Edgar Filing: EASTMAN KODAK CO - Form 8-K

On June 15, 2006, Eastman Kodak Company ("Kodak") refinanced $500 million 6.375% Medium-Term Notes, Series A, due June 15, 2006. This indebtedness was refinanced with a $500 million seven-year Term B-2 Note issued under the Company's existing $2.7 billion Credit Agreement, dated as of October 18, 2005, among Eastman Kodak Company and Kodak Graphic Communications Canada Company as Borrowers, Lloyds TSB Bank as Syndication Agent, Citicorp USA Inc. as Administrative Agent, the initial lenders named therein and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. as Lead Arranger and Bookrunner (the "Secured Credit Agreement"). The seven-year Term B-2 Note was initially comprised of a $250 million floating rate eurodollar advance with a one-month interest period at a rate of 7.45% and a second $250 million floating rate eurodollar advance with a two-month interest period at a rate of 7.52%. This Term B-2 note may be pre-paid in whole or in part at interest reset dates without penalty. Pursuant to the terms of the Secured Credit Agreement, $500 million remained available under the seven-year term loan facility for advance at any time until June 15, 2006, in contemplation of this planned refinancing.

The obligation is secured by existing pledges by Kodak of substantially all its U.S. and U.S. subsidiaries' assets, including accounts receivable, inventory, personal property and equipment, intellectual property and investments, but excluding real property, "Principal Properties" and equity interests in "Restricted Subsidiaries." In addition, the capital stock of "Material Subsidiaries" is pledged as collateral security.

In the event of a default by Kodak under the Secured Credit Agreement, the lenders may declare any principal amount then outstanding, and all accrued interest and other amounts payable by Kodak under the Secured Credit Agreement, to be immediately due and payable. Kodak's obligations under the Secured Credit Agreement would be accelerated automatically in the event a federal bankruptcy order is entered against Kodak. Other defaults under the Secured Credit Agreement which could result in the acceleration by the lenders of Kodak's obligations include the occurrence of certain other bankruptcy and insolvency events, non-payment of advances when due or of interest within five business days after its due date, failure to comply with certain affirmative and negative covenants, including financial covenants, the material inaccuracy of Kodak's representations and warranties under the Secured Credit Agreement when made, non-payment or defaults which could result in the acceleration of other debt in the amount of $50 million or more, and a change of control of Kodak.

The Secured Credit Agreement is an exhibit to Kodak's 2005 Form 10-K, incorporated by reference to the Eastman Kodak Company Current Report on Form 8-K, filed on October 21, 2005 as Exhibit 4.1.
