Table of ContentsLindsay Corporation and Subsidiaries*NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*(Unaudited)*Note 1 Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

The condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and do not include all of the disclosures normally required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) as contained in Lindsay Corporation's (the Company) Annual Report on Form 10-K. Accordingly, these condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2013.

In the opinion of management, the condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company reflect all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly the financial position and the results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented. The results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of trends or results expected by the Company for a full year.

The condensed consolidated financial statements were prepared using U.S. GAAP. These principles require us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Note 2 New Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The standard provides a single model for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes current revenue recognition guidance. The ASU requires an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of goods or services. The ASU will replace existing revenue recognition guidance in U.S. GAAP when it becomes effective. The effective date for ASU No. 2014-09 will be the first quarter of fiscal year 2018. Early adoption is not permitted. The guidance permits companies to either apply the requirements retrospectively to all prior periods presented, or apply the requirements in the year of adoption, through a cumulative adjustment. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption will have on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company has not yet selected a transition method, nor has it determined the effect of the standard on its ongoing financial reporting.

Certain stock options and restricted stock units are excluded from the computation of diluted net earnings per share because their effect is anti-dilutive. Performance stock units are excluded from the calculation of dilutive potential common shares until the threshold performance conditions have been satisfied. The following table shows the securities excluded from the computation of earnings per share:

Note 4 Income Taxes

It is the Company's policy to report income tax expense for interim periods using an estimated annual effective income tax rate. However, the tax effects of significant or unusual items are not considered in the estimated annual effective income tax rate. The tax effects of such discrete events are recognized in the interim period in which the events occur. The Company recorded no material discrete items for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013.

The Company recorded income tax expense of $9.0 million and $21.9 million for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2014, respectively. The Company recorded income tax expense of $13.7 million and $31.5 million for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2013, respectively. The estimated annual effective income tax rate was 35.3 percent and 34.4 percent for the year-to-date periods ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The increase in the estimated annual effective income tax rate from May 2013 to May 2014 primarily relates to incremental increases in taxes due to the earnings mix among jurisdictions.

Note 5 Inventories

Inventories consisted of the following as of May 31, 2014, May 31, 2013 and August 31, 2013:

Note 6 Credit Arrangements

The Company has no outstanding long-term debt and was in compliance with all loan covenants as of May 31, 2014. The Company's credit arrangements consisted of the following:

Revolving Credit Agreement

The Company has an unsecured $30.0 million Revolving Credit Note and Credit Agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., which was amended on January 22, 2014 to revise letter of credit expiry dates and cash collateralization procedures ("Revolving Credit Agreement"). The borrowings from the Revolving Credit Agreement may primarily be used for working capital purposes and funding acquisitions. At May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013, the Company had no outstanding borrowings on the Revolving Credit Agreement. The amount of borrowings available at any time under the Revolving Credit Agreement is reduced by the amount of standby letters of credit then outstanding. At May 31, 2014, the Company had the ability to borrow $24.5 million under this facility, after consideration of standby letters of credit of $5.5 million. Borrowings under the Revolving Credit Agreement bear interest at a rate equal to LIBOR plus 90 basis points (1.05 percent as of May 31, 2014), subject to adjustment as set forth in the Revolving Credit Agreement. Interest is paid on a monthly to quarterly basis depending on loan type. The Company also pays an annual commitment fee of 0.25 percent on the unused portion of the Revolving Credit Agreement. Any unpaid principal and interest is due by February 13, 2016.

The Revolving Credit Agreement contains certain covenants relating to the Company's financial condition. These include maintaining a funded debt to EBITDA ratio, a fixed charge coverage ratio, a current ratio and a tangible net worth requirement at specified levels. Upon the occurrence of any event of default of these covenants, including a change in control of the Company, all amounts due thereunder may be declared to be immediately due and payable.

Table of ContentsNote 7 Financial Derivatives

The Company uses certain financial derivatives to mitigate its exposure to volatility in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. The Company uses these derivative instruments to hedge exposures in the ordinary course of business and does not invest in derivative instruments for speculative purposes. The Company manages market and credit risks associated with its derivative instruments by establishing and monitoring limits as to the types and degree of risk that may be undertaken, and by entering into transactions with high-quality counterparties. As of May 31, 2014, the Company's derivative counterparty had investment grade credit ratings. Financial derivatives consist of the following:

		Fair Values of Derivative Instruments

		$ 150	$ 564	$ (790)	$ 66

For the three months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company settled foreign currency forward contracts resulting in an after-tax net loss (gain) of $0.1 million and ($0.8) million, which were included in OCI as part of a currency translation adjustment. For the nine months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company settled foreign currency forward contracts resulting in an after-tax net loss of $1.0 million and $0.4 million, which were included in OCI as part of a currency translation adjustment.

There were no amounts recorded in the condensed consolidated statement of operations related to ineffectiveness of foreign currency forward contracts related to net investment hedges for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013. Accumulated currency translation adjustments from net investment hedges in AOCI at May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013 reflected realized and unrealized after-tax gains of $1.3 million, $2.5 million and $2.0 million, respectively.

At May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013, the Company had outstanding Euro foreign currency forward contracts to sell 28.9 million Euro, 29.6 million Euro and 29.2 million Euro, respectively, at fixed prices to settle during the next fiscal quarter. At May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013, the Company had an outstanding South African Rand foreign currency forward contract to sell 43.0 million South African Rand at fixed prices to settle during the next fiscal quarter. The Company's foreign currency forward contracts qualify as hedges of a net investment in foreign operations.

Table of ContentsNote 8 Fair Value Measurements

The following table presents the Company's financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value based upon the level within the fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements fall, as of May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013, respectively.

($ in thousands)	May 31, 2014

The carrying amount of long-term debt (including current portion), which represented fair value, was zero, $1.1 million and zero as of May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013, respectively. Fair value of long-term debt (including current portion) is estimated (using level 2 inputs) by discounting the future estimated cash flows of each instrument at current market interest rates for similar debt instruments of comparable maturities and credit quality.

The Company also measures the fair value of certain assets on a non-recurring basis, generally quarterly, annually, or when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable. These assets include fixed assets, goodwill, and other intangible assets. There were no required fair value adjustments for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013.

Note 9 Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of its business operations, the Company is involved, from time to time, in commercial litigation, employment disputes, administrative proceedings and other legal proceedings. The Company has established accruals for certain proceedings based on an assessment of probability of loss. The Company believes that any potential loss in excess of the amounts accrued would not have a material effect on the business or its condensed consolidated financial statements. Such proceedings are exclusive of environmental remediation matters which are discussed separately below.

Environmental Remediation

In 1992, the Company entered into a consent decree with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (the EPA) in which the Company committed to remediate environmental contamination of the groundwater that was discovered in 1982 through 1990 at and adjacent to its Lindsay, Nebraska facility (the site). The site was added to the EPA's list of priority superfund sites in 1989. Between 1993 and 1995, remediation plans for the site were approved by the EPA and fully implemented by the Company. Since 1998, the primary remaining contamination at the site has been the presence of volatile organic compounds in the soil and groundwater. To date, the remediation process has consisted primarily of drilling wells into the aquifer and pumping water to the surface to allow these contaminants to be removed by aeration.

In fiscal 2012, the Company undertook an investigation to assess further potential site remediation and containment actions. In connection with the receipt of preliminary results of this investigation and other evaluations, the Company estimated that it would incur $7.2 million in remediation of source area contamination and operating costs and accrued that undiscounted amount. The EPA has not approved the Company's remediation plan.

In addition to the source area noted above, the Company has determined that volatile organic compounds also exist under one of the manufacturing buildings on the site. Due to the location, the Company has not yet determined the extent of these compounds or whether they are contributing, if at all, to groundwater contamination. Based on the current stage of discussions with the EPA and the uncertainty of the remediation actions that may be required with respect to this affected area, if any, the Company believes that meaningful estimates of costs or range of costs cannot currently be made and accordingly have not been accrued.

Table of Contents

In fiscal 2013, the Company and the EPA conducted a periodic five-year review of the status of the remediation of the contamination site. This review resulted in no findings that affected the Company's environmental liability accrual. The EPA has agreed with the Company's plan to complete investigation of the soil and groundwater on the site, including the area under the building, during fiscal 2014 and early 2015. The Company expects that once this additional testing is complete, it will come to an agreement with the EPA on how to proceed. During the first nine months of fiscal 2014, the Company did not accrue any additional incremental costs related to environmental remediation liabilities.

The Company accrues the anticipated cost of investigation and remediation when the obligation is probable and can be reasonably estimated. Although the Company has accrued all reasonably estimable costs associated with the site, it anticipates there could be revisions to the current remediation plan as well as additional testing and environmental monitoring as part of the Company's ongoing discussions with the EPA regarding the development and implementation of the remedial action plans. Any revisions could be material to the operating results of any fiscal quarter or fiscal year. The Company does not expect such additional expenses would have a material adverse effect on its liquidity or financial condition.

The following table summarizes the undiscounted environmental remediation liability classifications included in the balance sheet as of May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013:

Note 11 Share-Based Compensation

The Company's current share-based compensation plans, approved by the stockholders of the Company, provides for awards of stock options, restricted shares, restricted stock units (RSUs), stock appreciation rights, performance shares and performance stock units (PSUs) to employees and non-employee directors of the Company. The Company measures and recognizes compensation expense for all share-based payment awards made to employees and directors based on estimated fair values. Share-based compensation expense was $1.0 million and $1.1 million for the three months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. Share-based compensation expense was $3.2 million and $3.5 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Table of ContentsNote 12 Industry Segment Information

Irrigation This reporting segment includes the manufacture and marketing of center pivot, lateral move, and hose reel irrigation systems as well as various water pumping stations, controls, and filtration solutions. The irrigation reporting segment consists of thirteen operating segments that have similar economic characteristics and meet the aggregation criteria, including similar products, production processes, type or class of customer and methods for distribution.

Infrastructure This reporting segment includes the manufacture and marketing of Road Zipper Systems™, moveable barriers, specialty barriers and crash cushions; providing outsource manufacturing services and the manufacturing and selling of large diameter steel tubing and railroad signals and structures. The infrastructure reporting segment consists of two operating segments that have similar economic characteristics and meet the aggregation criteria, including similar products, production processes, type or class of customer and methods for distribution.

The Company evaluates the performance of its reportable segments based on segment sales, gross profit, and operating income, with operating income for segment purposes excluding unallocated corporate general and administrative expenses, interest income, interest expense, other income and expenses, and income taxes. Operating income for segment purposes does include general and administrative expenses, selling expenses, engineering and research expenses, environmental remediation expenses and other overhead charges directly attributable to the segment.

The Company had no single major customer who represented 10 percent or more of its total revenues during the three and nine months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013.

Summarized financial information concerning the Company's reportable segments is shown in the following tables:

Note 14 Share Repurchases

On January 3, 2014, the Company announced that its Board of Directors replaced its existing share repurchase authorization with an increased authorization to repurchase up to $150.0 million of common stock with an authorization effective through January 2, 2016. During the three months ended May 31, 2014, the Company repurchased 129,104 shares of common stock for an aggregate purchase price of $11.2 million. During the nine months ended May 31, 2014, the Company repurchased 207,624 shares of common stock for an aggregate purchase price of $17.8 million. During the three and nine months ended May 31, 2013, the Company did not repurchase shares of common stock. The remaining amount available under the repurchase program was $132.2 million as of May 31, 2014.

Note 15 Subsequent Events

In the second quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company entered into a $39 million contract with the government of Iraq for the delivery and installation of irrigation equipment. As of May 31, 2014, the Company had yet to complete obligations to install a portion of the equipment for which it would be entitled to receive approximately $2.6 million. In addition, the Company had accounts receivable outstanding for approximately $2.5 million as of May 31, 2014, none of which is past due.

The June 2014 escalation of political instability within Iraq has resulted in increased difficulties for the Company to complete installation as required, and may make it impossible to do so. The Company has suspended installation services indefinitely until the political environment improves in Iraq. If the Company is unable to complete its work under this agreement, it does not expect to be able to realize the remaining $2.6 million due under the agreement. In addition, the Company has a $1.9 million performance bond securing its obligations under the contract. In addition, the $2.5 million of accounts receivable outstanding at May 31, 2014 could become uncollectable as the situation in Iraq develops.

As of May 31, 2014, the Company's total exposure outstanding is $4.4 million related to outstanding accounts receivable balances and performance bonds. No amounts have been accrued or reserved for possible losses in the condensed consolidated financial statements as of May 31, 2014. The Company continues to evaluate its exposure to claims for uncompleted services and the collectability of outstanding accounts receivable balances.

ITEM 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains not only historical information, but also forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Statements that are not historical are forward-looking and reflect expectations for future Company conditions or performance. In addition, forward-looking statements may be made orally or in press releases, conferences, reports, on the Company's worldwide web site, or otherwise, in the future by or on behalf of the Company. When used by or on behalf of the Company, the words expect, anticipate, estimate, believe, intend, will, plan, project, and similar expressions generally identify forward-looking statements. The entire section entitled Executive Overview and Outlook should be considered forward-looking statements. For these statements, the Company claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to those discussed in the Risk Factors section in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended August 31, 2013. Readers should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement and should recognize that the statements are predictions of future results or conditions, which may not occur as anticipated. Actual results or conditions could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements and from historical results, due to the risks and uncertainties described herein and in the Company's other public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the Company's fiscal year ended August 31, 2013, as well as other risks and uncertainties not now anticipated. The risks and uncertainties described herein and in the Company's other public filings are not exclusive and further information concerning the Company and its businesses, including factors that potentially could materially affect the Company's financial results, may emerge from time to time. Except as required by law, the Company assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect actual results or changes in factors or assumptions affecting such forward-looking statements.

Accounting Policies

In preparing the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP, management must make a variety of decisions which impact the reported amounts and the related disclosures. These decisions include the selection of the appropriate accounting principles to be applied and the assumptions on which to base accounting estimates. In making these decisions, management applies its judgment based on its understanding and analysis of the relevant circumstances and the Company's historical experience.

The Company's accounting policies that are most important to the presentation of its results of operations and financial condition, and which require the greatest use of judgments and estimates by management, are designated as its critical accounting policies. See discussion of the Company's critical accounting policies under Item 7 in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the Company's fiscal year ended August 31, 2013. Management periodically re-evaluates and adjusts its critical accounting policies as circumstances change. There were no changes in the Company's critical accounting policies during the three and nine months ended May 31, 2014.

New Accounting Pronouncements

Executive Overview and Outlook

Net earnings for the three months ended May 31, 2014 were $16.5 million or $1.28 per diluted share compared with $26.1 million or $2.01 per diluted share in the prior year. The decrease in earnings was primarily attributable to revenues, which declined 23 percent to $169.9 million from $219.5 million. The primary driver of lower revenue was the irrigation segment, where sales decreased 26 percent to $149.0 million. Infrastructure revenues increased 13 percent to $20.9 million, partially offsetting these declines. Gross margins declined by 0.3 percentage points and operating expenses were lower by $0.5 million. Operating margin for the three months ended May 31, 2014 declined to 14.8 percent as compared to 18.0 percent for the three months ended May 31, 2013 primarily as a result of deleverage on lower sales.

The Company's irrigation revenues are highly dependent upon the need for irrigated agricultural crop production, which, in turn, depends upon many factors, including the following primary drivers:

Agricultural commodity prices As of May 2014, corn prices have decreased 26 percent and soybean prices were relatively flat compared to the same time last year.

Net farm income As of February 2014, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) estimated U.S. 2014 net farm income to be $95.8 billion, down 27 percent from USDA's estimate of U.S. 2013 net farm income of $130.5 billion. The U.S. 2014 net farm income forecast would be the lowest since 2010, but would remain 9% above the 10-year average.

Weather conditions As the third fiscal quarter ended, Spring storms across the Midwest created additional demand for replacement units. Drought conditions drove higher equipment purchases in prior years.

Governmental policies A number of government laws and regulations can impact the Company's business, including:

The Agricultural Act of 2014 provides certainty to growers by adopting a five-year farm bill. This law continues many of its existing programs, including funding for the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP), which provides financial assistance to farmers to implement conservation practices and is frequently used to assist in the purchase of center pivot irrigation systems.

Certain tax incentives (such as the Section 179 income tax deduction and bonus depreciation) that encourage equipment purchases were significantly reduced in 2014.

The U.S. government has imposed trade sanctions that could impact irrigation equipment sales to Russia and the Ukraine.

The ethanol mandate that increases corn demand was reduced.

Recent legislative discussions involve possible elimination of the U.S. Ex-Im Bank. Elimination of this government entity could impact the Company's ability to cost effectively assume credit risk in certain international markets.

At this point, the U.S. irrigation market has slowed significantly in recent quarters as compared to the same time last year. U.S. irrigation revenues have contracted due to the significant reduction in commodity prices, the reduction in the Central Plains drought conditions, and the reduction in accelerated tax depreciation benefits, partially offset by demand caused by Spring storm damage. International markets remain active, but with some projects delayed due to lower commodity prices or by regional conflict. The current political environment regarding Russia, the Ukraine and Iraq may have a negative effect on international irrigation equipment growth. As a result of the above factors and that prior year fourth quarter revenues included $17.4 million associated with the Iraq contract, the Company anticipates lower irrigation segment revenues for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2014.

The infrastructure business has improved its profit profile and generated growth in an environment of constrained government spending. While the status of the U.S. highway bill, which is scheduled to expire in the fall of 2014, creates uncertainty for the near term, opportunities exist for market share gains in each of the infrastructure product lines. Demand for the Company's transportation safety products continues to be driven by population growth and the need for improved road safety.

Table of Contents

As of May 31, 2014, the Company had an order backlog of $73.6 million compared with $80.0 million at May 31, 2013 and $66.5 million at August 31, 2013. Order backlog at May 31, 2014 declined from the same time in 2013 primarily due to a decline in orders from international markets as the prior year irrigation backlog included a $23.0 million equipment and installation contract in Iraq, of which only $2.6 million remained in backlog at May 31, 2014. U.S. irrigation market and infrastructure segment backlog increased over the same time last year. The current year infrastructure backlog includes a $12.8 million Road Zipper System™ order for the Golden Gate Bridge that is expected to be recognized in revenue during fiscal 2015. The Company's backlog can fluctuate from period to period due to the seasonality, cyclicity, timing and execution of contracts. Backlog typically represents long term projects as well as short lead-time orders and therefore, is generally not a good indication of the next quarter's revenues.

The June 2014 escalation of political hostility has made it more difficult to complete the Company's contract in Iraq. At May 31, 2014, the Company had a total exposure of $4.4 million on this contract, including $2.5 million of accounts receivable, which is not currently due, and a $1.9 million performance bond securing completion of the contract. The Company has not provided a reserve for these amounts, but will continue to assess the situation as developments in the country evolve. The Company has suspended installation services indefinitely until the political environment improves in Iraq. If the Company is unable to complete its work under this agreement, it does not expect to be able to realize the remaining $2.6 million due under the contract.

The global drivers for the Company's markets of population growth, expanded food production and efficient water use and infrastructure expansion support the Company's long-term growth goals. The most significant opportunities for growth over the next several years are in international markets, where irrigation use is significantly less developed and demand is driven primarily by food security, water scarcity and population growth.

Results of OperationsFor the Three Months ended May 31, 2014 compared to the Three Months ended May 31, 2013

The following section presents an analysis of the Company's operating results displayed in the condensed consolidated statements of operations for the three months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013. Table of ContentsRevenues

Operating revenues for the three months ended May 31, 2014 declined 23 percent to $169.9 million from $219.5 million for the three months ended May 31, 2013 as irrigation revenues decreased $51.9 million partially offset by the $2.3 million increase of infrastructure revenues. The irrigation segment provided 88 percent of the Company's revenue for the three months ended May 31, 2014 as compared to 92 percent of the same prior year period.

U.S. irrigation revenues for the three months ended May 31, 2014 of $88.1 million decreased 26 percent compared to the three months ended May 31, 2013. The decrease in U.S. irrigation revenues is primarily due to volume decline in the number of irrigation systems sold as compared to the prior year. Lower commodity prices contributed to lower demand for U.S. irrigation equipment. The revenues generated from the LAKOS® separators and filtration solution business that was acquired in August 2013 partially offset the decrease in sales of irrigation systems.

International irrigation revenues for the three months ended May 31, 2014 of $60.9 million decreased 26 percent from $82.6 million in the three months ended May 31, 2013. The decrease in international irrigation revenues is primarily due to volume decline in the number of irrigation systems sold as compared to the prior year. Operating revenues decreased most significantly in the Middle East due to the near completion of the Iraq contract. Revenues from the Iraq contract for the three months ended May 31, 2014 were $0.4 million compared to $16.0 million for the three months ended May 31, 2013. In other international markets, revenue declined in Brazil, Canada, China, and Russia/Ukraine partially offset by increases in Australia and water filtration system sales from the LAKOS® business.

Infrastructure segment revenues were $20.9 million for the three months ended May 31, 2014 increasing 13 percent from $18.6 million for the three months ended May 31, 2013 primarily due to sales increases in road safety products, railroad signals and structures, and Road Zipper System™ projects.

Gross Margin

Gross profit for the three months ended May 31, 2014 of $48.2 million decreased 23 percent from $63.0 million for the three months ended May 31, 2013. The decrease in gross profit was primarily due to the decline in sales and a decrease in gross margin to 28.4 percent for the three months ended May 31, 2014 from 28.7 percent for the three months ended May 31, 2013. Gross margins in irrigation declined by less than one percentage point due primarily to fixed cost deleverage on lower sales volume. Infrastructure gross margins improved by approximately three percentage points primarily due to a combination of mix shift to higher margin products and fixed cost leverage on higher sales volume.

Operating Expenses

The Company's operating expenses of $23.0 million for the three months ended May 31, 2014 decreased by $0.5 million over operating expenses incurred during the three months ended May 31, 2013. Excluding the acquired Lakos business, operating expenses decreased $2.7 million primarily due to reductions of $1.8 million in personnel related expenses including incentive compensation and decrease of $0.7 million in bad debt expenses caused by an additional accounts receivable reserve in the prior year. Operating expenses were 13.6 percent of sales for the three months ended May 31, 2014 compared to 10.7 percent of sales for the three months ended May 31, 2013.

Income Taxes

The Company recorded income tax expense of $9.0 million and $13.7 million for the three months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The estimated annual effective income tax rate was 35.3 percent and 34.4 percent for the three months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The increase in the estimated annual effective income tax rate primarily relates to an incremental increase in taxes due to the earnings mix among jurisdictions.

Revenues

Operating revenues for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 decreased 13 percent to $470.4 million from $542.5 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2013. The decrease is attributable to a $83.8 million decrease in irrigation revenues offset in part by an $11.7 million increase in infrastructure revenues. The irrigation segment provided 88 percent of Company revenue for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 as compared to 92 percent of the same prior year period.

U.S. irrigation revenues for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 of $260.8 million decreased 21 percent compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2013. The decrease in U.S. irrigation revenues is primarily due to volume decline in the number of irrigation systems sold as compared to the prior year. Lower agricultural commodity prices contributed to lower demand for U.S. irrigation equipment. The revenues generated from the LAKOS® separators and filtration solution business that was acquired in August 2013 partially offset the decrease in sales of irrigation systems.

International irrigation revenues for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 of $153.3 million decreased 8 percent from $166.0 million in the nine months ended May 31, 2013. The decrease in international irrigation revenues is primarily due to volume decline in the number of irrigation systems sold as compared to the prior year. Operating revenues decreased most significantly in the Middle East due to the near completion of the Iraq contract. Revenues from the Iraq contract for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 were $2.4 million compared to $16.0 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2013. In other international markets, revenue declined in China, Russia/Ukraine and Canada partially offset by increases in Australia and water filtration system sales from the LAKOS® business.

Table of Contents

Infrastructure segment revenues were $56.3 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 increasing 26 percent from $44.6 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2013 primarily due to sales increases in nearly all product lines.

Gross Margin

Gross profit for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 of $131.1 million decreased 16 percent from $156.3 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2013. The decrease in gross profit was primarily due to the decline in sales and a decrease in gross margin to 27.9 percent for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 compared from 28.8 percent for the nine months ended May 31, 2013. Gross margins in irrigation declined by approximately one percentage point primarily due to product warranty matters and fixed cost deleverage on lower volume. Infrastructure gross margins improved by approximately three percentage points primarily due to a combination of mix shift to higher margin products and fixed cost leverage on higher sales volume.

Operating Expenses

The Company's operating expenses of $68.9 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 increased by $3.9 million over operating expenses incurred during the nine months ended May 31, 2013. Excluding the acquired Lakos business, operating expenses decreased $2.6 million primarily due to a reduction of $1.2 million in personnel related expenses, $0.9 million decrease in research and development expenses and $0.6 million in lower advertising expenses. Operating expenses were 14.7 percent of sales for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 compared to 12.0 percent of sales for the nine months ended May 31, 2013.

Income Taxes

The Company recorded income tax expense of $21.9 million and $31.5 million for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The estimated annual effective income tax rate was 35.3 percent and 34.4 percent for the nine months ended May 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The increase in the estimated annual effective income tax rate from May 2013 to May 2014 primarily relates to an incremental increase in taxes due to the earnings mix among jurisdictions.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's cash and cash equivalents totaled $182.1 million at May 31, 2014 compared with $170.2 million at May 31, 2013 and $151.9 million at August 31, 2013. The Company requires cash for financing its receivables and inventories, paying operating expenses and capital expenditures, and for dividends and share repurchases. The Company meets its liquidity needs and finances its capital expenditures from its available cash and funds provided by operations along with borrowings under its revolving credit arrangement described below. The Company believes its current cash resources, projected operating cash flow, and remaining capacity under its continuing bank line of credit are sufficient to cover all of its expected working capital needs, planned capital expenditures, dividends, and other cash requirements, excluding potential acquisitions.

The Company's total cash and cash equivalents held by foreign subsidiaries was approximately $34.9 million and $18.0 million as of May 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The Company does not intend to repatriate the funds, and does not expect these funds to have a significant impact on the Company's overall liquidity. The Company considers its earnings in foreign subsidiaries to be permanently reinvested and would need to accrue and pay taxes if these funds were repatriated.

Net working capital was $286.8 million at May 31, 2014, as compared with $280.5 million at May 31, 2013. Cash flows provided by operations totaled $65.9 million during the nine months ended May 31, 2014 compared to $40.9 million provided by operations during the same prior year period. Cash provided by operations increased by $25.0 million compared to the prior year period primarily as a result of positive cash flow changes in receivables ($66.4 million) and inventories ($10.2 million) partially offset by decreased earnings ($20.0 million) and negative cash flow changes in payables ($20.7 million).

Cash flows used in investing activities totaled $9.6 million during the nine months ended May 31, 2014 compared to $8.6 million used in investing activities during the same prior year period. The increase primarily resulted from settlements of net investment hedges offset by a reduction in capital purchases. Capital spending of $7.8 million in fiscal 2014 decreased compared to the prior year capital spending of $8.1 million.

Cash flows used in financing activities totaled $26.9 million during the nine months ended May 31, 2014 compared to cash flows used in financing activities of $5.6 million during the same prior year period. The increase in cash used in financing activities was primarily related to share repurchases of $17.8 million and dividend increases of $3.9 million.

Capital Allocation Plan

The Company's capital allocation plan articulates the Company's plans to continue to invest in attaining revenue and earnings growth, combined with a defined process for enhancing returns to shareholders. Under the Company's announced capital allocation plan in January 2014, the priorities for uses of cash include:

Investment in organic growth including capital expenditures and expansion of international markets,

Dividends to shareholders, along with expectations to increase dividends on an annual basis,

Synergistic water related acquisitions that provide attractive returns to shareholders, and

Opportunistic share repurchases taking into account cyclical and seasonal fluctuations.

Capital Expenditures and Expansion of International Markets

Capital expenditures for fiscal 2014 are estimated to be approximately $10.0 million to $15.0 million largely focused on manufacturing capacity expansion and productivity improvements. The Company's capital expenditure plan includes investments in a manufacturing operation in Turkey, which is planned to be operational early in fiscal 2015 and should accommodate long-term growth plans for several international markets. The Company's management does maintain flexibility to modify the amount and timing of some of the planned expenditures in response to economic conditions.

Dividends

In the third quarter of fiscal 2014, the Company paid a quarterly cash dividend of $0.260 per common share or $3.3 million to shareholders as compared to $0.115 per common share or $1.5 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2013.

Share Repurchases

During the three months ended May 31, 2014, the Company repurchased 129,104 shares of common stock for an aggregate purchase price of $11.1 million. During the nine months ended May 31, 2014, the Company repurchased 207,624 shares of common stock for an aggregate purchase price of $17.8 million. During the three and nine months ended May 31, 2013, the Company did not repurchase shares of common stock. The remaining amount available under the Company's repurchase program was $132.2 million as of May 31, 2014.

Credit Arrangements

The Company has an unsecured $30.0 million Revolving Credit Note and Credit Agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., which was amended on January 22, 2014 to revise letter of credit expiry dates and cash collateralization procedures (the Revolving Credit Agreement). The borrowings from the Revolving Credit Agreement may primarily be used for working capital purposes and funding acquisitions. At May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013, the Company had no outstanding borrowings on the Revolving Credit Agreement. The amount of borrowings available at any time under the Revolving Credit Agreement is reduced by the amount of standby letters of credit then outstanding.

At May 31, 2014, the Company had the ability to borrow $24.5 million under this facility, after consideration of standby letters of credit of $5.5 million. Borrowings under the Revolving Credit Agreement bear interest at a rate equal to LIBOR plus 90 basis points (1.05 percent as of May 31, 2014), subject to adjustment as set forth in the Revolving Credit Agreement. Interest is paid on a monthly to quarterly basis depending on loan type. The Company also pays an annual commitment fee of 0.25 percent on the unused portion of the Revolving Credit Agreement. Any unpaid principal and interest is due by February 13, 2016.

The Revolving Credit Agreement contains certain covenants relating to the Company's financial condition. These include maintaining a funded debt to EBITDA ratio, a fixed charge coverage ratio, a current ratio and a tangible net worth requirement at specified levels. Upon the occurrence of any event of default of these covenants, including a change in control of the Company, all amounts due thereunder may be declared to be immediately due and payable. At May 31, 2014 and 2013 and August 31, 2013, the Company was in compliance with all loan covenants.

The Company's wholly-owned European subsidiary, Lindsay Europe SAS, had an unsecured revolving line of credit with Societe Generale, a European commercial bank, under which it could borrow for working capital purposes up to 2.3 million Euros. This line of credit expired on January 31, 2014. The Company intends to put a new credit arrangement in place by December 31, 2014.
