5.02. Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 2, 2016, in accordance with Section 2 of the Employment Agreement dated December 3, 2014 (the “Agreement”) between Timothy L. Buzby and the Federal Agricultural Mortgage Corporation (“Farmer Mac”), the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Farmer Mac renewed the term of the Agreement for Mr. Buzby to continue to serve as Farmer Mac’s President and Chief Executive Officer for an additional one-year period ending on April 7, 2017, upon the terms currently in effect.

Under the Agreement, Mr. Buzby receives an annual base salary and an annual incentive salary payment based on a target amount of his annual base salary, each of which may be modified in the sole discretion of the Board or the Compensation Committee of the Board, as well as awards of long-term incentive compensation from time to time in a form, and subject to such conditions, as determined by the Board and the Compensation Committee of the Board in its sole discretion. As previously disclosed on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on January 21, 2016, the Compensation Committee of the Board approved an increase in Mr. Buzby’s base salary from $675,000 per year to $700,000 per year effective January 1, 2016. Mr. Buzby’s annual incentive salary payment continues to be based on a target amount of 80% of Mr. Buzby’s annual base salary, as set forth in the Agreement. Mr. Buzby is eligible for all employee benefits regularly provided to senior executives of Farmer Mac and the certain other benefits.

Mr. Buzby’s employment will terminate upon his death or disability and may be terminated at any time by Farmer Mac with or without “cause” (as defined in the Agreement), or by Mr. Buzby voluntarily or if Farmer Mac materially breaches, and fails to cure, its obligations under the Agreement.

If Mr. Buzby’s employment is terminated (i) by Farmer Mac other than for “cause” (as defined in the Agreement), or (ii) by Mr. Buzby in connection with an uncured material breach by Farmer Mac, Farmer Mac will pay to Mr. Buzby all base salary, incentive compensation, expense and reimbursements, vacation pay, and similar amounts accrued and unpaid as of the date of termination. Additionally, Mr. Buzby would be entitled to certain severance benefits, subject to Mr. Buzby’s execution of a separation agreement upon specified terms.

If Mr. Buzby is terminated for “cause” or if Mr. Buzby voluntarily resigns other than in connection with an uncured material breach by Farmer Mac, Farmer Mac will pay such unpaid compensation as has accrued up to the date of termination, excluding incentive salary. Additionally, if Mr. Buzby’s employment is terminated due to death or other incapacity or disability, Farmer Mac will, subject to Mr. Buzby’s (or his estate’s) execution of a separation agreement upon specified terms, continue to pay Mr. Buzby (or his estate), for the shorter of (i) twelve (12) months, or (ii) the period ending when Mr. Buzby ceases to receive or be eligible for disability insurance payments, the difference between Mr. Buzby’s current base salary and the amount of disability insurance payments received by Mr. Buzby under insurance policies provided by Farmer Mac in accordance with the Agreement.

The Agreement also contains customary non-competition and non-solicitation provisions in favor of Farmer Mac. The Agreement provides that it may be renewed following the expiration of the prior term for successive one-year periods upon a vote of the Board.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement (except as it relates to Mr. Buzby’s current base salary), which was included as Exhibit 10.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K previously filed on December 8, 2014 and is incorporated by reference in this report.
