Order on the motion to dismiss in the U.S. action

Rio de Janeiro, July 10th, 2015 – Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras informs that the judge responsible for the U.S. action today issued an order on the motion to dismiss presented by Petrobras, partially granting the company's motion. The motion to dismiss was intended to have the Court consider whether, from a legal point of view, the Lead Plaintiff's allegations are sufficient for the action to proceed to the evidentiary stage of the case (discovery).

In the order, the judge stated, among other points, that the claims under Section 11 of the Securities Act related to the 2012 public offering of debt securities in the U.S. are barred by the statute of repose and that the Brazilian law claims are subject to resolution by arbitration.

The class action will proceed as to other claims brought by the Lead Plaintiff.

Finally, the judge directed the parties to present a proposed plan by July 15, 2015 for the next stages of the case that would provide that the case will be ready for trial no later than February 1, 2016.

Petrobras informs that it will continue acting firmly in defense of its rights.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are subject to risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements, which address the Company’s expected business and financial performance, among other matters, contain words such as “believe,” “expect,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “optimistic,” “intend,” “plan,” “aim,” “will,” “may,” “would,” “likely,” and similar expressions. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. There is no assurance that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.

The Company’s actual results could differ materially from those expressed or forecast in any forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of assumptions and factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) failure to comply with laws or regulations, including fraudulent activity, corruption, and bribery; (ii) the outcome of ongoing corruption investigations and any new facts or information that may arise in relation to the “Lava Jato Operation”; (iii) the effectiveness of the Company’s risk management policies and procedures, including operational risk; and (iv) litigation, such as class actions or proceedings brought by governmental and regulatory agencies. A description of other factors can be found in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2014, and the Company’s other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
