WESTLAKE CHEMICAL
FOURTH QUARTER 2015
CONFERENCE CALL SCRIPT

DAVE HANSEN

As I'm sure everyone listening to this call is aware, on January 29th we announced that we had submitted a proposal to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Axiall for $20.00 per share in cash and stock. The proposal, which was summarily rejected by Axiall, represented a significant premium of 108% to Axiall's closing price of $9.60 on January 22nd, 2016, the last trading day before we made our proposal. Given Axiall's response, we brought our proposal to the attention of Axiall shareholders who have overwhelmingly expressed their desire for Axiall to engage in prompt negotiations with us on our proposal. Based on this response, we have nominated a slate of ten independent and highly-qualified individuals for consideration by Axiall shareholders for election to the board of directors at the 2016 Axiall Annual Meeting. During our prepared remarks, we will not comment further on the Axiall proposal. Additionally, we will not be able to respond to any callers' questions regarding Axiall and will focus our question and answer period on Westlake's financial and operating results.
