FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This communication contains statements about expected future events that are forward-looking and subject to risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements also include those preceded or followed by the words "anticipates," "believes," "estimates," "hopes" or "expects." In making those statements, we claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The following important factors could affect future results and could cause those results to differ materially from those stated in the forward-looking statements: failure to obtain applicable regulatory or shareholder approvals in a timely manner or otherwise; failure to meet other closing conditions to the proposed transaction or events giving rise to termination of the transaction agreement; adverse conditions in the U.S. and international economies; competition in our markets; material changes in available technology or technology substitution; changes in our suppliers; provisioning of products or services; changes in the regulatory environments in which we operate, including any impact on our ability to operate our networks; breaches of network or information technology security, natural disasters, terrorist attacks, litigation and any resulting financial impact not covered by insurance; significantly increased levels of indebtedness as a result of the transaction; an adverse change in the ratings afforded our debt securities by nationally accredited ratings organizations or adverse changes in the credit markets affecting the cost, including interest rates, and/or availability of financing; changes in our accounting assumptions; regulatory agencies, including the SEC, may require or that result from changes in the accounting rules or their application, which could affect our earnings; material adverse changes in labor matters, including labor negotiations, and any resulting financial and/or operational impact; increases in benefit plan costs or lower investment returns on plan assets; and the inability to implement our business strategies. This list of factors is not exhaustive and there can be no assurance that the proposed transaction will in fact be consummated. You should carefully consider the foregoing factors and the other risks and uncertainties that affect the parties' businesses, including those described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K and other documents filed from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and those described in Vodafone Group Plc's Annual Reports, Reports of Management and Issuer and other documents filed from time to time with the SEC. Except as required under applicable law, the parties do not have an obligation to update these forward-looking statements.
