ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On March 9, 2013, Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated (“CBOE”), a wholly owned subsidiary of CBOE Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”), entered into Amendment No. 12 (the “Amendment”) to the License Agreement (as amended, the “Agreement”) by and between CBOE and S&P OPCO LLC (“S&P”), as successor-in-interest to Standard & Poor's Financial Services LLC, pursuant to which CBOE and its affiliate, C2 Options Exchange, Incorporated, may list for trading securities options on the S&P 500 Index, the S&P 100 Index and certain other S&P Indexes (collectively, “S&P Indexes”). The Amendment extended the term of the Agreement until December 31, 2033. The Amendment provides that the license granted to CBOE will be exclusive until December 31, 2032 with respect to the S&P 500 Index.

The Amendment also provides new pricing terms, which went into effect from the effective date of the Amendment, and additional changes in pricing terms in subsequent years. The revised pricing terms include the terms that describe the fees that CBOE agrees to pay S&P with reference to the trading on the markets of CBOE and its affiliates of securities options and futures on the CBOE Volatility Index (the “VIX Index”). The Amendment also provides each party with an option to terminate the Agreement in the event that trading in options on the S&P 500 Index fails to meet certain volume thresholds for three consecutive calendar quarters, with CBOE's option terminating upon a change in control.

The foregoing description of the Amendment is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendment, which the Company will file with its next periodic report. The Company's press release, dated March 13, 2013, is attached as Exhibit 99.1.
