Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 27, 2019, MTBC-Med, Inc. (the “Company”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of MTBC, Inc., entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “APA”) with Etransmedia Technology, Inc. (“ETI”), several subsidiaries of ETI (collectively with ETI, the “Sellers”), and Formativ Health Management, Inc., the parent company of ETI (“Formativ”). Pursuant to the APA, the Company agreed to acquire certain client contracts and other assets of the Sellers for a purchase price of $1.5 million. The purchase price will be paid in cash at closing, which is scheduled to be April 1, 2019.

The Sellers are engaged in the business of providing medical billing, practice management, credentialing, transcription, record retention, and request for information and related services to hospitals, group physician practices and others in connection with medical care delivered by Part B Healthcare Providers.

The APA contains customary representations, warranties and covenants, including indemnification provisions capped at the purchase price, except for certain types of claims, such as pre-closing liabilities, which are not capped. The Sellers will make available certain employees for a post-closing transitional period, provided that the Company pay for their services. For three years following the closing, the Sellers and Formativ will be prohibited from competing with the Company and from soliciting any acquired clients or inducing or encouraging any of the transitioned workforce to leave their employment with the Company.

The APA remains subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions. No assurance can be given that the proposed transaction will be consummated at all or, if consummated, will be consummated on the terms and conditions set forth in the APA. The APA gives each party limited rights to terminate the transaction if certain closing conditions are not met.

The foregoing description of the APA does not purport to be complete and is qualified entirely by reference to the text of such document, a copy of which is attached as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
