Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on October 3, 2007, Radian Group Inc. (the Company) had received a letter from the staff of the Chicago Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) stating that the staff was conducting an investigation involving the Company and requesting production of certain documents. Certain of our current and former employees and directors have provided voluntary testimony in this matter, which generally related to disclosure and financial reporting by us and a co-investor regarding our respective investments in Credit-Based Asset Servicing and Securitization LLC (C-BASS). On January 13, 2011, the SEC orally advised us that the investigation has been terminated and that it did not intend to recommend any enforcement action against the Company or any of our current and former employees and directors.
