PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As detailed in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed November 9, 2004, the Company is currently in the process of conducting a review of its accounting for income taxes for the tax years 1987 through 1995. The review was precipitated by the Company's June 24, 2004 settlement with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") for the tax years 1990 through 1992 that indicated additional tax liabilities for such audit cycle. In addition, the Company is reviewing the tax years 1996 and forward to determine if there are any implications with respect to issues identified as a result of the 1987 through 1995 analysis. As a result of the findings thus far, the Company has determined that a restatement of previously issued financial statements is required. The proposed adjustments primarily relate to the computation and application of foreign tax credits.

The Company expects to file its Form 10-Q for the third quarter 2004 on November 15, 2004, upon completion of the aforementioned review.
