Petrobras receives more than R$ 650 million recovered by Operation Car Wash

Rio de Janeiro, December 7, 2017 - Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras reports that it has received the return of about R$ 654 million through cooperation agreements concluded with individuals and legal entities within the scope of the Car Wash Operation.

With this return, the total amount of resources transferred to Petrobras since the beginning of the Operation has reached the amount of R$ 1.476 billion.

Petrobras has been working in partnership with the Federal Prosecutors Office, the Brazilian Federal Police, Federal Revenue Services and other competent authorities since the beginning of investigations, while it has improved its control and decision-making mechanisms.

The company, which is recognized by the authorities as a victim of the acts unraveled by the Operation, will continue to adopt legal measures against companies and individuals, including former employees and politicians, who have caused financial and image damage to the company. Petrobras acts as co-author with the Federal Prosecutors Office and the Federal Government in 13 administrative improbity lawsuits in progress, in addition to being an accusation assistant in 43 criminal lawsuits.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are subject to risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements, which address the Company's expected business and financial performance, among other matters, contain words such as "believe," "expect," "estimate," "anticipate," "optimistic," "intend," "plan," "aim," "will," "may," "should," "could," "would," "likely," and similar expressions. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. There is no assurance that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.

The Company's actual results could differ materially from those expressed or forecast in any forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of assumptions and factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) failure to comply with laws or regulations, including fraudulent activity, corruption, and bribery; (ii) the outcome of ongoing corruption investigations and any new facts or information that may arise in relation to the "Lava Jato Operation"; (iii) the effectiveness of the Company's risk management policies and procedures, including operational risk; and (iv) litigation, such as class actions or proceedings brought by governmental and regulatory agencies. A description of other factors can be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2016, and the Company's other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
