dated as of December 18, 2007, between the Company and Wilmington Trust Company, as Trustee, relating to approximately $159.4 million of principal and accrued and unpaid interest on outstanding 5.125% Senior Convertible Notes due 2011;

Second Supplemental Indenture, dated as of December 18, 2007, between the Company and Wilmington Trust Company, as Trustee, relating to approximately $229 million of principal and accrued and unpaid interest on outstanding 6.75% Senior Convertible Notes due 2011;

Indenture, dated as of August 4, 2009, among the Company, the guarantors named therein and Wilmington Trust Company, as trustee, relating to approximately $254.1 million of principal and accrued and unpaid interest on outstanding 11.375% Senior Secured Notes due August 4, 2015;

Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of December 27, 2007, among the Company, and the other Borrowers party thereto, as Borrowers and the Lenders party thereto, and Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent and Banc of America Securities LLC as Lead Arranger, as amended, relating to approximately $133.8 million of principal and accrued and unpaid interest outstanding on term loans, letters of credit and the revolving credit facility; and Unsecured Promissory Note, dated as of September 2, 2008, between the Company and Erivan Karl Haub (the Promissory Note ), relating to approximately $10 million of principal and accrued and unpaid interest outstanding.

The Debt Documents provide that, as a result of the Bankruptcy Filing, among other things, the principal and interest due thereunder shall become immediately due and payable. In addition, the Bankruptcy Filing automatically increased the applicable interest rate on the outstanding principal under the Promissory Note by an additional 3.00% per annum to 9.00% per annum. Upon the Bankruptcy Filing, any efforts to enforce payment obligations under the Debt Documents are stayed pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 362 automatic stay, and the creditors' rights of enforcement in respect of the Debt Documents are subject to the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

On December 15, 2010, the Company failed to comply with its obligation to pay dividends under its Articles Supplementary (the Articles Supplementary ) of 8% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock Series A-T, A-Y, B-T and B-Y ( Convertible Preferred Stock ). Under Section 4(d)(i) of the Articles Supplementary, the failure to pay dividends when due, automatically increases the applicable interest rate by an additional

2.00% per annum to 10.00% per annum (which results in aggregate dividend payments under the Articles Supplementary of $17.5 million per annum). In addition, under Section 15(d)(i) of the Articles Supplementary, at any time when the equivalent of six quarterly dividends payable on shares of Convertible Preferred Stock (whether or not consecutive and whether or not declared) are accrued and unpaid, the number of directors constituting the Company's board of directors shall automatically be increased by two and the holders of shares of Convertible Preferred Stock will have the right to elect such two directors. Upon the Bankruptcy Filing, any efforts to enforce the obligations under the Articles Supplementary are stayed pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 362 automatic stay, and the creditors' rights of enforcement in respect of the Articles Supplementary are subject to the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.
