Clarification about Investments for 2009

(Rio de Janeiro, December 23, 2008). PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, [Bovespa: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, Latibex: XPBR/XPBRA, BCBA: APBR/APBRA], a Brazilian international energy company, clarifies the news that were published today in the principal Brazilian newspapers about declarations of the CEO José Sérgio Gabrielli regarding the Company's Budget for 2009.

The Company would like to clarify that the final decision about the size of the investment program for 2009 will be included within the scope of the 2009-2013 Business Plan, which will only be finalized in early 2009, as communicated to the market on December 19, 2008.

In August 2008 the company presented to the Ministry of Mines and Energy And to the Ministry of Planning a program of expenditures (PDG) for 2009 in the amount of R$ 72.258 millions of which R$ 66.137 millions is considered as direct investments. This budget was then presented for the appreciation of the National Congress in accordance with the Annual Budget Law Act for 2009 as part of the State Owned companies budgeting report, as required by current legislation.

The Company clarifies that such budget expenses were prepared in the first half of 2008 and were based on different price and cost assumptions than those currently being considered under today's environment. It is also the case that for purposes of preparing the PDG, the Company considers the maximum that it would invest during the following year.

It should be noted that following the submission of the PDG, the investment budget is continually reviewed and adjusted during the course of the year, and periodically adjusted to align the approved limits with the goals of the Business Plan.
