Institutional Shareholder Services Recommends Stockholders Vote FOR Signature Group

Holdings, Inc. Reincorporation

SHERMAN OAKS, California, December 9, 2013 Signature Group Holdings, Inc. (OTCQX: SGGH) today announced that Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), a leading independent proxy voting and corporate governance advisory firm, recommends stockholders vote FOR Signature's proposal to reincorporate from Nevada to Delaware at a special meeting of stockholders on December 30, 2013. ISS's report emphasizes that the reincorporation to Delaware will improve stockholders' rights.

ISS summarized its recommendation as follows: A vote FOR this proposal is warranted given that the reincorporation would ultimately be beneficial to shareholders' rights.

Signature Chief Executive Officer, Craig Bouchard said: We are committed to best in breed corporate practices, and Delaware is recognized as the state most attractive to the investors of large public corporations. We sincerely appreciate the ISS recognition that our reincorporation into a Delaware holding company is good for stockholders. Bouchard added, The progress our management team has made this year, including filing a $300 million shelf registration statement, preparing to redeem the 9% Notes on December 30, exiting legacy special situations investments, and reducing corporate overhead has positioned us to grow. In the last six months we have exited nearly all of our legacy special situations investments as well as some assets in discontinued operations. I am pleased to report that we are now out of the distressed debt business. Our attention is focused on growing our industrial supply business organically, while increasing the scale of the Company through material industrial and commercial acquisitions.
