On July 11, 2013, indirect, wholly owned subsidiaries of Chesapeake Lodging Trust (the "Trust") entered into two separate loan agreements to obtain two new loans with an aggregate principal amount of $185.5 million that are secured by the Trust's Le Meridien San Francisco and the W Chicago City Center, respectively, and in each case the related equipment, fixtures, personal property and other assets associated with each hotel. Proceeds from the two new loans were used to prepay the Trust's previous $130.0 million term loan secured jointly by these assets under the Trust's amended and restated loan agreement dated as of July 8, 2011 with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as lender, which agreement was terminated in connection with the prepayment, and to repay outstanding borrowings under the Trust's revolving credit facility.

The first new loan agreement was entered into with PNC Bank, N.A. to obtain a $92.5 million loan secured by a first mortgage lien on the Le Meridien San Francisco, and related equipment, fixtures, personal property and other assets. This loan matures in August 2020 and carries a fixed interest rate of 3.50% per annum, with principal and interest payments based on a 25-year principal amortization. The second new loan agreement was entered into with Goldman Sachs Mortgage Company to obtain a $93.0 million loan secured by a first mortgage lien on the W Chicago City Center, and related equipment, fixtures, personal property and other assets. This loan matures in August 2023 and carries a fixed interest rate of 4.25% per annum, with principal and interest payments based on a 25-year principal amortization. Both loan agreements and related documents contain representations, warranties, covenants, conditions and events of default customary for single-property mortgage financings of this type. The two new loans are not cross-collateralized.

A copy of the Trust's press release announcing the new financings is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
