Item 1.01. Entry into a Definitive Material Agreement.

As previously disclosed, on April 24, 2014, Alimera Sciences Limited ("Limited"), a subsidiary of Alimera Sciences, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a Loan and Security Agreement (the "Loan Agreement") with the several banks and other financial institutions or entities from time to time parties to the Loan Agreement (collectively, referred to as the "Lender") and Hercules Capital, Inc. (formerly known as Hercules Technology Growth Capital, Inc.), a Maryland corporation, in its capacity as administrative agent for itself and the Lender (the "Agent") pursuant to which the Company obtained a loan in the aggregate principal amount of $35 million (the "Term Loan"). Also, as previously disclosed, on November 2, 2015, March 14, 2016 and May 26, 2016, Limited entered into various amendments to the Loan Agreement (these various amendments together with the Loan Agreement, the "Amended Loan Agreement"). The Lender and Agent waived a default under the Amended Loan Agreement and amended other covenants as set forth therein and described below, pursuant to a waiver executed by the parties on July 21, 2016 (the "Waiver").

Waiver

In connection with the Amended Loan Agreement, Limited agreed to covenants regarding certain revenue thresholds and liquidity for the Company. The occurrence of a default of either of these covenants could result in the acceleration of Limited's obligations under the Amended Loan Agreement and an increase to the applicable interest rate, and would permit the Lender to exercise remedies with respect to the collateral under the Amended Loan Agreement, including declaring the entire Term Loan due and payable.

The Waiver cures the default of the liquidity threshold currently existing under the Amended Loan Agreement and modifies the liquidity covenant requirement so that Limited and the Company must keep at least $20 million in liquidity, consisting of accounts receivables from customers in the United States and cash, of which at least $12.5 million must be held in cash in bank accounts that are subject to an account control agreement in favor of Lender, or that are subject to a first lien perfected security interest in favor of Lender. In addition, up to $2 million in unrestricted cash held by Limited, the Company or its subsidiaries located outside the United States and United Kingdom shall be permitted to apply to the $12.5 million of required cash. The Waiver modifies the 3-month trailing revenue covenant so that it is not measured at the end of July and reduces the 3-month trailing revenue target to be measured at August 31, 2016. Following execution of the Waiver, Limited will pay to the Lender a weekly ticking fee ("Weekly Ticking Fee") equal to 0.05% multiplied by the outstanding principal amount of all Term Loan Advances (as defined in the Loan Agreement), which currently is calculated at $17,500 every week. The Weekly Ticking Fee will no longer be payable if the Company raises collectively $15,000,000 in equity. Finally, Limited has agreed that it will pay Lender a fee of $350,000 no later than September 1, 2016.

Amendment to Warrant Agreement

In connection with the March 14, 2016 amendment to the Loan Agreement, the Company entered into an amended warrant agreement with Hercules Technology II, L.P. (the "Warrantholder"), to purchase up to 862,069 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $2.03 per share (as previously amended, the "Warrant"). In connection with the Waiver, the Company agreed to further amend the terms of the Warrant (the "Amended Warrant") by increasing the number of shares that may be purchased by the Warrantholder to 1,258,993 shares and reducing the exercise price to $1.39 per share.

Copies of the Waiver and the Amended Warrant will be filed as exhibits to the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 30, 2016. The foregoing description of the terms of the Waiver and Warrant Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such exhibits.

Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On July 26, 2016, Alimera issued a press release regarding its revenue for the second quarter ended June 30, 2016.
