Item 5.05. Amendment to the Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics

On May 17, 2018, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Edwards Lifesciences Corporation (the Company) adopted an amended and restated code of ethics (referred to as the Global Business Practice Standards or the Titanium Book) to replace and supercede the Company's existing Titanium Book.

The Titanium Book was updated to improve language, appearance and style, and included the following changes:

Under the Our Community section:

we added detail for a Sustainability sub-section and related principle We are committed to acting as responsible corporate citizens and advancing the trust of our stakeholders, partners and communities. We hold ourselves accountable for our environmental, social and governance performance.

we renamed the Supporting the Community sub-section to Strengthening the Community and modified the sub-section to accurately reference the Edwards Lifesciences Foundation and related initiatives for grants to charitable organizations.

we added information on the topic of personal political contributions.

Under the Our Company and Shareholders section:

we added detail for an Information Security sub-section and related principle Each of us must protect information in all forms from unauthorized access, use, disruption, modification or destruction, regardless of whether the information is stored electronically or physically.

we expanded the Conflicts of Interests sub-section to include guidance on relationships that impact decision making and questions and answers on accepting gifts and other items of value from vendors/service providers.

Under the Marketplace section:

we added detail for the following sub-sections and related principles:

Fraud We watch for red flags and do what we can to prevent and avoid fraud.

Edgar Filing: Edwards Lifesciences Corp - Form 8-K

Bidding, Tenders and Procurement We follow all of our procurement policies and procedures and stay aware of any situations that might give rise to fraud.

Interactions with Patients, Caregivers and Patient Organizations We treat patients, their caregivers and patient organizations with respect, empathy and transparency in compliance with all laws, regulations and applicable industry standards.

we also expanded:

the Business Information sub-section to include questions and answers on some limitations around obtaining confidential/proprietary information; and the Trade Compliance sub-section to include guidance related to hand-carried goods.

Under the Our Employees section, we expanded and/or modified the Fair Employment, Harassment, and Drugs and Alcohol sub-sections to better align the information and requirements with our recently completed and distributed Employee Handbook.

The Titanium Book was also amended to remove language that the Company considered to be dated or duplicative and unnecessary.

The amendment took effect upon adoption by the Board and did not result in any waiver, explicit or implicit, of any provision of the Company's previous Titanium Book.

The foregoing description of the amendments to the Titanium Book is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Titanium Book, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 14 hereto and which is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.05.

The updated Titanium Book will be made available on the Company's website at www.edwards.com on the Corporate Governance/Corporate Responsibility/Global Integrity Program page under the Investors section as soon as practicable.
