The obligations under the Restated Credit Agreement are initially secured by the accounts receivable and certain locomotives of KCSM and certain of its subsidiaries. The Restated Credit Agreement includes a collateral fall-away provision whereby the aforementioned collateral is automatically released, and KCSM's facilities convert to unsecured obligations, during an Investment Grade Period (as defined in the Restated Credit Agreement), so long as no Event of Default (as defined in the Restated Credit Agreement) shall have occurred and be continuing.

The Security Document Amendments amend such documents to reflect the collateral fall-away provision of the Restated Credit Agreement. KCSM and certain of its subsidiaries gave certain representations and warranties that are customary for amendments of this type.

Copies of the Security Document Amendments are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3, 10.4 and 10.5, respectively. The foregoing is a summary of the terms of these agreements and does not purport to be a complete discussion of them. The Security Document Amendments are each incorporated herein by reference.
