Dear Fellow Denny's Corporation Stockholder:

With the date of Denny's Annual Meeting of Stockholders fast approaching, we are writing again to urge you to not delay and vote today on the WHITE card in favor of the Denny's nominees for the Board of Directors. Your vote is needed today to protect your interests in Denny's and the long-term health of the Company and the brand.

Vote FOR All 8 of the Board's Nominees on the WHITE CARD

We sincerely regret that a group of dissident hedge funds have chosen to wage this costly and distracting proxy contest and we apologize for any inconvenience it may have caused you. Unfortunately, this group of hedge funds launched the contest without even talking to the Company, strongly suggesting they are pursuing a personal agenda, leaving the Company with no choice but to respond to protect your long-term interest and that of other stockholders.

As you cast your vote, please remember the following key points:

- Your Board has a clear plan and management is aggressively implementing that plan. In the past three years Denny's has significantly grown its restaurant openings, profitability, free cash flow, and return on assets. During the same time Denny's has significantly reduced its debt, debt leverage ratios, operational and G&A expenses and its capital expenditures.
- The leading independent proxy advisory firms support Denny's. PROXY Governance, Inc. and Glass, Lewis & Co. unanimously endorsed Denny's nominees for the Board, while Risk Metrics/ISS favored only one of the three dissident nominees. These firms, who are independent experts in reviewing proxy contests, supported Denny's eight out of nine times! They stated:
 - o "As the incumbent nominees have deep industry experience to draw on, and the incumbent board has won the approval of equity analysts in driving the turnaround to this point, we believe shareholders will be better served by re-electing the management nominees." (PROXY Governance, Inc.)
 - o "Based on various improvements in the Company's performance in recent periods, we find the election of Dissident nominees to the Board to be unwarranted at this time." (Glass, Lewis & Co.)
- Successful and relevant restaurant industry experience is the single most important asset to the Denny's Board at this time and the Denny's candidates that have been targeted are the ones with the most. Compare our nominees with theirs.

DENNY'S TARGETED NOMINEES	AGE	INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE
Debra Smithart-Oglesby	55	25 years
Rob Marks	58	12 years
Nelson Marchioli	60	30 years

Jonathan Dash	30	4 years
David Makula	32	None
Patrick Arbor	73	None

- This group has already demonstrated its divisiveness by attacking the Denny's Franchise Association (DFA) – which represents 85% of franchised restaurants – and making false and unfounded allegations against its Chairman. These attacks prompted his issuance of a public letter to refute these regretful accusations by the dissident group.
- Based on the results of their past proxy fights and their actions in this one, the dissident hedge funds clearly have a personal agenda that would jeopardize the growth potential of the Denny's brand and, ultimately, stockholder value.
- On two prior occasions (at Steak n Shake and Western Sizzlin), the leader of the hedge fund group was involved in proxy fights that quickly led to Board takeovers:
 - o In both cases, those groups specifically stated they had no intention of taking over the Board, but then proceeded to do just that.
 - o In both cases, the new Board then diverted the cash flows of these restaurant companies to purchase unrelated assets such as an insurance company, real estate and an asset management business.
- Do not allow Denny's to be hijacked to support the personal agenda of a small group who want to divert the Company's substantial cash flows for their own purposes.

Even one nominee from the dissident group could jeopardize the long-term health of the Denny's brand.

Please consider these facts closely and vote the WHITE CARD TODAY.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

The Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation
