Item 5. Other Events.

The following information was derived from a press release issued by The St. Paul Companies, Inc. on April 26, 2001:

The St. Paul Companies, Inc. announced that its subsidiary, St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Company, has signed a definitive agreement to sell Fidelity and Guaranty Life Insurance Company (F&G Life), a life, annuity and structured settlements company based in Baltimore, Md., and its subsidiary, Thomas Jefferson Life, to Old Mutual plc, a London-based international financial services company.

St. Paul will receive Old Mutual stock valued at $300 million and $335 million in cash. In addition, F&G Life recently returned $40 million in capital to St. Paul. Accordingly, this provides a total of $675 million for deployment by St. Paul in its core property-liability business and strategic initiatives.

The St. Paul said the sale will result in earnings attributable to F&G Life being reclassified to earnings from discontinued operations. However, that will not result in any change in The St. Paul's first-quarter 2001 reported net income of $202.2 million ($0.87 per share).

The St. Paul expects to realize a modest gain from the sale, to be recorded later this year, when the transaction is expected to close. The exact amount of the gain will be determined later, based upon the amount of charges associated with the disposal. The transaction is subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned thereunto duly authorized.
