Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On July 22, 2002, Coeur d'Alene Mines Corporation (the "Company") advised the firm of Arthur Andersen LLP ("AA") that AA would no longer serve as the Company's independent accounting firm. AA had served in that capacity since October 1999. The Company's determination reflected the fact that on June 15, 2002, the Securities and Exchange Commission announced that AA had informed the Commission that it will cease practicing before the Commission by August 31, 2002.

During the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001, there were no disagreements between the Company and AA on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of AA, would have been referred to in their reports. AA's reports on the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001, did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except that AA's report dated February 15, 2002, stated that the financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001, had been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern.

On July 22, 2002, Coeur d'Alene Mines Corporation (the "Company") engaged the independent accounting firm of KPMG LLP. ("KPMG") to serve as its new auditing firm.

During the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001, and the subsequent interim period, the Company did not consult with KPMG regarding either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Form 8-K) or a reportable event (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Form 8-K).

The decision to change independent accountants was approved by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.

Although the Company has made reasonable efforts to obtain a letter from AA indicating its agreement or disagreement with the statements made by the Company in this Form 8-K, the letter cannot be obtained from AA and, in accordance with SEC Release Nos. 33-8070 and 34-45590, "Requirements for Arthur Andersen LLP Auditing Clients," such a letter from AA is not attached as an exhibit to this Form 8-K.

Item 7. Financial Statements, Pro Forma Financial Information and Exhibits.
