Set forth below is a letter to stockholders of Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc. in connection with the proposed merger between First Midwest Bancorp, Inc. and Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc.

December 10, 2018

Dear Fellow Stockholder:

I am pleased to share some exciting news for our company. On December 6th, we announced that we entered into a definitive agreement to merge Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc. (“Bridgeview”) with First Midwest Bancorp, Inc. (“First Midwest”). Bridgeview Bank will also merge with First Midwest Bank. A copy of the press release is attached.

First Midwest is a high quality, well-managed and financially sound company with long-standing, deep roots across the Chicagoland area. It is one of the largest independent banks both in Chicago and in the Midwest and has served its communities for more than 75 years. Like Bridgeview, First Midwest shares our commitment to relationship-based banking and personalized customer service.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, which was unanimously approved by the boards of directors of each company, Bridgeview stockholders will receive consideration consisting of First Midwest common stock and cash. You will receive 0.2767 shares of First Midwest common stock, plus $1.79 in cash, in exchange for each share of your Bridgeview common stock. The stock portion of the consideration is fixed. The cash consideration is subject to adjustment and may be increased or decreased as set forth in the merger agreement. Based on the December 4, 2018 closing stock price of First Midwest common stock of $22.03, the total per share consideration value equates to $7.89. The final value you receive upon completion of the merger will fluctuate depending on changes to First Midwest’s stock price and the adjustments set forth in the merger agreement.

First Midwest’s common stock has been publicly traded on Nasdaq for over 35 years under the symbol FMBI. The stock has paid a cash dividend every quarter since First Midwest was founded, with the quarterly cash dividend currently at $0.12 per share.

A complete description of the transaction, including additional details regarding the calculation of the merger consideration, will be provided in proxy materials that will be sent to you in a few months. A special meeting of Bridgeview stockholders will be held following the delivery of the proxy materials where we will seek your approval of the transaction.

This is truly an exciting time for Bridgeview as we partner with First Midwest.

Please free feel to contact me with any questions you may have regarding this merger. As always, thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Peter Haleas

Chairman

Bridgeview Bancorp, Inc.
