SEARS ROEBUCK ACCEPTANCE CORP.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(unaudited)

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The unaudited interim financial statements of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp. ("SRAC"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears, Roebuck and Co. ("Sears"), reflect all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair statement of the results for the interim periods presented.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted. The significant accounting policies used in the presentation of these financial statements are consistent with the summary of significant accounting policies set forth in SRAC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the 52 weeks ended December 28, 2002, and these financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes found therein. The results of operations for the interim periods should not be considered indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

2. Back-up Liquidity

SRAC continued to provide support for 100% of its outstanding commercial paper through its investment portfolio and committed credit facilities. SRAC's investment portfolio, which consists of cash and cash equivalents, fluctuated from a low of $1.7 billion to a high of $3.5 billion in the second quarter of 2003. On June 28, 2003, SRAC's committed credit facilities consisted of a

Edgar Filing: SEARS ROEBUCK ACCEPTANCE CORP - Form 10-Q

$3.5 billion 364-day revolving credit facility expiring February 23, 2004 which includes an option to extend the repayment of borrowings, if any, through February 2005.

3. Legal Proceedings

On June 16, 2003, a lawsuit was filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois against Sears, Roebuck and Co. ("Sears"), certain of its officers, and SRAC, alleging that certain public announcements and SEC filings by Sears and SRAC concerning Sears credit card business violated Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, and Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933, and seeking damages. The plaintiffs purport to represent a class of noteholders who purchased certain notes issued by SRAC between June 21, 2002 and October 17, 2002. SRAC believes that these claims lack merit and is defending against them vigorously.

The consequences of this matter are not presently determinable but, in the opinion of management of SRAC after consulting with legal counsel and taking into account insurance and reserves, the ultimate liability is not expected to have a material effect on annual results of operations, financial position, liquidity or capital resources of SRAC.

4. Subsequent Event

On August 1, 2003, SRAC announced that it has elected to call for redemption the entire outstanding principal amount of its $250 million 7% notes due March 1, 2038. The redemption date is September 1, 2003.

5. Medium-term Notes and Discrete Underwritten Debt

Medium-term notes and discrete underwritten debt are issued with either a floating rate indexed to LIBOR or a fixed rate.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Shareholder of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp.:

We have reviewed the accompanying statements of financial position of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears, Roebuck and Co.) as of June 28, 2003 and June 29, 2002, and the related statements of income and comprehensive income for the 13 week and 26 week periods then ended and cash flows for the 26 week periods then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp.'s management.

We conducted our reviews in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures to financial data and of making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to such financial statements for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We have previously audited, in accordance with auditing standards

Edgar Filing: SEARS ROEBUCK ACCEPTANCE CORP - Form 10-Q

generally accepted in the United States of America, the statement of financial position of Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp. as of December 28, 2002 and the related statements of income and comprehensive income, shareholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein); and in our report dated February 14, 2003, except for Note 5, as to which the date is February 24, 2003, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying statement of financial position as of December 28, 2002 is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the statement of financial position from which it has been derived.

ITEM 2. ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

During the second quarter of 2003, SRAC revenues increased to $257 million from $245 million in the comparable 2002 period. For the first six months of 2003, SRAC's revenues increased to $515 million from $482 million for the comparable 2002 period. The increase in revenue resulted from a $1 billion increase in average earning asset levels in the second quarter and first half of 2003 versus the 2002 periods.

SRAC's interest and related expenses increased 5% to $204 million from $195 million and 7% to $410 million from $383 million for the second quarter and first half of 2003, respectively, as compared to the comparable 2002 periods. Interest and related expenses increased during the second quarter and first half of 2003 due to increases in average long-term debt levels. SRAC's average long-term debt increased to $11.6 billion and $11.4 billion in the second quarter and first six months of 2003, respectively, compared with $10.4 billion and $10.1 billion for the same periods in 2002. Increases in interest and related expenses attributed to long-term debt levels were partially offset by reductions in average short-term debt levels and overall cost of funds. SRAC's short-term borrowings averaged $3.2 billion for both the second quarter and first half of 2003, compared to $3.7 billion and $3.6 billion for the respective 2002 periods. SRAC's cost of short-term funds averaged 1.60% in the second quarter and 1.68% in the first six months of 2003 compared to 2.18% and 2.34% for the same periods in 2002. SRAC's cost of long-term funds averaged 6.40% and 6.48% in the second quarter and first six months of 2003 compared to 6.54% for both periods in 2002.

SRAC's net income of $34 million and $68 million for the second quarter and first half of 2003, respectively, increased from the comparable 2002 period amounts of $32 million and $64 million.

SRAC's ratio of earnings to fixed charges for both the second quarter and first half of 2003 was 1.25, compared to 1.25 and 1.26 for the comparable 2002 periods.

Item 4. DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company's management, including Keith E. Trost, President (principal executive officer) and George F. Slook, Vice President, Finance (principal financial officer), have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's "disclosure controls and procedures," as such term is defined in Rules 13a-14 and 15d-14 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, within 90 days of the filing date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based upon their evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective. There were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls, since the date the controls were evaluated.
