Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

In its Current Report on Form 8-K reporting on an event that occurred March 7, 2011, Barnwell Industries, Inc. (“Barnwell”) reported the results of its annual meeting of stockholders held March 7, 2011. In such 8-K Barnwell reported with respect to the advisory vote on the frequency of stockholders voting upon executive compensation, that in excess of 80% of the votes cast approved the proposal that stockholders vote on an advisory basis once every three years to approve executive compensation. At a meeting of the Board of Directors, the Board considered the results of the vote and after due deliberation determined to follow the decision of the majority vote and to hold an advisory vote on the approval of executive compensation once every three years.
