NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

1. Basis of Presentation

Books-A-Million, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company") are principally engaged in the sale of books, magazines and related items through a chain of retail bookstores. The Company operates 223 bookstores in 22 states and the District of Columbia, which are predominantly located in the southeastern United States. The Company also operates a retail Internet website. The Company consists of Books-A-Million, Inc. and its three wholly owned subsidiaries, American Wholesale Book Company, Inc., Booksamillion.com, Inc. and BAM Card Services, LLC. All inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. For a discussion of the Company's business segments, see Note 7.

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and include all adjustments that, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the results of the periods presented. All such adjustments are considered of a normal recurring nature. Quarterly results of operations are not necessarily indicative of annual results.

Certain financial information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted. These unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2009 and the notes thereto contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2009.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires that management make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The results for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 1, 2008 contain certain insignificant reclassifications necessary to conform to the presentation of the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company's pre-tax compensation cost for stock-based employee compensation was $251,000 ($159,000 net of taxes) and $1,382,000 ($859,000 net of taxes) for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008, respectively. Stock-based employee compensation for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 included $910,000 of restricted stock grants and ($659,000) of forfeitures of unvested restricted stock grants for an employee who resigned during this time.

The Company maintains an employee stock purchase plan (the "Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan") under which 400,000 shares of the Company's common stock are reserved for purchase by employees at 85% of the fair market value of the common stock at the lower of the market value for the Company's stock as of the beginning of the fiscal year or the end of the fiscal year. The Company received cash proceeds from issuances of stock under the Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan during the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 of $113,000 and $132,000, respectively. Stockholders' Equity

On March 26, 2009, the Board of Directors authorized a new common stock repurchase program that replaced the 2008 Repurchase Program, under which the Company was previously authorized to purchase up to $5 million of our common stock. Pursuant to the 2009 Repurchase Program, the Company is authorized to purchase up to $5 million of our common stock. The 2009 Repurchase Program will expire on April 30, 2010. As of October 31, 2009, the Company has repurchased $0.5 million of shares of our common stock under the 2009 Repurchase Program.

Subsequent Events

Edgar Filing: BOOKS A MILLION INC - Form 10-Q

On June 30, 2009, the Company adopted ASC 855-10, Subsequent Events. ASC 855-10-15 establishes general standards of accounting for, and disclosure of, events that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. Specifically, ASC 855-10-50 sets forth the period after the balance sheet date during which management of a reporting entity should evaluate events or transactions that may occur for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements, the circumstances under which an entity should recognize events or transactions occurring after the balance sheet date in its financial statements, and the disclosures that an entity should make about events or transactions that occurred after the balance sheet date. The adoption of ASC 855-10 had no impact on the Company's unaudited consolidated financial statements as the Company already followed a similar approach prior to the adoption of this standard.

Management evaluated all activity of the Company through December 8, 2009 (the issuance date of the financial statements) and concluded that no subsequent events have occurred that would require recognition in the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements or disclosure in the related notes to the financial statements, except for those listed in Note 14.

2. Net Income Per Common Share

Basic net income per common share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted net income per common share reflects the potential dilution, using the treasury stock method, which could occur if stock options are exercised. Diluted net income per common share has been computed based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding, including the effect of outstanding stock options, if dilutive, in each of the thirteen-week and thirty-nine week periods set forth below. The difference between basic and diluted net income per share is solely attributable to stock options. A reconciliation of the weighted average shares for basic and diluted net income per common share is as follows:

	For the Thirteen Weeks Ended
	(in thousands)
	October 31, 2009	November 1, 2008
Weighted average shares outstanding:
Basic	15,725	15,602
Dilutive effect of stock options and
restricted stock outstanding	--	--
Diluted	15,725	15,602

	For the Thirty-Nine Weeks Ended
	(in thousands)
	October 31, 2009	November 1, 2008
Weighted average shares outstanding:
Basic	15,759	15,658
Dilutive effect of stock options and
restricted stock outstanding	9	--
Diluted	15,768	15,658

The Company's invested restricted shares are entitled to receive nonforfeitable dividends, and thus, are participating securities requiring the two class method of computing net income per share. The weighted average shares outstanding and net income per share for the thirteen and thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 were computed using the two class method.

3. Related Party Transactions

Charles C. Anderson, a former director of the Company, Terry C. Anderson, a director of the Company, and Clyde B. Anderson, a director and officer of the Company, have controlling ownership interests in other entities with which the Company conducts business. Significant transactions between the Company and these various other entities ("related parties") are summarized in the following paragraphs.

The total amount paid to Anco Far East was $2,114,000 and $1,279,000 during the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008, respectively. These amounts paid to Anco Far East included the actual cost of the product as well as fees for sourcing and consolidation services. All costs other than the sourcing and consolidation service fees were passed through from other vendors. Anco Far East fees, net of the passed-through costs, were $148,000 and $90,000 during the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008, respectively.

The Company owns a 26% interest in each of these airplanes. From January 31, 2009 to October 31, 2009, the Company was billed $467,000 by the Co-Ownership Group under a cost sharing arrangement for the Company's use of the two airplanes. The expenses the Company pays for airplane use covers all of the variable costs attributable to the Company's use of the planes and a portion of the fixed costs.

4. Comprehensive Income (Loss)

Comprehensive income (loss) is net income (loss) plus certain other items that are recorded directly to stockholders' equity. There are no such items currently applicable to the Company. Comprehensive income (loss) equals net income (loss) for the thirteen and thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008, respectively.

5. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is a party to various legal proceedings incidental to its business. In the opinion of management, after consultation with legal counsel, the ultimate liability, if any, with respect to those proceedings is not presently expected to materially affect the financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

From time to time, the Company enters into certain types of agreements that require the Company to indemnify parties against third party claims. Generally, these agreements relate to: (a) agreements with vendors and suppliers, under which the Company may provide customary indemnification to its vendors and suppliers in respect of actions they take at the Company's request or otherwise on its behalf, (b) agreements with vendors who publish books or manufacture merchandise specifically for the Company to indemnify the vendors against trademark and copyright infringement claims concerning the books published or merchandise manufactured on behalf of the Company, (c) real estate leases, under which the Company may agree to indemnify the lessors for claims arising from the Company's use of the property, and (d) agreements with the Company's directors, officers and employees, under which the Company may agree to indemnify such persons for liabilities arising out of their relationship with the Company. The Company maintains a Directors and Officers Liability Insurance Policy, which, subject to the policy's conditions, provides coverage for indemnification amounts payable by the Company with respect to its directors and officers up to specified limits and subject to certain deductibles.

The nature and terms of these types of indemnities vary. The events or circumstances that would require the Company to perform under these indemnities are transaction and circumstance specific. The overall maximum amount of obligations cannot be reasonably estimated. Historically, the Company has not incurred significant costs related to performance under these types of indemnities. No liabilities have been recorded for these obligations on the Company's balance sheet at each of October 31, 2009 and January 31, 2009, as such liabilities are considered de minimis.

BOOKS-A-MILLION, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIESNOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*(Unaudited)*6. Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market, using the retail method. Market is determined based on the lower of replacement cost or estimated realizable value. Using the retail method, store and warehouse inventories are valued by applying a calculated cost-to-retail ratio to the retail value of inventories. The retail method is an averaging method that is widely used within the retail industry. Inventory costing also requires certain significant management estimates and judgments involving markdowns, the allocation of vendor allowances and shrinkage. These practices affect ending inventories at cost as well as the resulting gross margins and inventory turnover ratios.

The Company estimates and accrues shrinkage for the period between the last physical count of inventory and the balance sheet date. The accrual is calculated based on historical results. As this estimate is based on historical experience, the variances between the estimate of shrinkage and the adjustment resulting from physical inventories are traditionally not significant.

Reserves for markdowns are estimated based upon the Company's history of liquidating non-returnable inventory.

The Company currently utilizes the last-in, first-out ("LIFO") method of accounting for inventories. The cumulative difference between replacement and current cost of inventory over stated LIFO value is $3.2 million as of October 31, 2009 and $2.9 million as of January 31, 2009. The estimated replacement cost of inventory is the current first-in, first-out ("FIFO") value of $234.8 million as of October 31, 2009 and $207.2 million as of January 31, 2009.

Physical inventory counts are taken throughout the course of the fiscal period and reconciled to the Company's records. Accruals for inventory shortages are estimated based upon historical shortage results.

Inventory balances at October 31, 2009 and January 31, 2009 were as follows (in thousands):

	October 31, 2009	January 31, 2009
Inventories (at FIFO)	$234,759	$207,217
LIFO reserve	(3,228)	(2,912)
Net inventories	$231,531	$204,305

7. Business Segments

Edgar Filing: BOOKS A MILLION INC - Form 10-Q

The Company has two reportable operating segments: retail trade and electronic commerce trade. These reportable operating segments reflect the manner in which the business is managed and how the Company allocates resources and assesses performance internally.

Our chief operating decision maker is our Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. The Company is primarily a retailer of book merchandise. The Company's two reportable segments are two distinct businesses units, one a traditional retailer of book merchandise and the other a seller of book merchandise primarily over the Internet. The electronic commerce trade segment is managed separately due to divergent technology and marketing requirements. The retail trade reportable segment also includes the Company's distribution center operations, which predominantly supplies merchandise to our retail stores. Through the distribution center operations the Company sells books to outside parties on a wholesale basis. These sales are not material.

The Company evaluates the performance of the retail trade and electronic commerce trade segments based on profit and loss from operations before interest and income taxes. Certain intersegment cost allocations have been made based upon consolidated and segment revenues. Shipping income related to Internet sales is included in net sales, and shipping expense is included in cost of sales.

Both the retail trade and electronic commerce trade reportable segments derive revenues primarily from the sale of book merchandise through sales in our retail stores and over the Internet, respectively.

8. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Recently Adopted Accounting Principles

In December 2007, the FASB issued ASC 805, Business Combinations. The objective of this statement is to improve the relevance, representational faithfulness and comparability of the information that a reporting entity provides in its financial reports about a business combination and its effects. ASC 805 was adopted by the Company effective February 1, 2009 and its adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued ASC 810-10-65-1, Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements—an amendment of ARB No. 51. The objective of this statement is to improve the relevance, comparability and transparency of the financial information that a reporting entity provides in its consolidated financial statements by establishing accounting and reporting standards for the noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. ASC 810-10-65-1 was adopted by the Company effective February 1, 2009 and its adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In March 2008, the FASB issued ASC 815, Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. The new standard is intended to improve financial reporting about derivative instruments and hedging activities by requiring enhanced disclosures to enable investors to better understand their effects on an entity's financial position, financial performance and cash flows. It is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2008, with early application encouraged. The adoption of ASC 815 did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In June 2009, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2009-01 titled "Topic 105-Generally Accepted Accounting Principles amendments based on Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 168-The FASB Accounting Standards Codification TM and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles." ASC 105, "Generally Accepted Accounting Principles" which has become the single source of authoritative U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) recognized by the FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities, effective for financial statements issued for interim and annual periods ending after September 15, 2009. Rules and interpretive releases of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) under authority of federal securities laws are also sources of authoritative GAAP for SEC registrants. The FASB now issues Accounting Standards Updates that are not considered authoritative in their own right, but will serve to update the Codification, provide background information about the guidance, and provide the bases for conclusions on the change(s) in the Codification. The Company adopted this standard in the third quarter of fiscal year 2010 and the adoption did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In June 2008, the FASB ratified ASC 840-10-65-1, Accounting for Lessees for Maintenance Deposits. ASC 840-10-65-1 requires that all nonrefundable maintenance deposits be accounted for as a deposit with the deposit expensed or capitalized in accordance with the lessee's maintenance accounting policy when the underlying maintenance is performed. Once it is determined that an amount on deposit is not probable of being used to fund future maintenance expense, it is to be recognized as additional expense at the time such determination is made. ASC 840-10-65-1 was effective for the Company as of February 1, 2009. The adoption of ASC 840-10-65-1 did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In June 2008, the FASB issued ASC 260, Earnings Per Share. ASC 260 provides that unvested share-based payment awards that contain non-forfeitable rights to dividends or dividend equivalents (whether paid or unpaid) are participating securities and shall be included in the computation of earnings per share using the two-class method. ASC 260 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008 on a retrospective basis and was adopted by the Company in the first quarter of fiscal 2010. The Company has granted awards of restricted stock that contain non-forfeitable rights to dividends which are considered participating securities under ASC 260. Because these awards are participating securities under ASC 260, the Company has included these instruments in the calculation of earnings per share using the two-class method.

In April 2009, the FASB issued ASC 820-10-65-4, Determining Fair Value When Volume and Level of Activity for the Asset or Liability Have Significantly Decreased and Identifying Transactions That Are Not Orderly. ASC 820-10-65-4 indicates that if an entity determines that either the volume and/or level of activity for an asset or liability has significantly decreased (from normal conditions for that asset or liability) or price quotations or observable inputs are not associated with orderly transactions, increased analysis and management judgment will be required to estimate fair value. ASC 820-10-65-4 is effective for interim and annual periods ending after June 15, 2009. The adoption of this ASC did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In April 2009, the FASB issued ASC 825, Financial Instruments. ASC 825 requires an entity to provide interim disclosures about the fair value of all financial instruments, and to include disclosures related to the methods and significant assumptions used in estimating those instruments. ASC 825 is effective for interim and annual periods ending after June 15, 2009. The adoption of ASC 825 did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements or related disclosures.

In May 2009, the FASB issued a new standard, as codified in FASB ASC Topic 855 "Subsequent Events." FASB ASC Topic 855 establishes general standards of accounting for and disclosure of events that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. In addition, it provides guidance regarding the period after the balance sheet date during which management of a reporting entity should evaluate events or transactions that may occur for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements; the circumstances under which an entity should recognize events or transactions occurring after the balance sheet date in its financial statements; and the disclosures that an entity should make about events or transactions that occurred after the balance sheet date. The Company adopted this standard in the second quarter of fiscal year 2010 and the adoption did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In August 2009, the FASB issued ASU 2009-5, "Measuring Liabilities at Fair Value" which amends ASC Topic 820, "Fair Value Measurements." ASU 2009-05 provides clarification that in circumstances in which a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available, a reporting entity is required to measure fair value using one or more of the following methods: 1) a valuation technique that uses a) the quoted price of the identical liability when traded as an asset or b) quoted prices for similar liabilities or similar liabilities when traded as assets and/or 2) a valuation technique that is consistent with the principles of ASC Topic 820 (e.g. an income approach or market approach). ASU 2009-05 also clarifies that when estimating the fair value of a liability, a reporting entity is not required to adjust to include inputs relating to the existence of transfer restrictions on that liability. The amendments in this ASU are effective for all reporting periods beginning after issuance. The adoption of ASU 2009-5 did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Recently Issued Accounting Principles Not Yet Adopted

In June 2009, the FASB issued ASC 860, Transfers and Servicing. ASC 860 improves the relevance, representational faithfulness, and comparability of the information that a reporting entity provides in its financial statements about a transfer of financial assets; the effects of a transfer on its financial position, financial performance, and cash flows; and a transferor's continuing involvement, if any, in transferred financial assets. ASC 860 is effective as of the beginning of each reporting entity's first annual reporting period that begins after November 15, 2009, for interim periods within that first annual reporting period and for interim and annual reporting periods thereafter. The Company does not believe the adoptions of ASC 860 will have a material impact of its consolidated financial statements.

In June 2009, the FASB issued certain amendments as codified in ASC 810-10, "Consolidation — Variable Interest Entities." These amendments change how a reporting entity determines when an entity that is insufficiently capitalized or is not controlled through voting (or similar rights) should be consolidated. The determination of whether a reporting entity is required to consolidate another entity is based on, among other things, the other entity's purpose and design and the reporting entity's ability to direct the activities of the other entity that most significantly impact the other entity's economic performance. ASC 810 will be effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after November 15, 2009. The Company does not believe the adoption of ASC 810 will have a material impact on its consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In September 2009, the FASB issued ASU 2009-12, "Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent)." ASU 2009-12 amends ASC 820-10, "Fair Value Measurements-Overall." The amendments in ASU 2009-12 provide a practical expedient to measure investments that are required to be measured at fair value on a recurring or non-recurring basis but do not have a readily determinable fair value. The investments can be valued on the basis of the net asset value per share of the investment. There are additional disclosure requirements by major category of investments and the nature of restrictions on the investor's ability to redeem its investments. The amendments in this ASU are effective for annual periods ending after December 15, 2009. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of these amendments to its consolidated financial statements.

In September 2009, the FASB issued ASU 2009-13, which amends ASC 605-25, "Revenue Recognition; Multiple-Element Arrangements." These amendments provide clarification on whether multiple deliverables exist, how the arrangement should be separated, and the consideration allocated. An entity is required to allocate revenue in an arrangement using estimated selling prices of deliverables in the absence of vendor-specific objective evidence or third-party evidence of selling price. These amendments also eliminate the use of the residual method and require an entity to allocate revenue using the relative selling price method. The amendments significantly expand the disclosure requirements for multiple-deliverable revenue arrangements. These provisions are to be applied on a prospective basis for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after June 15, 2010, with earlier application permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of these amendments to its consolidated financial statements.

In December 2008, the FASB issued certain amendments as codified in ASC 715-20, "Compensation — Retirement Benefits, Defined Benefit Plans." These amendments require additional disclosures regarding how investment decisions are made: the major categories of plan assets; the inputs and valuation techniques used to measure the fair value of plan assets; the effect of fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs on changes in plan assets for the period; and significant concentrations of risk within plan assets. The disclosures about plan assets are required to be provided for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2009, with no restatement required for earlier periods that are presented for comparative purposes, upon initial application. Earlier application of the provisions is permitted. The Company is currently in the process of determining the additional disclosures required upon the adoption of these amendments.

9. Discontinued Operations

The Company closed one store during the thirteen and thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 where the Company does not expect to retain the closed stores' customers at another store in the same market. The store's sales and operating results for the thirteen and thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 were not reported as discontinued operations because the impact on the financial statements was immaterial. The Company did not close any stores during the thirteen and thirty-nine weeks ended November 1, 2008 in a market where the Company does not expect to retain the closed stores' customers at another store in the same market.

10. Debt and Lines of Credit

The Company's current credit facility allows for unsecured borrowings of up to $100 million for which no principal payments are due until the facility expires in July 2011. Availability under the facility is reduced by outstanding letters of credit issued thereunder. Interest on borrowings under the credit facility is determined based upon applicable LIBOR rates and the Company's rate spread, which varies depending on the maintenance of certain covenants. The credit facility contains financial and non-financial covenants, the most restrictive of which is the maintenance of a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio. The Company was in compliance with all covenants as of October 31, 2009. As of October 31, 2009 and January 31, 2009, there were outstanding borrowings under this credit facility of $17.5 million and $15.8 million, respectively, and the face amount of letters of credit issued under the credit facility were $2.2 million and $2.1 million, respectively. The maximum and average outstanding borrowings under the credit facility (excluding letters of credit issued thereunder) during the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 were $26.2 million and $16.4 million, respectively.

During fiscal 1995 and fiscal 1996, the Company acquired and constructed certain warehouse and distribution facilities with the proceeds of loans made pursuant to an industrial development revenue bond (the "Bond"), which was secured by a mortgage interest in these facilities. As of October 31, 2009 and January 31, 2009, there was $6.7 million of borrowings outstanding under the Bond, which bears interest at variable rates (1.25% as of October 31, 2009). The Bond has a maturity date of December 1, 2019, but also has a purchase provision obligating the Company to repurchase the Bond at an earlier date under certain circumstances. In fiscal 2007, the current bondholder extended the date of the Company's purchase obligation until July 1, 2011 and did not require a mortgage interest to secure the Bond. This extension may be renewed annually by the bondholder, at the Company's request, to a date no more than five years from the renewal date.

Net interest expense for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 was $156,000 and $627,000, respectively. Net interest expense for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 was $476,000 and $1,621,000, respectively.

11. Income Taxes

The Company and its subsidiaries are subject to United States federal income tax as well as income tax of multiple state jurisdictions. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax examinations by tax authorities for fiscal years prior to fiscal 2005. The Company has not been notified of any ongoing income tax examinations of any of the open years.

With respect to state and local jurisdictions, with limited exceptions, the Company and its subsidiaries are no longer subject to income tax audits for fiscal years prior to fiscal 2005. Although the outcome of tax audits is always uncertain, the Company believes that adequate amounts of tax, interest and penalties have been provided for to pay any adjustments that are expected to result from the open years for any federal, state or local jurisdictions.

As of October 31, 2009, the gross amount of unrecognized tax benefits was $1,247,000, all of which would affect the effective tax rate if recognized. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense. The Company had approximately $945,000 in interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits accrued as of October 31, 2009. The Company's total liability for unrecognized tax benefits, including interest and penalties, as of October 31, 2009 was $2,192,000.

It is reasonably possible that the amount of the unrecognized tax benefit with respect to certain of the Company's unrecognized tax positions will significantly increase or decrease within the next 12 months. These changes may be the result of new audits by federal, state or local jurisdictions, settlement of ongoing audits or the expiration of the statute of limitations related to certain tax periods currently still open with the taxing jurisdictions. The amount of unrecognized tax benefits, including interest and penalties, that would no longer need to be accrued due to the passage of various statutes of limitations in the next 12 months is $357,000. The balance of the unrecognized tax benefits is primarily related to uncertain tax positions for which there are no current ongoing federal or state audits and therefore, an estimate of the range of the reasonably possible outcomes cannot be made.

The Company's effective tax rate for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 was 36.6%, versus an effective tax rate of 40.4% for the thirty-nine weeks ended November 1, 2008.

12. Fair Value Measurements

The Company accounts for fair value in accordance with guidance codified as FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements. ASC 820 defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. ASC 820 establishes a three-level fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value. This hierarchy requires entities to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. As of October 31, 2009 the Company had no assets or liabilities which are required to be disclosed under the provisions of ASC 820. Therefore, there was no cumulative effect of adoption related to ASC 820, and the adoption did not have an impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

The carrying amounts of other financial instruments reported in the balance sheet for current assets and current liabilities approximate their fair values because of the short maturity of these instruments.

At October 31, 2009, there was $17,450,000 outstanding under our revolving line of credit agreement and $6,720,000 outstanding under the Bond. The borrowings under our revolving line of credit agreement and the Bond bear interest at the variable rates described in Note 10 and therefore approximate fair value at October 31, 2009.

13. Revenue Recognition

The Company sells gift cards to its customers in its retail stores. The gift cards do not have an expiration date. Income is recognized from gift cards when: (1) the gift card is redeemed by the customer; or (2) the likelihood of the gift card being redeemed by the customer is remote (gift card breakage) and there is no legal obligation to remit the value of the unredeemed gift cards to the relevant jurisdictions. The gift card breakage rate is determined based upon historical redemption patterns. Based on this historical information, the likelihood of a gift card remaining unredeemed can be determined after 24 months of card inactivity. At that time, breakage income is recognized for those cards for which the likelihood of redemption is deemed to be remote and for which there is no legal obligation to remit the value of such unredeemed gift cards to the relevant jurisdictions. Breakage income for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 was $670,000 and $124,000, respectively. Breakage income for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 was $1,159,000 and $523,000, respectively.

14. Subsequent Events

On November 19, 2009, the Company announced that its Board of Directors had approved a quarterly cash dividend of $0.05 per share for stockholders of record at the close of business on December 3, 2009, payable on December 17, 2009.

General

We were founded in 1917 and currently operate 223 retail bookstores, including 201 superstores, concentrated in the southeastern United States.

Our growth strategy is focused on opening superstores in new and existing market areas, particularly in the Southeast. In addition to opening new stores, management intends to continue its practice of reviewing the profitability trends and prospects of existing stores and closing or relocating under-performing stores or converting stores to different formats.

Comparable store sales are determined each fiscal quarter during the year based on all stores that have been open at least 12 full months as of the first day of the fiscal quarter. Any stores closed during a fiscal quarter are excluded from comparable store sales as of the first day of the quarter in which they close. Remodeled and relocated stores are also included as comparable stores. The factors affecting the future trend of comparable store sales include, among others, overall demand for products the Company sells, the Company's marketing programs, pricing strategies, store operations and competition.

The decrease in net sales for the retail trade segment for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 compared to the thirteen weeks ended November 1, 2008 was due to a decrease in wholesale book sales and a comparable store sales decline partially offset by an increase in sales from stores open less than one year and a increase in gift card breakage. Comparable store sales for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 decreased $1.9 million, or 1.9%, to $97.7 million when compared with the same thirteen week period for the prior year. The decrease in comparable store sales for the thirteen week period ended October 31, 2009 was due to difficult macroeconomic conditions which had a negative impact on consumer spending. Sales at stores open for less than one year increased $3.1 million due to the impact of new stores. The decline in wholesale book sales is the result of reduced inventory levels caused by a reduction in purchases during the year. The increase in gift card breakage is the result of changes in state law for several states that no longer require gift cards to be paid to the state once they reach a certain age. During the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009, we closed two superstores and relocated two others. No stores were opened during the period. The 4.1% increase in net sales for the electronic commerce segment was due to improved sales to other businesses through improved customer focus. For the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 compared to the thirty-nine weeks ended November 1, 2008, the increase in net sales for the retail trade segment was due to an increase in sales for stores open less than one year, partially offset by a reduction in comparable store sales and wholesale book sales. The $14.8 million increase in sales from stores open less than one year is due to the increased number of stores from 208 at February 2, 2008 to 221 stores at October 31, 2009. Comparable store sales have dropped $8.6 million, or 2.7%, to $310.0 million from the same thirty-nine week period in the prior year. The decrease in comparable store sales for the thirty-nine week period ended October 31, 2009 was due to difficult macroeconomic conditions which had a negative impact on consumer spending. The decline in wholesale book sales is the result of reduced inventory levels. During the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009, we opened three superstores, closed two superstores and relocated four others. The 7.1% decrease in net sales for the electronic commerce segment for the thirty-nine week period ended October 31, 2009 was due to difficult macro-economic conditions.

Gross profit decreased $0.8 million, or 2.8%, to $28.8 million in the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009, when compared with $29.6 million in the same thirteen week period for the prior year. For the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009, gross profit increased $0.7 million, or 0.7%, to $100.2 million, from $99.5 million in the prior year period. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 was 26.0% and 26.6%, respectively. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 was 28.5% and 28.3%, respectively. The decrease in gross profit as a percentage of net sales for the thirteen week period ended October 31, 2009 was the result of higher inventory shrinkage in our stores, partially offset by lower discounts and increased sales of higher margin items such as bargain books and general merchandise. The increase in gross profit as a percentage of net sales for the thirty-nine week period ended October 31, 2009 was the result of lower discounts and increased sales of higher margin bargain books and general merchandise, partially offset by higher costs associated with inventory shrinkage and occupancy. Occupancy costs have increased due to the significant number of new stores opened since August 3, 2008.

Edgar Filing: BOOKS A MILLION INC - Form 10-Q

Operating, selling and administrative expenses were $27.8 million in the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009, compared to $28.9 million in the same period last year. Operating, selling and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 decreased to 25.1% from 25.9% in the same period last year. The decrease in operating, selling and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales for the thirteen-week period ended October 31, 2009 was due to cost control measures and reduced expenses for new stores that were partially offset by higher healthcare costs and higher store salaries. Our cost cutting efforts were broad in scope and reached virtually every part of the business. New store expense was reduced because of the reduction in new stores opened in the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 compared to the same period last year. There were 221 stores as of October 31, 2009, compared to 217 as of November 1, 2008. Three stores opened in the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009, compared to thirteen stores that were opened in the thirty-nine weeks ended November 1, 2008. For the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009, operating, selling and administrative expenses were $85.9 million, compared to $88.1 million in the prior year period. Operating, selling and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 decreased to 24.4% from 25.1% from the same period last year. The decrease in operating, selling and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales for the thirty-nine week period ended October 31, 2009 was also due to cost control measures and reduced expenses for new stores that were partially offset by higher healthcare costs, a noncash impairment charge for underperforming stores and higher store salaries. Noncash impairment charges increased $0.4 million ($0.3 million net of tax) for the thirty-nine week period ended October 31, 2009 compared to the same period last year. The impairment charges were recorded on leasehold improvements at various closed stores.

Depreciation and amortization was essentially flat in the thirteen week period ended October 31, 2009, compared to $3.6 million in the same period last year. The impact of the stores opened in prior periods was offset by assets that became fully depreciated. Depreciation and amortization expense as a percentage of net sales for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 was 3.3%, compared to 3.2% in the same period last year. In the thirty-nine week period ended October 31, 2009, depreciation and amortization expense increased 1.3% to $10.8 million from $10.7 million in the same period last year. Depreciation and amortization expense as a percentage of net sales for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 was 3.1%, which is flat compared to the same period last year.

The decrease in operating loss for the retail segment for the thirteen week period ended October 31, 2009 was due to cost cutting efforts, reduced new store expense and higher gross margin, partially offset by higher costs associated with inventory shrinkage and healthcare expense versus the same thirteen week period in the prior year. The increase in operating income for the retail trade segment for the thirty-nine week period ended October 31, 2009 was primarily due to higher retail sales, higher gross margin and reduced new store expense, offset by higher costs for inventory shrinkage, healthcare costs and the noncash impairment charge.

Net interest expense was $0.2 million, or 0.1% of net sales, for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009, compared to $0.6 million, or 0.6% of net sales, in the same period last year, and was $0.5 million in the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 versus $1.6 million in the same period in the prior year. The decrease in net interest expense was due to a lesser amount of average debt and lower interest rates.

Edgar Filing: BOOKS A MILLION INC - Form 10-Q

The Company closed one store during the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 where the Company does not expect to retain the closed stores' customers at another store in the same market. The store's sales and operating results for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 were not reported as discontinued operations because the impact on the financial statements was immaterial. The Company did not close any stores during the thirteen weeks ended November 1, 2008 in a market where the Company does not expect to retain the closed stores' customers at another store in the same market.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash flows from operations, including credit terms from vendors, and borrowings under our credit facility. We have an unsecured revolving credit facility that allows borrowings of up to $100 million, for which no principal repayments are due until the facility expires in July 2011. Availability under the credit facility is reduced by outstanding letters of credit issued thereunder. The credit facility has certain financial and non-financial covenants, the most restrictive of which is the maintenance of a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio. We were in compliance with all of the covenants, including the minimum fixed charge coverage ratio, as of October 31, 2009. As of October 31, 2009 and January 31, 2009 there were outstanding borrowings under this credit facility of $17.5 million and $15.8, respectively, and the face amount of letters of credit issued under the credit facility were $2.2 million and $2.1 million, respectively. The maximum and average outstanding balances (including letters of credit issued thereunder) during the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 were $28.3 million and $18.5 million, respectively, compared to $53.9 million and $47.7 million, respectively, for the same period in the prior year. The maximum and average outstanding balances (including letters of credit issued thereunder) during the thirty-nine weeks ended October 31, 2009 were $29.6 million and $17.8 million, respectively, compared to $56.1 million and $44.5 million, respectively, for the same period in the prior year. The decrease in the maximum and average outstanding balances from the prior year was due to improved profitability and a decrease in inventory from November 1, 2008.

During fiscal 1995 and fiscal 1996, the Company acquired and constructed certain warehouse and distribution facilities with the proceeds of loans made pursuant to an industrial development revenue bond (the "Bond"), which was secured by a mortgage interest in these facilities. As of October 31, 2009 and January 31, 2009, there was $6.7 million of borrowings outstanding under the Bond, which bears interest at variable rates (1.25% as of October 31, 2009). The Bond has a maturity date of December 1, 2019, but also has a purchase provision obligating the Company to repurchase the Bond at an earlier date under certain circumstances. In fiscal 2007, the current bondholder extended the date of the Company's purchase obligation of the Bond until July 1, 2011 and did not require a mortgage interest to secure the Bond. This extension may be renewed annually by the bondholder, at the Company's request, to a date no more than five years from the renewal date.

Financial Position

Inventory balances were $231.5 million as of October 31, 2009, compared to $204.3 million as of January 31, 2009. The inventory increase was primarily due to seasonal fluctuations in inventory. Inventory levels are generally the lowest at the end of the fiscal year due to holiday sales and large post holiday returns to vendors. Trade accounts payable balances and related party accounts payable were $119.1 million in the aggregate as of October 31, 2009, compared to $96.7 million as of January 31, 2009. The increase in accounts payable was due to the increase in inventory. Accrued expenses were $36.4 million as of October 31, 2009, compared to $35.6 million as of January 31, 2009. The increase in accrued expenses was due to increased deferrals of club card revenue, increased capital expenditure accruals and increased taxes, partially offset by the redemption of gift cards, reduction in unclaimed property liability and reduction of annual restricted stock and bonus accruals for employees who resigned or were terminated.

- (1) Short-term borrowings represent borrowings under the $100 million credit facility that the Company anticipates repaying within the next 12 months.
- (2) This table excludes any amounts related to the payment of the $2.2 million of income tax uncertainties, as the Company cannot make a reasonably reliable estimate of the periods of cash settlements with the respective taxing authorities.

Guarantees

From time to time, we enter into certain types of agreements that require us to indemnify parties against third-party claims. Generally, these agreements relate to: (a) agreements with vendors and suppliers, under which we may provide customary indemnification to our vendors and suppliers in respect of actions they take at our request or otherwise on our behalf, (b) agreements with vendors who publish books or manufacture merchandise specifically for us to indemnify the vendors against trademark and copyright infringement claims concerning the books published or merchandise manufactured on our behalf, (c) real estate leases, under which we may agree to indemnify the lessors for claims arising from our use of the property, and (d) agreements with our directors, officers and employees, under which we may agree to indemnify such persons for liabilities arising out of their relationship with us. We maintain a Directors and Officers Liability Insurance Policy, which, subject to the policy's conditions, provides coverage for indemnification amounts payable by us with respect to our directors and officers up to specified limits and subject to certain deductibles.

The nature and terms of these types of indemnities vary. The events or circumstances that would require the Company to perform under these indemnities are transaction and circumstance specific. The overall maximum amount of obligations cannot be reasonably estimated. Historically, the Company has not incurred significant costs related to performance under these types of indemnities. No liabilities have been recorded for these obligations on the Company's balance sheet at October 31, 2009 or January 31, 2009, as such liabilities are considered de minimis.

- Cash used by inventories in the thirty-nine week periods ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 was $27.2 million and $42.4 million, respectively. The change versus the prior year was primarily due to lower purchases of inventory.
- Cash provided by accounts payable in the thirty-nine week periods ended October 31, 2009 and November 1, 2008 was $23.2 million and $33.3 million, respectively. The decrease from the prior year is the result of the change in inventory.

Critical Accounting Policies

A summary of our critical accounting policies is included in the Management's Discussion and Analysis section of our Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2009 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. New Accounting Pronouncements

See Note 8, Recent Accounting Pronouncements, to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for information regarding new accounting pronouncements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure About Market Risk

We are subject to interest rate fluctuations involving our credit facility and debt related to the Bond. To illustrate the sensitivity of our results of operations to changes in interest rates on our debt, we estimate that a 1,052% increase or decrease in LIBOR rates would have changed interest expense by $0.1 million for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009 due to average debt of $23.1 million. The average debt under our credit facility (including letters of credit) and the Bond was $18.5 million and $6.7 million, respectively, for the thirteen weeks ended October 31, 2009. For the thirty-nine week period ended October 31, 2009, our average debt under our credit facility (including letters of credit) and the Bond was $17.7 million and $6.7 million respectively. Similar changes in interest rates during this thirty-nine week period would have resulted in additional interest expense of $0.4 million. Fiscal year 2009 experienced the maximum LIBOR fluctuation at 1,052%.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We are committed to maintaining disclosure controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer, our Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, our Chief Financial Officer and the Board of Directors, as appropriate, to allow for timely decisions regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management necessarily is required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures and implementing controls and procedures based on the application of management's judgment.

As required by Rule 13a-15 under the Exchange Act, management, with the participation of our Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, our Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, and our Chief Financial Officer (Principal Financial Officer), has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(e)) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon their evaluation and subject to the foregoing, the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, and the Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of the end of the period covered by this report, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

We regularly review our system of internal control over financial reporting and make changes to our processes and systems to improve controls and increase efficiency, while ensuring that we maintain an effective internal control environment. Changes may include such activities as implementing new, more efficient systems, consolidating activities and migrating processes.

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
