Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains or may contain forward-looking statements intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. Caesars Entertainment and CEOC have based these forward-looking statements on its current expectations about future events. Further, statements that include words such as may, will, project, might, expect, believe, anticipate, intend, could, would, present, preserve, or pursue, or the negative of these words or other words or expressions of similar meaning may identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are found at various places throughout this filing. These forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, those relating to future actions, new projects, strategies, future performance, the outcome of contingencies such as legal proceedings, and future financial results, wherever they occur in this filing, are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of Caesars Entertainment s and CEOC s management and involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements.

Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from estimates or projections contained in the forward-looking statements include without limitation:

access to available and reasonable financing on a timely basis, including CEOC s new incremental term loan (and related repayment of 2015 maturities) and Bank Amendment which may not be consummated on the terms contemplated or at all;

shares of CEOC may not be listed in the future and, if they are listed, a market for CEOC shares may never develop;

the assertion and outcome of litigation or other claims that may be brought against Caesars Entertainment by creditors of CEOC, some of whom have notified Caesars Entertainment of their objection to various transactions undertaken by Caesars Entertainment and its subsidiaries in 2013 and 2014;

CEOC may not be able to expand its board of directors to include two independent directors;

the impact of Caesars Entertainment's substantial indebtedness and the restrictions in Caesars Entertainment's debt agreements;

the effects of local and national economic, credit and capital market conditions on the economy in general, and on the gaming industry in particular; the ability to realize the expense reductions from cost savings programs, including the program to increase Caesars Entertainment's working capital and excess cash by $500 million;

the previously disclosed sale of Harrah's New Orleans to Caesars Growth Partners, LLC may not be consummated on the terms contemplated or at all; the ability of Caesars Entertainment's customer-tracking, customer loyalty and yield-management programs to continue to increase customer loyalty and same-store or hotel sales; changes in laws, including increased tax rates, smoking bans, regulations or accounting standards, third-party relations and approvals, and decisions, disciplines and fines of courts, regulators and governmental bodies;

the ability to recoup costs of capital investments through higher revenues; abnormal gaming holds (gaming hold is the amount of money that is retained by the casino from wagers by customers);

the effects of competition, including locations of competitors, competition for new licenses and operating and market competition; the ability to timely and cost-effectively integrate companies that Caesars Entertainment acquires into its operations;

the potential difficulties in employee retention and recruitment as a result of Caesars Entertainment's substantial indebtedness, the ongoing downturn in the U.S. regional gaming industry, or any other factor; construction factors, including delays, increased costs of labor and materials, availability of labor and materials, zoning issues, environmental restrictions, soil and water conditions, weather and other hazards, site access matters and building permit issues;

Edgar Filing: CAESARS ENTERTAINMENT Corp - Form 8-K

severe weather conditions or natural disasters, including losses therefrom, including losses in revenues and damage to property, and the impact of severe weather conditions on Caesars Entertainment's ability to attract customers to certain of its facilities, such as the amount of losses and disruption to us as a result of Hurricane Sandy in late October 2012;

litigation outcomes and judicial and governmental body actions, including gaming legislative action, referenda, regulatory disciplinary actions and fines and taxation; acts of war or terrorist incidents or uprisings, including losses therefrom, including losses in revenues and damage to property;

the effects of environmental and structural building conditions relating to Caesars Entertainment's properties;

access to insurance on reasonable terms for Caesars Entertainment's assets; and the impact, if any, of unfunded pension benefits under multi-employer pension plans. These forward-looking statements should, therefore, be considered in light of various important factors set forth above and from time to time in Caesars Entertainment's and CEO's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this filing. Caesars Entertainment and CEO undertake no obligation to publicly update or release any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this filing or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, except as required by law.
