Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Manning & Napier, Inc. (the Company) has announced that Patrick Cunningham resigned on April 15, 2016 from his position as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and as a member of the Company's Board of Directors (the Board), effective April 18, 2016. Mr. Cunningham is retiring due to personal reasons unassociated with his role at the Company. He will remain with the Company in an advisory capacity following his retirement until July 17, 2016, and receive aggregate cash compensation of $250,000 per annum for such period. The Company intends to fill the Board vacancy resulting from Mr. Cunningham's resignation; however, no timetable has been announced for the appointment of a new board member. Until a replacement can be identified, the Company's Board will consist of seven members, five of which are independent directors.

The Company also announced that, effective April 18, 2016, William Manning, the Company's co-founder and Chairman of the Board, has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Company to replace Mr. Cunningham. In addition to his positions with the Company, since 2003 Mr. Manning has served as Director of Investment Process at Manning & Napier Advisors, LLC, an affiliate of the Company, and, prior to that, was also the President of Manning & Napier Advisors, LLC. Mr. Manning has previously held officer and director positions with Manning & Napier Fund, Inc. Mr. Manning, age 79, earned a Bachelor's degree from Dartmouth College in 1958. Mr. Manning will not receive any additional compensation in connection with his new position.

As previously disclosed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, from time to time, the Company reimburses Mr. Manning for business travel in connection with the use of a private plane owned by Mr. Manning. The Company owns no direct or indirect interest in such private plane, and the Company has not provided any financing to Mr. Manning for such plane. In the event Mr. Manning, or other executives, use such plane in connection with the business of the Company, the Company reimburses Mr. Manning based upon the amount of flight time per trip, which is a fraction of the total cost of the ownership and maintenance of such plane.

As part of the transition, a newly named Operating Committee consisting of the Company's current senior managers will report to Mr. Manning. This Committee will include James Mikolaichik, Chief Financial Officer, Jeffrey Coons, President, Richard Yates, Chief Legal Officer, Charles Stamey, Executive Vice President and Managing Director of Sales, and Ebrahim Busheri, Director of Investments.

In addition, on April 15, 2016, Robert M. Zak notified the Company of his decision not to stand for re-election to the Board at the Company's 2016 annual meeting of stockholders. Mr. Zak's decision not to stand for re-election to the Board is not due to any disagreement with the Company, including with respect to any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices.
