Coca-Cola FEMSA and Grupo Fomento Queretano reach an agreement to merge their bottling operations

Mexico City, Mexico – December 15, 2011 – Coca-Cola FEMSA, S.A.B. de C.V. (BMV: KOFL; NYSE: KOF) (“Coca-Cola FEMSA,” “KOF,” or the “Company”), the largest public bottler of Coca-Cola products in the world, and Grupo Fomento Queretano and its shareholders (“Grupo Fomento Queretano”), a diversified group with divisions in beverages, retail, services, real estate, and tourism, have agreed to merge Grupo Fomento Queretano’s beverage division, one of the oldest family-owned beverage players in Mexico, with Coca-Cola FEMSA.

The merger agreement has been approved by both Coca-Cola FEMSA’s and Grupo Fomento Queretano’s Boards of Directors and is subject to the completion of confirmatory legal, financial, and operating due diligence and to customary regulatory and corporate approvals, including the approval of The Coca-Cola Company and the Comisión Federal de Competencia, the Mexican antitrust authority. Both Coca-Cola FEMSA and Grupo Fomento Queretano will call for an extraordinary shareholders meeting for the approval of this merger.

The aggregate enterprise value of this transaction is Ps. 6,600 million. As a result of the merger, Grupo Fomento Queretano will receive 45.1 million newly issued KOF series L shares at a value of Ps. 119.29 per share, calculated on the average closing price of the KOF series L share over the 5 trading days of the week prior to the announcement of this agreement. The number of shares may be adjusted within agreed upon thresholds, pending the completion of the due diligence process. In addition, Coca-Cola FEMSA will assume Ps. 1,221 million in net debt.

Furthermore, through this transaction, Coca-Cola FEMSA will become the owner of a 12.92% stake in Promotora Industrial Azucarera, S.A. de C.V. (“PIASA”), a participant in the Mexican sugar industry.

“As we find ourselves at the best moment in the history of our company, we have decided to merge the beverage division with Coca-Cola FEMSA, the largest Coca-Cola bottler in the world, with a diversified geographic presence, a talented management team, and important growth prospects. We are certain that, together, we can combine the best practices and talent that we have developed at Grupo Fomento Queretano with the expertise and track record of Coca-Cola FEMSA. The combination of both groups, the closeness of our territories, and the best practices of both companies will contribute to the creation of a new state of the art beverage division in Mexico. We are in a position to continue our history. Hilda Galdames, General Manager of the beverage division, was founded by Mr. Roberto Ruiz Obregón in 1944 and currently operates 2 bottling facilities and 9 distribution centers, with close to 2,400 employees serving more than 37,000 clients. In 2011, Grupo Fomento Queretano's beverage division is expected to sell 1.0 billion unit cases of beverages and generate revenue of $3.0 billion. In addition, on a 2011 estimate basis, the beverage division is expected to generate EBITDA of $683 million. We expect to continue to invite new partners with whom we share an aligned vision of economic and social value creation. We feel honored to receive the Ruiz family on our team and please do not hesitate to contact us. For more information, please contact the undersigned, respectively, Rolando Karig, Head of Investor Relations, or José Castro, Head of Investor Relations. This year will add to our Mexican operations more than 425 million unit cases of beverages and more than Ps. 12 billion in revenues, representing approximately a 30% increase for our Mexican operations' volumes and revenues", said Carlos Salazar Lomelin, Chief Executive Officer of the Ruiz Miller and Deloitte Galaz, Yamazaki, Ruiz Urquiza, S.C. acted as legal and fiscal advisors, respectively, to Coca-Cola FEMSA on this transaction.

“We are very proud of the work that Coca-Cola FEMSA’s team has performed in 2011. It has been a historic year in which we firmly advanced on our strategy to grow through mergers and acquisitions: from the acquisition of the beverage division of Estrella de Aztlán in a strategic transaction, with the CEO of Estrella de Aztlán, December 9, 2011, the acquisition of the beverage division of Grupo Fomento Queretano (FEMSA), and Grupo Fomento Queretano. Through these mergers, we also have the privilege to enrich our organization with the track record and entrepreneurial legacy of three Mexican families with whom we identify in our principles and values. The aggregate value of these transactions is $1.0 billion, which represents a record investment for our Company since the acquisition of Panamco in 2003,” said José Antonio Fernández Carbajal, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Coca-Cola FEMSA.

Mr. Carlos Salazar, Chief Executive Officer of Coca-Cola FEMSA;

Mr. Hector Treviño, Chief Financial Officer of Coca-Cola FEMSA; and

Mr. Jose Castro, Head of Investor Relations of Coca-Cola FEMSA.
