5.02(e)

On June 26, 2008, Kansas City Southern (the "Company") announced that its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Kansas City Southern Railway Company ("KCSR"), executed a Confidential Severance Agreement and Full and General Release (the "Severance Agreement") between KCSR and Arthur L. Shoener, the former President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company and former President and Chief Executive Officer of KCSR, in connection with Mr. Shoener's previously announced resignation.

The Severance Agreement provides for the following cash payments from the Company to Mr. Shoener: (a) a lump sum cash payment of $371,903 to address any earned but unused vacation, relocation expenses and any other claims of compensation under any plan, program or other benefit offered by KCSR; (b) twenty-four monthly installments of $55,970 each, beginning on the next regular pay day following the expiration of the revocation period; and (c) a lump sum cash payment in December 2008 of $268,657.

In addition, KCSR has agreed to provide medical coverage under KCSR's medical plan, as it exists from time to time, to Mr. Shoener and his eligible dependents, provided he timely elects to continue such coverage for himself and/or his eligible dependents pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 ("COBRA") and continues to timely pay the cost of such coverage at the rate that would be charged to an active employee with similar coverage. Such payment will cease upon the earlier of Mr. Shoener or his eligible dependents ceasing to be eligible for COBRA coverage for any reason (including expiration of such coverage) or upon Mr. Shoener becoming eligible for comparable medical coverage in connection with his subsequent employment.

In consideration these severance benefits, Mr. Shoener has agreed that with respect to KCSR and its affiliates, he releases any claims he may have, will not compete while receiving such benefits and will maintain the confidentiality of their proprietary information.
