§ Proposal on the amendments to the Articles of Association to implement the new Ordinance against Excessive Compensation with respect to Listed Stock Corporations

§ Walter B. Kielholz and Peter Brabeck-Letmathe will be stepping down from the Board of Directors at the General Meeting on May 9, 2014, after 15 years and 17 years of service, respectively

§ All other members of the Board of Directors will be standing for re-election

§ The Board proposes Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun for election to the Board of Directors as new members

§ Election of the members of the Compensation Committee

The proposal for the cash distribution to shareholders for the 2013 financial year was previously announced on February 6, 2014.

The 2013 Annual Report is available online.

Zurich, April 3, 2014 The Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG today announced its proposals for the Annual General Meeting on May 9, 2014, including the proposal to appoint Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun to the Board of Directors.

With regard to the appointments of Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun, Urs Rohner, Chairman of the Board of Directors, said the following: "Severin Schwan has been the CEO of Roche since 2008. He is an outstanding leader with a wealth of global experience, and with deep roots in Switzerland. Sebastian Thrun is an excellent scientist, teacher and entrepreneur. He is the founder and CEO of Udacity, an online university, as well as a Google Fellow, and the founder and head of the Google X research unit. He has been a research professor in the field of artificial intelligence and robotics at Stanford University since 2003."

Urs Rohner added: "We are pursuing ambitious growth targets across our markets globally. Technology is fundamentally changing our clients' needs and the market environment, affording us great opportunities in private banking and investment banking worldwide, and in our home market of Switzerland. With Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun, two leaders have been nominated to join the Board of Directors, and their extensive experience will help us drive Credit Suisse's strategy, which is focused on clients and innovation. I look forward to working with them to shape the future of Credit Suisse."

Urs Rohner commented as follows on Walter Kielholz and Peter Brabeck stepping down from the Board of Directors: "As prominent leaders on a strong Board of Directors, Walter Kielholz and Peter Brabeck have greatly influenced the development of Credit Suisse for the last decade and a half. Thanks to their strategic foresight, global networks, and consummate knowledge of the financial industry and the corporate world, they have made a vital contribution to the evolution of Credit Suisse as an integrated bank and to its strategic development since the financial crisis. In an era in which the global economy and the requirements for banks have changed dramatically, Walter Kielholz and Peter Brabeck assumed responsibility for Credit Suisse. The bank has a great deal to thank them for. I personally have always considered it a great privilege to work with Walter Kielholz and Peter Brabeck, and I would like to wish them all the best in their new endeavors."

Distribution against Reserves from Capital Contributions

As previously announced, the Board of Directors proposes a distribution against reserves from capital contributions of CHF 0.70 per registered share in cash for the 2013 financial year.

Increase in Conditional Capital for Employee Shares

The Board of Directors proposes that the existing conditional capital for the purpose of delivering shares in the context of employee stock option programs be increased from CHF 441,983.92 (equivalent to 11,049,598 registered shares) by CHF 1,200,000 (equivalent to 30,000,000 shares) to a maximum of CHF 1,641,983.92 (equivalent to 41,049,598 registered shares).

Consultative Vote on the 2013 Compensation Report

Consistent with the practice in prior years, the 2013 Compensation Report, which is part of Credit Suisse Group AG's Annual Report, will be presented to the Annual General Meeting for a consultative vote.

Amendments to the Articles of Association

To implement the new Ordinance against Excessive Compensation with respect to Listed Stock Corporations issued by the Swiss Federal Council, the Board of Directors proposes amendments to the Articles of Association. These are outlined in the Report of the Board of Directors on the Amendments to the Articles of Association published in addition to the Invitation to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

Elections to the Board of Directors

Walter B. Kielholz and Peter Brabeck-Letmathe will be stepping down from the Board of Directors at this year's Annual General Meeting. Walter Kielholz has been a member of the Board of Directors since 1999, serving as Chairman from 2003 to 2009. Peter Brabeck has been a member of the Board of Directors since 1997, and served as Vice-Chairman between 2000 and 2005, as well as from 2008 onward.

At the Annual General Meeting on May 9, 2014, the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group AG proposes the election of Severin Schwan and Sebastian Thrun to the Board of Directors for a term of office of one year. Chairman Urs Rohner and all other members of the Board of Directors are standing for re-election for a term of office of one year. The proposal of the Board of Directors regarding the individual election of each member of the Board of Directors and its Chairman for a term of office of one year is in line with the requirements of the above-mentioned ordinance.

Elections to the Compensation Committee

In a further move to implement the above-mentioned ordinance, the Annual General Meeting will also elect the members of the Compensation Committee. The Board of Directors proposes the election of Jean Lanier, Andreas Koopmann, Iris Bohnet and Kai Nargolwala to the Compensation Committee.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and “plans” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
 - market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
 - the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the US or other developed countries in 2014 and beyond;
 - the direct and indirect impacts of deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
 - adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
 - the ability to achieve our strategic objectives, including improved performance, reduced risks, lower costs, and more efficient use of capital;
 - the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
 - the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;

- political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
 - operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
 - the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
 - competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
 - the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
 - the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
 - the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
 - technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
 - the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
 - the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
 - our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, including the information set forth in “Risk factors” in I – Information on the company in our Annual Report 2013.
