On December 13, 2007, Centennial Energy Holdings, Inc. (Centennial), a wholly-owned subsidiary of MDU Resources Group, Inc., entered into an amended and restated five-year revolving credit agreement with various banks (Credit Agreement) providing for a committed line of credit of $400 million (with provision for an increase, at the option of Centennial on stated conditions, up to a maximum of $450 million). The Credit Agreement amended and restated Centennial's existing $400 million revolving credit agreement that had an expiration date of August 26, 2010. Centennial plans to use the Credit Agreement to provide liquidity back-up for its ongoing commercial paper program (there were no outstanding borrowings as of December 13, 2007), for payment of other indebtedness outstanding from time to time and for working capital and other general corporate purposes (including funding negotiated acquisitions and other investments permitted under the Credit Agreement). As of December 13, 2007, there were no outstanding borrowings under the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement contains customary covenants and default provisions, including a covenant by Centennial not to permit, as of the end of any fiscal quarter, the ratio of total debt to total capitalization (determined on a consolidated basis) to be greater than 65 percent, as computed in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement.
