and deemed filed pursuant to Rule 14a-12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Subject Company: Constellation Energy Group, Inc.

(Reg. No. 333-175162)

On November 3, 2011 Exelon and Constellation issued the following joint press release concerning proxy advisory firm recommendations with respect to their respective special shareholder meetings:

LEADING PROXY ADVISORY FIRMS RECOMMEND

EXELON AND CONSTELLATION SHAREHOLDERS

VOTE FOR THE PROPOSED MERGER

CHICAGO AND BALTIMORE (November 3, 2011) Exelon Corporation (NYSE:EXC) and Constellation Energy (NYSE:CEG) today announced that Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) and Glass, Lewis & Co. LLC, two leading proxy advisory firms, have recommended that shareholders of both Exelon Corporation and Constellation Energy vote FOR the proposed merger.

In issuing its recommendation on November 2, ISS said the following: Constellation has a strong retail presence in the Midwest and Texas, which will complement Exelon's wholesale generation business in those areas and will allow the combined company to improve its ability to match generation to customer load. In light of the premium offered, the potential strategic advantages of the combination, and the synergies provided in the merger, shareholder support for this transaction is warranted. *

Glass, Lewis & Co.'s recommendation, issued on October 31, said the following: The merger is expected to increase the scale and diversity of the combined company's operations, which in turn should provide for, among other things, greater financial stability and a greater ability for Exelon to modernize its fleet and grid. Further, the proposed exchange ratio appears to us to be financially fair and reasonable to Exelon and its shareholders. *

The recommendations by ISS and Glass, Lewis & Co. follow last week's similar recommendation by Egan-Jones, another proxy advisor.

The Exelon board of directors unanimously recommends that the Exelon shareholders vote FOR the share issuance proposal. The Constellation board of directors unanimously recommends that the Constellation stockholders vote FOR the merger proposal.

Exelon and Constellation announced on October 13, 2011, the distribution of the joint proxy statement/prospectus for the special shareholder meetings associated with their proposed merger, both scheduled for Thursday, November 17, 2011.

Shareholders of record of shares of Exelon and/or Constellation common stock at the close of business on October 7, 2011, are entitled to vote at the special meetings described above.

Shareholders, whether or not they attend the meeting, are urged to vote their shares over the Internet or via the toll-free telephone number, as described on their proxy cards. As an alternative, a shareholder who receives a paper copy of the proxy card by mail may sign, date and mail it in the envelope provided.

Exelon and Constellation shareholders who have questions about the merger or the other matters to be voted on at the special meetings or desire additional copies of the joint proxy statement/prospectus or additional proxy cards should use the following contacts:

Exelon Corporation shareholders should contact MacKenzie Partners, Inc : toll-free (800) 322-2885 or (212) 929-5500. Constellation Energy Group, Inc. shareholders should contact Innisfree M&A Incorporated: toll-free (877) 800-5182; banks and brokers call collect: (212) 750-5833.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Except for the historical information contained herein, certain of the matters discussed in this communication constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as may, will, anticipate, estimate, expect, project, intend, plan, believe, target, and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future plans, actions, or events identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding benefits of the proposed merger of Exelon Corporation (Exelon) and Constellation Energy Group, Inc. (Constellation), integration plans and expected synergies, the expected timing of completion of the transaction, anticipated future financial and operating performance and results, including estimates for growth. These statements are based on the current expectations of management of Exelon and Constellation, as applicable. There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements included in this communication regarding the proposed merger. For example, (1) the companies may be unable to obtain shareholder approvals required for the merger; (2) the companies may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause the companies to abandon the merger; (3) conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (4) an unsolicited offer of another company to acquire assets or capital stock of Exelon or Constellation could interfere with the merger; (5) problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of the companies, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; (6) the combined company may be unable to achieve cost-cutting synergies or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies; (7) the merger may involve unexpected costs, unexpected liabilities or unexpected delays, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from the companies' expectations; (8) the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; (9) the businesses of the companies may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the merger; (10) the companies may not realize the values expected to be obtained for properties expected or required to be divested; (11) the industry may be subject to future regulatory or legislative actions that could adversely affect the companies; and (12) the companies may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could also have material adverse effects on future results, performance or achievements of Exelon, Constellation or the combined company. Discussions of some of these other important factors and assumptions are contained in Exelon's and Constellation's respective filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, including: (1) Exelon's 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K in (a) ITEM 1A.
