Media Release

2011 Annual Report, Corporate Responsibility Report and Company Profile published

Peter F. Weibel to step down from the Board of Directors

Zurich, March 23, 2012 Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG today published their 2011 Annual Report. The 2011 Annual Report includes their audited financial statements and Compensation Report. The Corporate Responsibility Report and the Company Profile also have been published. All publications are available for download from 07:15 CET today and hard copies can be ordered free of charge at: www.credit-suisse.com/annualreporting

Peter F. Weibel will be stepping down from the Board of Directors of both Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG as of the date of the Annual General Meeting 2012.

Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG (together, Credit Suisse) today published their 2011 Annual Report. The 2011 Annual Report contains a detailed presentation of Credit Suisse's annual financial statements, company structure, corporate governance and compensation practices, treasury and risk management framework and a review of the operating and financial results.

The 2011 Annual Report on Form 20-F will be filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) during the course of today, March 23, 2012, and will be available for download at:
www.credit-suisse.com/sec

The 2011 Corporate Responsibility Report shows how Credit Suisse assumes its diverse social and environmental responsibilities when conducting its business activities as a globally active company. The Corporate Responsibility Report published today was assessed by the independent certification company SGS and was recognized for its transparency according to the GRI-based sustainability reporting standards, receiving the highest rating – an "A+".

The 2011 Company Profile offers a unique perspective on Credit Suisse's businesses around the world and insights into specific work areas by portraying employees. The Company Profile includes the Business Review, a summary of Credit Suisse's financial performance during 2011.

As of April 2012 the following publications will also be available in an iPad version: The 2011 Corporate Responsibility Report, the Responsibility Chronicle providing additional articles, videos and picture galleries on Credit Suisse's international projects and initiatives, as well as the 2011 Company Profile.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and “plans” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
  - market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the US or other developed countries in 2012 and beyond;

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE AG - Form 6-K

- the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
  - adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
  - the ability to achieve our strategic objectives, including improved performance, reduced risks, lower costs, and more efficient use of capital;
    - the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
    - the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
      - political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
  - the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
    - operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
  - actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
    - the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
    - competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
      - the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
      - the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
      - the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
        - technological changes;
  - the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;

- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
  - the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
  - the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
  - our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Annual Report 2011 under “Risk Factors” in the Appendix.
