Senior Management Agreement for John D. Kelly

On January 5, 2017, in connection with the appointment of Mr. Kelly as Chief Financial Officer of the Company, the Company entered into a Senior Management Agreement, effective as of January 3, 2017, with Mr. Kelly (the “Kelly Agreement”). Set forth below is a brief description of the material terms of the Kelly Agreement:

Term: Pursuant to the Kelly Agreement, Mr. Kelly’s employment by the Company will continue until such time as either Mr. Kelly or the Company terminates his employment pursuant to the terms of the Kelly Agreement.

Base Salary: The Kelly Agreement entitles Mr. Kelly to an annual base salary. The amount of such base salary is not specified in the Kelly Agreement. The Chief Executive Officer of the Company will review Mr. Kelly’s compensation annually, based on his performance and the Company’s other compensation policies. Mr. Kelly’s base salary may not be reduced without his consent unless such reduction is part of a comparable overall reduction for members of senior management of the Company. The Compensation Committee of the Company’s Board (the “Compensation Committee”) has approved a new base salary of $325,000 for Mr. Kelly.

Annual Bonus: Each calendar year, Mr. Kelly will be eligible for an annual bonus in an amount determined by the Compensation Committee based on the Company’s and Mr. Kelly’s performance and the Company’s compensation policies. For 2017, the Compensation Committee has approved Mr. Kelly’s annual target bonus at 70% of his base salary ($227,500).

Equity Awards: Mr. Kelly will generally be eligible to participate in the Company’s equity plans, with the amount and terms of any equity awards being in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee based on the Company's and Mr. Kelly's performance and the Company's compensation policies. The Compensation Committee has approved a long-term equity incentive award for Mr. Kelly of 70% of his base salary ($227,500), subject to the achievement of predetermined objectives.

Other Benefits: Mr. Kelly will be eligible to participate in the Company's various health and welfare benefit plans for its similarly-situated key management employees.

Post-Termination Payments: If Mr. Kelly's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined in the Kelly Agreement) or he resigns for Good Reason (as defined in the Kelly Agreement), Mr. Kelly will be entitled to: (i) severance pay in an amount equal to the sum of Mr. Kelly's base salary and the target bonus for the year of termination or resignation; (ii) continuation of medical benefits for twelve (12) months upon the same terms as exist from time to time for active similarly-situated executives of the Company; and (iii) an amount in cash equal to the annual bonus that Mr. Kelly would have earned for the year of termination or resignation had he remained employed for the year in which his termination or resignation occurs based on satisfaction of Company performance targets, prorated for the number of completed days of employment during the year of termination or resignation.

Death or Permanent Disability. If Mr. Kelly's employment is terminated due to Mr. Kelly's death or permanent disability, then Mr. Kelly or Mr. Kelly's estate will be entitled to (i) an amount in cash equal to the annual bonus that Mr. Kelly would have earned for the year of his death or disability, prorated for the number of completed days of employment during that year; (ii) continuation of medical benefits for Mr. Kelly and his eligible dependents upon the same terms as exist immediately prior to the termination of employment for similarly-situated active executives of the Company for the six (6)-month period immediately following the termination of employment; and (iii) full vesting of any outstanding time based equity awards granted to Mr. Kelly.

Change of Control: If (i) Mr. Kelly's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or if he resigns for a CoC Good Reason (as defined in the Kelly Agreement), in either case, within two (2) years following a Change of Control (as defined in the Kelly Agreement) or (ii) Mr. Kelly reasonably demonstrates that his termination by the Company (or an event which, had it occurred after a Change of Control, would have constituted a CoC Good Reason) prior to a Change of Control was attributable to, or intended to facilitate, a Change of Control or was at the request of a third party acting to effect a Change of Control, and a Change of Control actually occurs within twelve (12) months of such termination or resignation (each of (i) and (ii), a "Qualifying Termination"), then Mr. Kelly will be entitled to: (a) cash equal to one and one-half (1.5) times the sum of his annual base salary and target bonus for the year of termination or resignation; (b) cash equal to the target amount of his annual bonus for the year of termination or resignation, prorated based on the number of days employed in the year of termination or resignation; and (c) continuation of medical benefits for eighteen (18) months following the date of such termination or resignation upon the same terms as exist for him immediately prior to the termination or resignation date. In addition, in the case of a Qualifying Termination that occurs prior to a Change of Control, Mr. Kelly will be provided with a cash payment equal to the difference between (i) the amount of the premium paid by him for continuation of medical benefits under COBRA between the date of the Qualifying Termination and the date of the Change of Control and (ii) the amount of the premium that Mr. Kelly would have paid for continuation of medical benefits during such period had his coverage been continued during such period upon the same terms as existed for him immediately prior to the termination or resignation date. All of Mr. Kelly's outstanding equity grants that were awarded at or prior to the time of the Change of Control will fully vest upon the occurrence of a Qualifying Termination. The receipt of the benefits described in this paragraph is conditioned on Mr. Kelly's compliance with the covenants, warranties, representations and agreements set forth in the Kelly Agreement, as well as his execution and acceptance of the terms and conditions of a general release in the standard form used by the Company.

The Kelly Agreement further provides that if any amount, right or benefit paid or payable to Mr. Kelly under the Kelly Agreement or any other plan, program or arrangement would constitute an “excess parachute payment” under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then the amount of payments payable to Mr. Kelly under the Kelly Agreement will be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of such payments is subject to such excise tax.

The foregoing description of the terms of the Kelly Agreement does not purport to be a complete description of the Kelly Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Kelly Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.

Senior Management Agreement for James H. Roth

On January 5, 2017, the Company entered into a new Amended and Restated Senior Management Agreement, effective as of January 1, 2017 with James H. Roth (the “Roth Agreement”). As described in more detail below, the Roth Agreement consists of substantially the same terms as the Amended and Restated Senior Management Agreement previously entered into by the Company and Mr. Roth except for the following material changes: (i) the amount of severance payable to Mr. Roth in the event of a qualifying termination or resignation changed from the sum of Mr. Roth’s base salary and the target bonus for the year of termination to an amount equal to two (2) times this sum; and (ii) the benefits payable to Mr. Roth in the event of a Qualifying Termination (as defined in the Roth Agreement) in connection with a Change of Control (as defined in the Roth Agreement) changed from two (2) times the sum of Mr. Roth’s base salary and the target bonus for the year of termination to an amount two and a half (2.5) times this sum; and (iii) a death and permanent disability benefit was added.

The Roth Agreement supersedes and replaces the Amended and Restated Senior Management Agreement previously entered into by the Company and Mr. Roth. Set forth below is a brief description of the material terms of the Roth Agreement, including the changes described above:

Term: The Roth Agreement covers a term beginning on January 1, 2017, and continuing for three years from that date. Following the expiration of that initial three-year term, the Roth Agreement will be automatically renewed every twelve (12) months, unless Mr. Roth or the Company provides sixty (60) days notice to the other that such automatic renewal shall cease. The Roth Agreement may be earlier terminated by Mr. Roth or the Company pursuant to its terms.

Base Salary: The Roth Agreement entitles Mr. Roth to an annual base salary. The amount of such base salary is not specified in the Roth Agreement. The Board of the Company will review Mr. Roth’s compensation annually, based on his performance and the Company’s other compensation policies. Mr. Roth’s base salary may not be reduced without his consent unless such reduction is part of a comparable overall reduction for members of senior management of the Company.

Annual Bonus: Each calendar year Mr. Roth will be eligible for an annual bonus in an amount determined by the Compensation Committee based on the Company’s and Mr. Roth’s performance and the Company’s compensation policies.

Equity Awards: Mr. Roth will generally be eligible to participate in the Company’s equity plans, with the amount and terms of any equity awards being in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee based on the Company’s and Mr. Roth’s performance and the Company’s compensation policies.

Other Benefits: Mr. Roth will be eligible to participate in the Company’s various health and welfare benefit plans for its similarly-situated key management employees.

Post-Termination Payments: If Mr. Roth's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined in the Roth Agreement) or he resigns for Good Reason (as defined in the Roth Agreement), Mr. Roth will be entitled to: (i) severance pay in an amount equal to two (2) times the sum of Mr. Roth's base salary and the target bonus for the year of termination or resignation; (ii) continuation of medical benefits for twenty-four (24) months upon the same terms as exist from time to time for active similarly-situated executives of the Company; and (iii) an amount in cash equal to the annual bonus that Mr. Roth would have earned for the year of termination or resignation had he remained employed for the year in which his termination or resignation occurs based on satisfaction of Company performance targets, prorated for the number of completed days of employment during the year of termination or resignation.

Death or Permanent Disability. If Mr. Roth's employment is terminated due to Mr. Roth's death or permanent disability, then Mr. Roth or Mr. Roth's estate will be entitled to (i) an amount in cash equal to the annual bonus that Mr. Roth would have earned for the year of his death or disability, prorated for the number of completed days of employment during that year; (ii) continuation of medical benefits for Mr. Roth and his eligible dependents upon the same terms as exist immediately prior to the termination of employment for similarly-situated active executives of the Company for the six (6)-month period immediately following the termination of employment; and (iii) full vesting of any outstanding time based equity awards granted to Mr. Roth.

Change of Control: If (i) Mr. Roth's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or if he resigns for a CoC Good Reason (as defined in the Roth Agreement), in either case, within two (2) years following a Change of Control or (ii) Mr. Roth reasonably demonstrates that his termination by the Company (or an event which, had it occurred after a Change of Control, would have constituted a CoC Good Reason) prior to a Change of Control was attributable to, or intended to facilitate, a Change of Control or was at the request of a third party acting to effect a Change of Control, and a Change of Control actually occurs within twelve (12) months of such termination or resignation (each of (i) and (ii), a "Qualifying Termination"), then Mr. Roth will be entitled to: (a) cash equal to two and one-half (2.5) times the sum of his annual base salary and target bonus for the year of termination or resignation; (b) cash equal to the target amount of his annual bonus for the year of termination or resignation, prorated based on the number of days employed in the year of termination or resignation; and (c) continuation of medical benefits for thirty (30) months following the date of such termination or resignation upon the same terms as exist for him immediately prior to the termination or resignation date. In addition, in the case of a Qualifying Termination that occurs prior to a Change of Control, Mr. Roth will be provided with a cash payment equal to the difference between (i) the amount of the premium paid by him for continuation of medical benefits under COBRA between the date of the Qualifying Termination and the date of the Change of Control and (ii) the amount of the premium that Mr. Roth would have paid for continuation of medical benefits during such period had his coverage been continued during such period upon the same terms as existed for him immediately prior to the termination or resignation date. All of Mr. Roth's outstanding equity grants that were awarded at or prior to the time of the Change of Control will fully vest upon the occurrence of a Qualifying Termination. The receipt of the benefits described in this paragraph is conditioned on Mr. Roth's compliance with the covenants, warranties, representations and agreements set forth in the Roth Agreement, as well as his execution and acceptance of the terms and conditions of a general release in the standard form used by the Company.

The Roth Agreement further provides that if any amount, right or benefit paid or payable to Mr. Roth under the Roth Agreement or any other plan, program or arrangement would constitute an "excess parachute payment" under Section 280G of the Code, subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then the amount of payments payable to Mr. Roth under the Roth Agreement will be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of such payments is subject to such excise tax.

The foregoing description of the terms of the Roth Agreement does not purport to be a complete description of the Roth Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Roth Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.
