CN refinances US$1 billion revolving credit facility

MONTREAL, Dec. 18, 2002 — Canadian National announced today it has successfully refinanced its US$1 billion revolving credit facility for a three-year period with an international banking syndicate led by BMO Nesbitt Burns and J. P. Morgan Securities Inc.

The new committed credit facility is available for working capital and general corporate purposes at CN, including back-stopping the company's commercial paper program. The new facility, containing customary terms and conditions, replaces CN's current credit facilities, which are scheduled to expire in March 2003.

Claude Mongeau, CN's executive vice-president and chief financial officer, said: "I am very pleased that CN has secured 3-year committed financing on favorable terms with a syndicate of leading domestic and international banks. The new facility is not only recognition of CN's strong financial record and credit quality, but also a reflection of the syndicate's confidence in our future performance. We appreciate the banks' support."

Canadian National Railway Company spans Canada and mid-America, from the Atlantic and Pacific oceans to the Gulf of Mexico, serving the ports of Vancouver, Prince Rupert, B.C., Montreal, Halifax, New Orleans, and Mobile, Ala., and the key cities of Toronto, Buffalo, Chicago, Detroit, Duluth, Minn./Superior, Wis., Green Bay, Wis., Minneapolis/St. Paul, Memphis, St. Louis, and Jackson, Miss., with connections to all points in North America.
