COMPANY BY-LAWS

CHAPTER I – CHARACTERISTICS OF THE COMPANY

LEGAL FORM

Art. 1 – VIVO Participações S.A. is a joint stock corporation governed by Law No. 6.404/76, as amended, by these By-Laws and by other applicable legal provisions, being established for an indefinite period of time.

CORPORATE PURPOSE

Art. 2 – The Company’s corporate purposes are:

I – to control companies engaged in cellular mobile service, personal mobile service and other kinds of telecommunication services in general, pursuant to concessions, authorizations and permits granted to it;

II – to promote, through controlled or subsidiary companies, the expansion and implementation of telecommunication services, in the respective concession, authorization and permit areas granted to it;

III – to promote, carry out or guide the raising of foreign or domestic funds to be invested by the Company or by its controlled companies;

IV – to promote and stimulate study and research activities for the development of the telecommunications industry;

V – to perform, through its controlled or subsidiary companies, specialized technical services concerning the telecommunication area;

VI – to promote, stimulate, perform and coordinate, through its controlled or subsidiary companies, the formation and training of the staff necessary for the telecommunications industry;

VII – to perform or promote the importation of products and services for its controlled and subsidiary companies;

VIII – to perform other activities related to its corporate purposes;

IX – to hold interests in the capital stock of other companies; and

X - to market equipment and materials required for or useful to the operation of telecommunication services.

HEAD OFFICE

Art. 3 - The Company has its head office in the Capital of São Paulo State and may, by decision of the Executive Committee, open and close branches, agencies and branch offices, offices, departments and representation offices in any part of the Brazilian territory or abroad.

CHAPTER II - CAPITAL STOCK

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL

Art. 4 – The Company may increase its capital stock up to the limit of three billion (3,000,000,000) shares, whether common or preferred, regardless of amendment to the articles of incorporation, the Board of Directors being the competent body to make resolutions on the increase and consequent issuance of new shares within the referred limit.

Paragraph One – No requirement exists as to keeping any proportion between the number of shares of each class, the maximum proportion of two thirds (2/3) of the number of preferred shares with no voting rights or with restricted voting rights in relation to the total of shares issued may be maintained.

Paragraph Two – The shareholders shall have preemptive rights upon the subscription of increases in the capital stock, in proportion to the number of shares held by them.

Paragraph Three - By resolution of the Board of Directors, (i) the preemptive right may be excluded upon issues of shares, debentures convertible into shares and warrants, the placement of which is made at Stock Exchanges or by public subscription, exchange of shares in a public offering for acquisition of control, under the terms of the Articles 257 and 263 of the Corporations Act, as well as for benefiting from tax incentives, under the terms of specific laws, as permitted by Article 172 of Law No. 6404/76; and, (ii) upon issuance of common shares intended for adaptation to the provisions in article 15, paragraph 2 of Law No. 6404/76, the preemptive right set forth in article 171, paragraph 1 (b) of the Corporations Act regarding the subscription of shares of kinds and classes different from the ones held by the shareholders may not be extended to the holders of preferred shares, as provided for in article 8, paragraph 2 of Law No. 10.330/01.

SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL

Art. 5 – The subscribed and fully paid-up capital is six billion, one hundred and fifty three million, five hundred and six thousand, nine hundred and fifty two reais and seventy-three cents (R$6,153,506,952.73), divided into one billion, four hundred and twenty-six million, four hundred and twelve thousand, two hundred and seventeen (1,426,412,217) shares, of which five hundred and nine million, two hundred and twenty-six thousand, one hundred and thirty-seven (509,226,137) are common shares and nine hundred and seventeen million, one hundred and eight-six thousand, and eighty (917,186,080) are preferred shares, all of them of book-entry type, with no face value.

Sole Paragraph – The shares shall be held in a depository account with a financial institution on behalf of their respective holders, with no issuance of certificates, and the institution may charge from the shareholders the cost of transfer of their respective shares.

CHAPTER III – SHARES

COMMON SHARES

Art. 6 – Each common share entitles the holder thereof to one vote in the Shareholders' Meetings.

PREFERRED SHARES

Art. 7 – Preferred shares have no voting rights, except in the cases provided for in Articles 9 and 10 below, and are assured priority upon reimbursement of capital, with no premium, right to receive the dividend to be distributed, corresponding to at least 25% of the net profit for the year, calculated in conformity with article 202 of the Corporations Act, with priority upon the receipt of non-cumulative, minimum dividends of six percent (6%) per annum on the amount resulting from the division of the subscribed capital for the total number of shares of the Company or three per cent (3%) per annum on the amount resulting from the division of the net worth for the total number of shares of the Company, as well as the right to share the distributed profit under equal conditions as those provided for the common shares, after the minimum priority dividend distributed to the preferred shares is ensured to the latter.

Sole Paragraph – Preferred shares will be granted full voting rights in the event the Company shall fail to pay the minimum dividends to which they are entitled for three (3) consecutive fiscal years, which right they shall retain until such dividends are paid.

CHAPTER IV – GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS’ MEETING

Art. 8 – General Shareholders’ Meetings shall be held: (i) on a regular basis, once a year, within the first four (4) months following the end of each fiscal year, for resolution of the matters mentioned in Article 132 of Law No. 6.404/76 and, (ii) on a special basis, whenever necessary, be it as a function of corporate interests, or due to a provision in these By-Laws, or when applicable legislation should so require.

Sole Paragraph – General Shareholders’ Meetings shall be called by the Board of Directors, it being incumbent upon the Chairman of the mentioned body to provide support to the relevant act.

Art. 9 – The execution of agreements with related parties, under terms and conditions more burdensome for the Company than market terms for agreements of the same nature shall require prior approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders, with due regard, in any case, to the provisions in article 117 of Law 6.404/76.

Art. 10 – Without prejudice to the provisions of Paragraph One of Article 115 of Law No. 6.404/76, the holders of preferred shares shall be entitled to voting rights in resolutions of the general Meeting referred to in Article 9, as well as in those resolutions related to amendment or revocation of the following provisions of these Bylaws:

I - article 9;

II - sole Paragraph of article 11; and

III - article 30.

Art. 11 – The General Shareholders’ Meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman the Board of Directors, who shall appoint the Secretary from among those present to the meeting. In the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the shareholders shall choose the chairman and the secretary of the meeting.

Sole Paragraph – In the cases provided for in Article 136 of Law No. 6.404/76, the first call notice for the General Shareholders’ Meetings shall be published at least thirty (30) days in advance and the second call notice shall be published at least ten (10) days in advance.

Art. 12 – Only shareholders of record up to seventy-two (72) hours prior to the date scheduled for the relevant Meeting, may attend and vote in the General Shareholders’ Meetings.

Paragraph One – The call notice may require that the attendance of the shareholder at the Meeting be contingent upon filing, with the Company’s head office, of proof of his/her/its qualifications as a shareholder, issued by the Company itself or by the depository institutions of the Company’s shares, up to seventy-two (72) hours prior to the scheduled date of the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

Paragraph Two – The call notice may also require that representation of the shareholder by a proxy in a Meeting be contingent upon filing of the relevant power of attorney with the Company’s head office, at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the date scheduled for the General Shareholders' Meeting.

CHAPTER V – MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

Art. 13 – The Company shall be managed by the Board of Directors and by the Executive Committee, with the duties conferred to them by law and by these By-Laws. The relevant members shall be elected for a term of office of three (3) years, re-election being permitted, and they are released from posting bond for the performance of their duties.

Paragraph One - All members of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee shall take office by signing the relevant instruments, remaining in their respective offices up to the time their successors effectively take office.

Paragraph Two – The General Shareholders' Meeting shall set the overall compensation of the Company's officers, including benefits of any kind and entertainment allowances, the Board of Directors having the competent authority to distribute the compensation among its members and the members of the Executive Committee.

Paragraph Three – The General Shareholders' Meeting may grant profit sharing to the officers of the Company, with due regard to the provisions of Article 152, Paragraph One and Paragraph Two of Law No. 6.404/76, following a proposal presented by the Company's management.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

COMPOSITION

Art. 14 – The Board of Directors shall comprise at least three (3) and at most twelve (12) members, all of them shareholders of the Company, who may be elected to and removed from the board by a General Shareholders' Meeting, including in such number the members of the Board elected by the minority shareholders, if any, with due regard, concerning the number of members established in this article, to the provisions in paragraph 7 of article 141 of the Corporations Act.

Sole Paragraph – The Board of Directors shall appoint, from among its members, the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman of the Board.

SUBSTITUTION

Art. 15 – In the event of impediment or absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, he/she shall be replaced by the Vice-Chairman. In the absence of the Vice-Chairman, the Chairman shall be replaced by another member of the Board appointed by said Board.

Paragraph One – In the event of impediment or absence of any other member of the Board of Directors, the member thus impeded or absent may appoint his/her substitute, in writing, from among the other members of the Board of Directors, to represent him/her and make resolutions at the meeting to which he/she is not able to attend, under the terms of the provisions in Paragraph Three of Article 19 of these By-Laws.

Paragraph Two – Members of the Board of Directors may take part in any meeting of said Board through conference call, video conference or any other means allowing all of the Directors to see and hear each other and, in such case, they shall be deemed to have attended the same and shall confirm their vote by a written statement sent to the Chairman of the Board by mail or fax, promptly after the meeting. The resolutions taken in said meetings shall be confirmed at the next first meeting of the Board of Directors, which is physically attended by its members.

Art. 16 – In the event of vacancy in the offices of director, the substitute shall be appointed by the remaining directors for the remaining term of office of the substituted member or until a general meeting for the election of the substitute is held. In the event of vacancy in most offices of the members of the Board of Directors, as provided for in Article 14 above, a General Shareholders' Meeting shall be called to elect the substitutes.

INCUMBENCIES

Art. 17 – It is incumbent upon the Board of Directors, in addition to the duties provided for in article 142 of the Corporations Act, to:

CHAPTER VI – AUDIT COMMITTEE

Art. 24 – The Audit Committee, operating on a permanent basis, shall be made up of at least three (3) and at most five (5) regular members and an equal number of deputy members.

Paragraph One – The remuneration of the members of the Audit Committee, in addition to the reimbursement of travel and lodging expenses for performance of the function, shall be set by the General Shareholders’ Meeting that elects the members and may not be less than, for each member in office, ten percent of that attributed on average to each Executive Officer, without computing benefits of any nature, entertainment allowances or profit sharing.

Paragraph Two – In the event of a vacancy for an office on the Audit Committee, the substitute shall be the respective deputy. If there is vacancy in the majority of the offices, a general shareholders’ meeting shall be called in order to elect the substitutes.

Paragraph Three – The Audit Committee shall meet (i) on a regular basis, once every quarter, and (ii) on a special basis, by call notice from the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or from two (2) members of the Audit Committee, with minutes being drawn up for its resolutions.

Paragraph Four – The meetings of the Audit Committee shall be called for in writing at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance, with the call notice showing the agenda and a list of the matters to be discussed during the relevant meeting.

CHAPTER VII – FISCAL YEAR AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FISCAL YEAR

Art. 25 – The fiscal year shall coincide with the calendar year, and the balance sheets shall be prepared on an annual, semi-annual or quarterly basis.

ALLOCATION OF PROFITS

Art. 26 – Together with the financial statements, the Board of Directors shall submit to the General Shareholders’ Meeting a proposal on (i) profit sharing by the employees and officers and (ii) full allocation of net income.

Paragraph One – From the net income for the fiscal year: (i) five percent (5%) shall be allocated to the legal reserve, with the aim of ensuring the integrity of the capital stock, limited to twenty percent (20%) of paid-in capital stock; and

(ii) twenty-five percent (25%) of net income, adjusted according to chapters II and III of Article 202 of Law No. 6404/76, to be mandatorily distributed as a minimum compulsory dividend to all shareholders; and (iii) the remaining balance, after complying with all provisions contained in the previous items of this article, shall be allocated according to a resolution by the General Shareholders' Meeting, based on a proposal from the Board of Directors as shown in the financial statements. In the event that the profit reserves exceed the capital stock, the General Shareholders' Meeting shall resolve as to application of the excess in paying in or increasing capital stock or in paying additional dividends to the shareholders.

Paragraph Two – Dividends that remain unclaimed over a period of three (3) years, counting from the date of resolution of their distribution, shall revert to the Company's benefit.

Art. 27 – The Company may, by resolution of the Board of Directors, declare dividends: (i) on account of profit assessed in six-monthly balance sheets, (ii) on account of profit assessed in quarterly balance sheets, provided the total dividends paid in each half of the fiscal year does not exceed the amount of capital reserves addressed in the Paragraph One of Article 182 of Law 6404/76, or (iii) on account of retained earnings or profit reserves shown in the last annual or six-monthly balance sheet.

Sole Paragraph – Interim dividends distributed on the terms of this article shall be ascribed to the minimum compulsory dividend.

Art. 28 – By resolution of the Board of Directors, and with due regard for legal provisions, the Company may pay to its shareholders interest on equity, which may be ascribed to the minimum compulsory dividend, subject to approval by the General Shareholders' Meeting.

CHAPTER VIII – GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 29 – The Company shall go into liquidation in the cases provided for by law, it being incumbent upon the General Shareholders' Meeting to determine the form of liquidation and to appoint the liquidator.

Art. 30 – Approval by the Company, through its representatives, of amalgamation, spin-off, merger or dissolution of its controlled subsidiaries shall be preceded by an economic and financial analysis by an independent Company, which is renowned internationally, confirming that equitable treatment is being given to all the interested companies, the shareholders of which shall have full access to the report on such analysis.

Art. 31 – For all contingencies that are not covered by these By-Laws, the Company shall be governed by the applicable law.
