April 22, 2009

INTRODUCTION

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of United Bancshares, Inc. (also referred to in this Proxy Statement as "United Bancshares" or the "Corporation"), in connection with the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at 7:00 p.m. on April 22, 2009 at The Union Bank Company, 100 South High Street, Columbus Grove, Ohio (the "Annual Meeting"), or at any adjournments thereof.

The Annual Meeting has been called for the following purposes: (i) to elect seven directors to serve on the Board of Directors until the 2010 Annual Meeting, (ii) to amend the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation to authorize 750,000 shares of Class A Preferred Stock of the Corporation and (iii) to transact any other business that may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting are being mailed to Shareholders on or about March 20, 2009.

REVOCAION OF PROXIES AND DISCRETIONARY

AUTHORITY

Shares of United Bancshares common stock can be voted at the Annual Meeting only if the shareholder is represented by proxy or is present in person. Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke them at any time.

Unless revoked, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted at the Annual Meeting and all adjournments thereof. Proxies may be revoked (i) by written notice to the Secretary of United Bancshares (addressed to: United Bancshares, Inc., 100 South High Street, Columbus Grove, Ohio 45830, Attention: Secretary) prior to the time the proxy is voted; or (ii) by the filing of a later dated proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the Annual Meeting; or (iii) in open meeting at any time before the proxy is voted.

Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted in accordance with the directions given therein. Where no instructions are indicated, properly executed proxies will be voted FOR the nominees for director set forth in this Proxy Statement and FOR the amendment to Article IV of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation to authorize 750,000 preferred shares. The proxy confers discretionary authority on the proxy holder to vote with respect to (i) the election of any person as a director where the nominee is unavailable or unable to serve, (ii) matters incident to the conduct of the Annual Meeting; (iii) an adjournment of the meeting; and (iv) any other business that may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof.

PERSON MAKING THE SOLICITATION

The enclosed proxy is being solicited by United Bancshares and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by United Bancshares. Proxies may be solicited by mail, personal telephone, electronic mail or facsimile by directors, officers and employees of United Bancshares who will receive no compensation in addition to their regular compensation. United Bancshares may decide that it is appropriate to retain a proxy solicitation firm or agency to solicit proxies. If a proxy solicitation firm or agency is retained, United Bancshares will bear the cost.

VOTING SECURITIES

Each of the shares of United Bancshares common stock outstanding on February 27, 2009, the record date of the Annual Meeting, is entitled to one vote on all matters coming before the meeting. As of February 27, 2009, United Bancshares had 3,442,779 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. Only shareholders of record on the books of the Corporation on February 27, 2009, will be entitled to vote at the meeting either in person or by proxy. Pursuant to the Regulations of the Corporation, the shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting shall constitute a quorum.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, your nominee is required to vote those shares in accordance with your instructions. If the nominee does not receive instructions from the beneficial owner, the nominee will be entitled to vote the shares on certain routine items. The nominee is not entitled to vote the shares (absent instructions from the beneficial owner) with respect to non-routine matters. When the nominee does not receive instructions from a beneficial owner concerning a non-routine matter, over which the nominee has no voting discretion, a broker non-vote occurs. Shares treated as broker non-votes are included for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists, however, such shares will not be counted as being in favor of or against any proposal placed before the shareholders at the Annual Meeting.

The following table sets forth, as of February 10, 2009, the ownership of common stock by management of United Bancshares, including (i) the common stock beneficially owned by each director, nominee for director and executive officer of United Bancshares and (ii) the common stock beneficially owned by all officers, directors and nominees for director as a group. He served as Executive Vice President of Farmers & Merchants State Bank in Archbold, Ohio from July 2004 to January 2005; Executive Vice President of The State Bank & Trust Co. in Defiance, Ohio from November 2002 to July 2004 and President of The Union Bank Company from June 1998 to November 2002.

The Board of Directors has set the size of the board at seven directors. In the future, should the Board of Directors determine that additional new members would be beneficial to the Corporation, it will take action to increase the size of the board and work with the Nominating Committee to find suitable candidates for placement on the board. The seven nominees for director of United Bancshares receiving the most votes will be elected as directors.

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the election of the nominees. Shares as to which authority to vote is withheld, abstentions and broker non-votes that are present in person or by proxy will not be counted and will have no effect on the outcome of the election. The directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast. As such, the seven directors receiving the highest number of votes will be elected as directors.

It is intended that common shares represented by the accompanying form of proxy will be voted FOR the election of the nominees, unless contrary instructions are indicated as provided on the proxy card. (If you do not wish your shares to be voted for particular nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card). If one or more of the nominees should at the time of the Annual Meeting be unavailable or unable to serve as a director, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to elect the remaining nominees and any substitute nominee or nominees designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve.

PROPOSAL 2 - AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO AUTHORIZE A NEW CLASS OF PREFERRED STOCK

On February 17, 2009, the Corporation's Board of Directors approved an amendment to Article IV of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation (the Articles ), and approved its submission to the shareholders for their approval at the annual meeting. The proposed amendment to the Articles authorizes the Board to issue up to 750,000 shares of a new class of preferred stock, with no par value (the Preferred Stock ). The full text of the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Articles is set forth in Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The Corporation currently has only one authorized class of capital stock, its Common Stock, which has no par value per share. The Board believes that it is advisable to increase the Corporation's authorized capital to include a class of Preferred Stock in order to participate in the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Troubled Asset Relief Program Capital Purchase Program, as discussed below, to increase the Corporation's flexibility to engage in other preferred stock financing that the Board believes is favorable to the Corporation, or to enter into arrangements that provide for the potential issuance of preferred stock in the future.

The new class of Preferred Stock, if approved, will be issuable in one or more series with such relative rights and preferences (including voting rights, if any) as are specified by the Board at the time of designation or issuance, without further action on the part of the Corporation's shareholders. Section 1701.69 of the Ohio Revised Code permits the authorization of a class of preferred stock pursuant to which the Board can designate and issue shares in one or more series and can specify, subject to certain limitations, the relative rights and preferences of any series so designated. Many publicly traded companies have such a class of authorized preferred stock.

Future issuances of shares of the Preferred Stock could have the effect of making it more difficult for a person to acquire control of the Corporation and remove management.

The affirmative vote of holders of a two-thirds majority of shares entitled to vote at the annual meeting is required to approve the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Articles. If the amendment is not approved by the shareholders, the Articles, which do not contain a class of preferred stock, will continue in effect. The proposed amendment, if adopted by the required two-thirds majority vote of the shareholders, will become effective on the date on which the Certificate of Amendment by Shareholders to the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation is filed with the Secretary of State of Ohio. Proxies will be voted in favor of the following resolution unless otherwise instructed by the shareholders. The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the resolution.

The resolution states:

RESOLVED, that Article IV of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of United Bancshares, Inc. be amended by deleting the current Article IV and replacing it with the form of Article IV set forth in Appendix A to the Proxy Statement for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on April 22, 2009.

Information Regarding the Proposed Amendment to Article IV

Why is the amendment to Article IV of the Articles necessary?

The proposed amendment to the Articles authorizes 750,000 shares of a new class of preferred stock, with no par value, pursuant to which the Board of Directors can designate and issue shares in one or more series and specify, subject to limitations, the relative rights and preferences of any series (the Preferred Stock). The Corporation currently has only one authorized class of capital stock, its Common Stock, which has no par value per share. The Board believes that it is advisable to increase the Corporation's authorized capital to include a class of Preferred Stock in order to participate in the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Troubled Asset Relief Program Capital Purchase Program, as discussed below, to increase the Corporation's flexibility to engage in other preferred stock financing that the Board believes is favorable to the Corporation, or to enter into arrangements that provide for the potential issuance of preferred stock in the future. Many publicly traded companies have such a class of authorized preferred stock.

One such opportunity involving the issuance of Preferred Stock is participation in the United States Department of the Treasury's (Treasury) Troubled Asset Relief Program Capital Purchase Program (the Capital Purchase Program or the CPP). The Corporation has received preliminary approval to participate in the CPP and, if all necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals for such participation are obtained and a transaction under the program is consummated between the Corporation and Treasury, the Corporation may receive up to $13,000,000 from Treasury in exchange for approximately 13,000 shares of Preferred Stock and a warrant to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Corporation. For more information on the TARP Capital Purchase Program, see the discussion below.

What will the consequences be if the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Articles is not adopted?

If the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Articles to authorize 750,000 preferred shares is not adopted, the Corporation will continue to have only one class of capital securities, its Common Stock, and will neither be able to take advantage of the flexibility provided by engaging in preferred stock financing nor participate in Treasury's TARP

Capital Purchase Program. While United Bancshares' capital position is already sound and above the minimums required to be considered well-capitalized under applicable regulatory guidelines, the Board of Directors believes that it is advisable to take advantage of such flexibility in general and specifically the Capital Purchase Program to raise additional capital to ensure that, during these uncertain economic times, the Corporation is well-positioned to support its existing operations as well as anticipated future growth.

What is the TARP Capital Purchase Program?

The TARP Capital Purchase Program is a program developed by Treasury under authority granted to it by Congress in the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008. Under the TARP Capital Purchase Program, Treasury is infusing capital into qualifying financial institutions by purchasing equity securities, including senior preferred shares and warrants to purchase common shares, from such financial institutions that meet the CPP's eligibility requirements and that have elected to participate in the CPP by November 14, 2008.

How much money will United Bancshares be getting?

If the shareholders approve the proposed amendment to Article IV and a transaction under the CPP between the Corporation and Treasury is consummated, United Bancshares will receive approximately $13,000,000 in exchange for the issuance to Treasury of approximately 13,000 shares of Preferred Stock and a warrant to purchase Common Stock of the Corporation.

What is the process for getting the TARP money?

The Corporation received preliminary approval from Treasury to participate in the CPP on February 5, 2009. Following preliminary approval, the Corporation and Treasury began negotiating terms of a letter agreement that will govern the transaction under the program. However, before executing the letter agreement with Treasury, the Corporation must have the ability to issue the preferred shares required for participation in the program. Thus, in order for the Corporation to participate in the program, its shareholders must first approve the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Articles authorizing the preferred shares. Following shareholder approval, if obtained, the Corporation and Treasury will finalize and execute the letter agreement and related documents necessary to consummate the transaction. Shortly thereafter, the Board of Directors will file an additional amendment to the Corporation's Articles to designate the terms of the preferred shares that will be issued to Treasury. The Corporation will then issue the shares of Preferred Stock and the warrant to purchase shares of Common Stock to Treasury in exchange for approximately $13,000,000.

<R>

What are the material conditions to United Bancshares' participation in the TARP Capital Purchase Program?

First and foremost, United Bancshares cannot participate in the TARP Capital Purchase Program unless it is able to issue the necessary preferred shares to Treasury. Thus, the primary material condition to United Bancshares' participation in the program is the approval by its shareholders of Proposal 2 which will authorize United Bancshares to create and issue preferred shares. Additionally, although Treasury has notified United Bancshares that it received preliminary approval to participate in the program, until we close the transaction, there is no binding agreement or commitment with respect to the issuance of preferred stock and the warrant to Treasury nor any obligation for Treasury to issue funds. The Corporation and Treasury must still negotiate the final terms and conditions of the Corporation's participation in the Capital Purchase Program, which means that closing of the transaction is not guaranteed. Lastly, after the terms and conditions of United Bancshares' participation in the Capital Purchase Program have been negotiated, Treasury must issue a final approval of the Corporation's participation in the program.

Therefore, although the Corporation has no reason to believe that the transaction will not be consummated, no assurances can be given: (1) that it will be able to participate in the Capital Purchase Program; (2) as to the exact number of shares of preferred stock that may be issued to Treasury under the Capital Purchase Program; or (3) as to the exact amount of consideration that the Corporation will receive from Treasury for any such shares.

<R>

What will be the effect on the liquidity, capital resources or results of operations of United Bancshares if Proposal 2 is approved by the shareholders but Treasury denies United Bancshares participation in the Capital Purchase Program?

If Proposal 2 is approved by the shareholders and Treasury declines to grant final approval to United Bancshares participation in the Capital Purchase Program, there is no reason to expect that there will be any material impact on United Bancshares' current liquidity, capital resources and results of operations in that no material change will actually occur in these areas. However, such a denial will have an adverse impact on the Corporation's potential liquidity, capital resources and results of operations as projected in the section below entitled "Pro Forma Financial Information" in that United Bancshares will not receive $13 million in capital from Treasury if the transaction is not consummated.

Further, it is not certain at this time if that capital could be obtained from an alternative source in the current market. However, that adverse impact will be lessened to a certain extent in that United Bancshares will not be required to pay cumulative dividends on the preferred shares that it would have issued to Treasury if the transaction had been consummated. On the other hand, if Proposal 2 is approved by the shareholders, United Bancshares will have authorized preferred stock that it can use to pursue additional financing options or growth opportunities. However, it is not possible at this time to determine the exact nature of such options, whether a market exists for such securities, nor whether there will be growth opportunities.

</R>

What does United Bancshares plan to do with the TARP money?

<R>

Substantially all of the proceeds from the CPP agreement with Treasury likely would be used to infuse additional capital into United Bancshares to support its continued growth in earning assets and deposits. Portions of the net proceeds also might be used by the Corporation for other general corporate purposes. It is not possible at this time to determine the exact types or amounts of investments the Corporation would make if this proposed amendment to Article IV is adopted by the shareholders and the transaction under the CPP is consummated between the Corporation and Treasury. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial data contained in the section below entitled "Pro Forma Financial Information" has been included to provide shareholders with information that may be useful for purposes of considering and evaluating Proposal 2. Such data is based on assumptions that the funds received from Treasury for the preferred stock issued will be initially invested in federal funds sold, earning at a rate of 0.15% with an incremental tax rate of 34%. Subsequent redeployment of the funds is anticipated, but the timing or actual implementation of such redeployment is, at this time, uncertain. The unaudited pro forma financial data presented below may change materially based on the actual proceeds received under the Capital Purchase Program, the timing and utilization of the proceeds as well as certain other factors including the strike price of the warrant, any subsequent changes in United Bancshares' common stock price, and the discount rate used to determine the fair value of the preferred stock. Accordingly, we can provide no assurance that the pro forma scenarios included in the section entitled Pro Forma Financial Information will ever be achieved.

</R>

What does United Bancshares give up for the TARP money?

If the proposed amendment is adopted by the shareholders and the CPP agreement is consummated, the Corporation will issue approximately 13,000 shares of Preferred Stock in the Corporation and a warrant to purchase Common Stock of the Corporation to Treasury in exchange for $13,000,000 in TARP funds. The Preferred Stock issued under the Capital Purchase Program will pay cumulative dividends at an annual rate of 5.0% until the fifth anniversary of the initial investment and an annual dividend rate of 9.0% thereafter. Dividends paid to Treasury will reduce the earnings available to common shareholders and will not be deductible for tax purposes.

Did the Board consider not taking TARP money?

The Board considered not taking TARP money, but the Board has determined that United Bancshares' participation in the TARP Capital Purchase Program is important to provide the Corporation with flexibility to engage in preferred stock financing and to enter into arrangements that provide for the potential issuance of preferred stock in the future.

The Capital Purchase Program enables United Bancshares to raise capital and improve the Corporation's ability to support its existing operations and anticipated future growth.

Is participation in the Capital Purchase Program dilutive to the common shareholders?

The Capital Purchase Program requires that Treasury receive warrants for shares of Common Stock equal to 15% of the capital invested by Treasury. These warrants will be immediately exercisable and have a term of ten years. If the warrants are exercised, common shareholder ownership will be diluted upon such exercise.

Terms of the Preferred Stock

The full text of the proposed amendment is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A. If the amendment is approved, the Board would be authorized to issue Preferred Stock with all designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions upon the Preferred Stock, as may be provided in the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Board. The authority of the Board would include, but is not limited to, the determination or fixing of the following with respect to shares of any class or series of Preferred Stock:

(i) the number of shares constituting that series and the distinct designation of that series;

(ii) the dividend rate, if any, on such shares of that series, whether dividends shall be cumulative, and, if so, from which date or dates, and the relative rights of priority, if any, of payment of dividends or other distributions on shares of that series;

(iii) whether that series shall have voting rights in addition to the voting rights provided by law, and, if so, the terms of such voting rights;

(iv) whether that series shall have conversion privileges, and, if so, the terms and conditions of such conversion, including provision for the adjustment of the conversion rate in such events as the Board of Directors shall determine;

(v) whether the shares of that series shall be redeemable or exchangeable, and, if so, the terms and conditions of such redemption or exchange, including the date or dates upon or after which they shall be redeemable or exchangeable, and the amount per share payable in case of redemption or exchange, which amount may vary under different conditions and at different redemption or exchange rates;

(vi) whether that series shall have a sinking fund for redemption or purchase of shares of that series, and, if so, the terms and amount of such sinking fund;

(vii) the rights of the shares of that series in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, and the relative rights of priority, if any, of payment of shares of that series; and

(viii) any other relative rights, preferences and limitations of that series.

The actual effect of the issuance of any shares of the Preferred Stock upon the rights of holders of common stock cannot be stated until the Board determines the specific rights of any shares of preferred stock issued. However, the effects might include, among other things, restricting dividends on the common stock, diluting the voting power of the common stock, reducing the market price of the common stock or impairing the liquidation rights of the common stock without further action by the shareholders. Holders of United Bancshares, Inc. common shares will not have preemptive rights with respect to the Preferred Stock.

Reasons for the Proposed Amendment

As stated above, the reason for the proposed amendment is to participate in the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Troubled Asset Relief Program Capital Purchase Program, to increase the Corporation's flexibility to engage in other preferred stock financing that the Board believes is favorable to the Corporation, or to enter into arrangements that provide for the potential issuance of preferred stock in the future.

One such opportunity is participation in Treasury's TARP Capital Purchase Program. Under the CPP, Treasury is infusing capital into qualifying financial institutions by purchasing equity securities, including senior preferred shares (the "Senior Preferred Shares"), from such financial institutions that meet the CPP's eligibility requirements and that have elected to participate in the CPP by November 14, 2008. On November 12, 2008, the Corporation filed an application to participate in the CPP and, on February 5, 2009, Treasury notified the Corporation that the Corporation had received preliminary approval to participate in the CPP. If the Corporation and Treasury ultimately consummate a transaction under the CPP, the Corporation will sell and issue to Treasury approximately $13,000,000 of Senior Preferred Shares and a warrant to purchase common shares of the Corporation as discussed below.

At this point, although Treasury has notified the Corporation that it received preliminary approval, there is no binding agreement or commitment with respect to the issuance of Senior Preferred Shares to Treasury. The Corporation and Treasury must still negotiate the final terms and conditions of the Corporation's participation in the CPP and the Corporation's shareholders must authorize the Corporation to issue the preferred stock required to be issued to Treasury under the program, which means that closing of the transaction is not guaranteed. Although the Corporation has no reason to believe that the transaction will not be consummated, no assurances can be given: (1) that it will be able to participate in the CPP; (2) as to the exact number of shares of Senior Preferred Shares that may be issued to Treasury under the CPP; or (3) as to the exact amount of consideration that the Corporation will receive from Treasury for any such shares.

A summary of the expected terms of the securities that the Treasury would purchase from United Bancshares if the CPP agreement is executed and consummated is set forth in Appendix B attached hereto.

Currently, United Bancshares is not authorized to issue preferred stock. If the proposed amendment is adopted by the shareholders, shares of Preferred Stock will be available for issuance in connection with the CPP. No further vote of the shareholders will be required, unless required under Ohio law. The Board of Directors believes that it is advisable to increase the Corporation's authorized capital to include the Preferred Stock in order take advantage of the flexibility afforded by preferred shares generally and, in particular, the CPP and to help ensure that its wholly owned bank subsidiary, the Union Bank Company (the Bank), remains well capitalized.

As an eligible institution under the CPP, United Bancshares may sell an amount of Senior Preferred Shares to the Treasury equal to not less than 1% nor more than 3% of the Bank's risk-weighted assets. The Senior Preferred Shares will: (1) be issued with a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share; (2) qualify as Tier 1 capital; and (3) rank senior to the Corporation's Common Stock.

Under the standard terms of the CPP, the Senior Preferred Shares, if so issued, would: (1) pay a quarterly cumulative dividend at a rate of 5 percent per annum for the first five years that the Senior Preferred Shares are outstanding and 9 percent per annum thereafter; (2) be non-voting, other than class voting rights on certain matters that could adversely affect the Senior Preferred Shares; and (3) be callable by the Corporation at par after three years. Prior to the end of three years after the date of issuance, the Senior Preferred Shares may be redeemed at par with the proceeds from a qualifying equity offering of any Tier 1 perpetual preferred or common shares. Treasury may also transfer the Senior Preferred Shares to a third party at any time subject the securities laws of the United States. Additionally, under Section 4.5 of the Capital Purchase Program's Securities Purchase Agreement - Standard Terms, the Corporation may be required, upon Treasury's request, to register the Senior Preferred Shares with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

<R>

In conjunction with the purchase of Senior Preferred Shares, the Corporation will issue and sell to Treasury warrants to purchase Common Stock with an aggregate market price equal to 15% of its investment in the Senior Preferred Shares. The initial exercise price on the warrants, and the market price for determining the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the warrants, will be the market price of the Corporation's common shares at the time of issuance, calculated on a 20-trading-day trailing average. The warrants will have a term of 10 years and such additional terms and features as set forth on Appendix B. Treasury will agree not to exercise voting power with respect to any shares of Common Stock that it acquires upon exercise of the warrants. Within thirty days of the closing of the transaction, the Corporation will be required to register the warrants and the underlying Common Stock issuable to Treasury upon exercise of the warrants with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a secondary offering via a Registration Statement on Form S-3. Additionally, as mentioned above, the Corporation may be required to take the steps necessary to register with the Securities and Exchange Commission, pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, the Senior Preferred Shares issued to Treasury under the Capital Purchase Program upon Treasury's request.

<R>

To participate in the CPP, the Corporation is required to meet certain standards regarding executive compensation as implemented in Section 111 of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008, including, but not limited to: ensuring that incentive compensation for senior executive officers does not encourage unnecessary and excessive risks that threaten the value of the company; requiring a clawback of any bonus or incentive compensation paid to a senior executive based on statements of earnings, gains, or other criteria that are later proven to be materially inaccurate; prohibiting certain severance payments to senior executive officers generally referenced as golden parachute payments above specified limits set forth in the U.S. Internal Revenue Code; and agreeing not to deduct for tax purposes executive compensation in excess of $500,000 for each senior executive officer. At this time, under the current requirements of Section 111 of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the Corporation will not be required to amend or modify any contracts or plans in order to comply with the executive compensation limitations.

Further, under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, participants in the Capital Purchase Program are required, during any period in which any obligation arising from financial assistance provided to the participant under the Capital Purchase Program remains outstanding, to permit an annual non-binding shareholder vote regarding the approval of its executive compensation program. If Proposal 2 is approved by the Corporation's shareholders and the transaction between the Corporation and Treasury is consummated, the Corporation will be required to solicit a non-binding shareholder vote regarding the approval of its executive compensation program, as disclosed pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, on annual basis, beginning with the annual meeting of shareholders in 2010.

</R>

The Board of Directors believes that it is in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders to take advantage of this opportunity to obtain additional low cost capital through the CPP. Without the proposed amendment, the Corporation will not be eligible to participate in the CPP since it will not be authorized to issue the preferred shares required under the program. With the proposed amendment, the Corporation may continue its discussions with Treasury concerning its participation in the CPP which will provide it with an additional resource for obtaining capital. The Board currently anticipates that it will issue up to 13,000 shares of Preferred Stock for $13,000,000 (approximately 2.9% of the Bank's risk adjusted assets) under the CPP with the terms, rights and preferences set forth on Appendix B and will issue a number of warrants exercisable for shares of the Corporation's common shares having an aggregate market price equal to 15% of the amount of Senior Preferred Shares issued.

More details regarding TARP and the CPP can also be found at the Treasury's website: <http://www.ustreas.gov> at Emergency Economic Stabilization Act - Capital Purchase Program.

Effect of the Proposed Amendment

Based on the standard CPP term sheet provided by Treasury, a copy of which is attached as Appendix B hereto, the following are the general effects on holders of Common Stock of participating financial institutions from the issuance of Senior Preferred Shares to the Treasury under the CPP:

Restrictions on Dividends. For as long as any Senior Preferred Shares are outstanding, no dividends may be declared or paid on junior preferred shares, preferred shares ranking pari passu with the Senior Preferred Shares, or Common Stock, unless all accrued and unpaid dividends for all past dividend periods on the Senior Preferred Shares are fully paid. In addition, the consent of Treasury will be required for any increase in the per share dividends on Common Stock until the third anniversary of the date of the Senior Preferred Shares investment unless prior to such third anniversary, the Senior Preferred Shares are redeemed in whole or Treasury has transferred all of the Senior Preferred Shares to third parties.

Repurchases. Treasury's consent shall be required for any share repurchases (other than (i) repurchases of the Senior Preferred Shares and (ii) repurchases of junior preferred shares or Common Stock in connection with any benefit plan in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice) until the third anniversary of the date of Treasury's investment unless prior to such third anniversary, the Senior Preferred Shares are redeemed in whole or Treasury has transferred all of the Senior Preferred Shares to third parties.

Voting rights. The Senior Preferred Shares shall be non-voting, other than class voting rights on (i) any authorization or issuance of shares ranking senior to the Senior Preferred Shares, (ii) any amendment to the rights of Senior Preferred Shares, or (iii) any merger, exchange or similar transaction which would adversely affect the rights of the Senior Preferred Shares. If dividends on the Senior Preferred Shares are not paid in full for six dividend periods, whether or not consecutive, the holders of the Senior Preferred Shares will have the right to elect two directors to the Corporation's Board of Directors. The right to elect directors will end when full dividends have been paid for four consecutive dividend periods.

If the CPP agreement with Treasury is consummated, and the Corporation has no reason to believe that it will not be consummated if the shareholders approve the proposed amendment to Article IV, the Corporation will also be required to issue to Treasury warrants to purchase Common Stock equal to 15% of Treasury's investment in the Senior Preferred Shares, or $1.95 million. Based on the 20-day average trading price of the Corporation's common shares on February 25, 2009 of $9.17 per share, the Corporation would be required to issue Treasury a warrant to purchase approximately 212,650 United Bancshares Common Stock at $9.17 per share. If all warrants were exercised, it would amount to approximately 5.82% of the Corporation's currently issued and outstanding shares as of the voting record date, which would dilute the relative equity interests of the current holders of the Common Stock. However, these figures are only estimates; the actual number of shares for the warrant and the exercise price will be determined just prior to the closing of the CPP agreement.

If shareholders approve the proposed amendment and the CPP agreement is consummated, the Board of Directors would approve and file a further amendment to the Articles (which it could do without further shareholder approval) that would designate that series of Preferred Stock and the number, terms, relative rights, preferences and limitations of shares as required by the CPP.

<R>

Substantially all of the proceeds of any such sale of Senior Preferred Shares likely would be used to infuse additional capital into United Bancshares to support its continued growth in earning assets and deposits. Portions of the net proceeds also might be used by the Corporation for other general corporate purposes. It is not possible at this time to determine the exact types or amounts of investments the Corporation would make if this proposed amendment to Article IV is adopted by the shareholders and the transaction under the CPP is consummated between the Corporation and Treasury. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial data contained in the section below entitled "Pro Forma Financial Information" has been included to provide shareholders with information that may be useful for purposes of considering and evaluating Proposal 2. Such data is based on assumptions that the funds received from Treasury for the preferred stock issued will be initially invested in federal funds sold, earning at a rate of 0.15% with an incremental tax rate of 34%. Subsequent redeployment of the funds is anticipated, but the timing or actual implementation of such redeployment is, at this time, uncertain. The unaudited pro forma financial data presented below may change materially based on the actual proceeds received under the Capital Purchase Program, the timing and utilization of the proceeds as well as certain other factors including the strike price of the warrant, any subsequent changes in United Bancshares' common stock price, and the discount rate used to determine the fair value of the preferred stock. Accordingly, United Bancshares can provide no assurance that the pro forma scenarios included in the section entitled "Pro Forma Financial Information" will ever be achieved.

</R>

Since the Senior Preferred Shares will be non-voting in accordance with the CPP, the issuance of such Senior Preferred Shares should not dilute the relative voting power of the current holders of Common Stock, except for certain class of voting rights and the issuance of the warrants as described above. Current shareholders would not have preemptive rights to acquire any additional shares of capital stock issued by United Bancshares and would have no right to purchase a proportionate share, or any portion, of any shares of Preferred Stock issued.

The affirmative vote of two thirds of the Corporation's issued and outstanding common shares is required to approve the proposed amendment. If the proposed amendment is not approved, the Corporation will not be eligible or have the option to participate in the Program since it will not be authorized to issue the preferred shares required under the program.

Pro Forma Financial Information

The following unaudited pro forma financial information of United Bancshares for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 show the effects of $13.0 million of Senior Preferred Shares issued to the Treasury pursuant to the terms of the CPP. The unaudited pro forma financial data presented below may change materially based on the actual proceeds received under the CPP, the timing and utilization of the proceeds as well as certain other factors including the strike price of the warrants, any subsequent changes in United Bancshares' common stock price, and the discount rate used to determine the fair value of the preferred stock. Accordingly, we can provide no assurance that the pro forma scenarios included in the following unaudited pro forma financial data will ever be achieved. We have included the following unaudited pro forma consolidated financial data solely for the purpose of providing shareholders with information that may be useful for purposes of considering and evaluating the proposals to amend our Articles of Incorporation.

Anti-Takeover Effects

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to provide the Corporation the opportunity to participate in the CPP as well as to provide the Board of Directors with the flexibility afforded by the issuance of preferred shares, not to establish any barriers to a change of control or acquisition of United Bancshares. However, pursuant to the terms of the CPP, if the Corporation issues shares of Preferred Stock to Treasury and we fail to pay the required dividends on the shares, Treasury would have the right to elect two directors to the Corporation's Board of Directors. This right would continue until any suspended dividends are fully paid for four consecutive quarters. This could be interpreted as having a potential anti-takeover effect. The proposed amendment is not being recommended in response to any specific effort of which the Corporation is aware to obtain control of United Bancshares, nor does the Board of Directors have any present intent to use the Preferred Stock to impede a takeover attempt.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions of Ohio Law

Certain Ohio laws make a change in control of United Bancshares more difficult, even if desired by the holders of the majority of the Common Stock. Provided below is a summary of the Ohio anti-takeover statutes.

Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute. The Ohio Revised Code provides in Section 1701.831 that specified notice and informational filings and special shareholder meetings and voting procedures must occur before consummation of a proposed control share acquisition. A control share acquisition is defined as any acquisition of an issuer's shares that would entitle the acquirer to exercise or direct the voting power of the issuer in the election of directors within any of the following ranges:

one-fifth or more, but less than one-third, of the voting power;

one-third or more, but less than a majority, of the voting power; or a majority or more of the voting power.

Assuming compliance with the notice and information filing requirements, the proposed control share acquisition may take place only if, at a duly convened special meeting of shareholders, the acquisition is approved by both a majority of the voting power of the issuer represented at the meeting and a majority of the voting power remaining after excluding the combined voting power of the intended acquirer and the directors and officers of the issuer. The control share acquisition statute does not apply to a corporation whose articles of incorporation or regulations so provide. United Bancshares has not opted out of the application of the control share acquisition statute.

Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute. Chapter 1704 of the Ohio Revised Code prohibits specified business combinations and transactions between an issuing public corporation and an interested shareholder for at least three years after the interested shareholder attains 10% ownership, unless the board of directors of the issuing public corporation approves the transaction before the interested shareholder attains 10% ownership. An interested shareholder is a person who owns 10% or more of the shares of the corporation. An issuing public corporation is defined as an Ohio corporation with 50 or more shareholders that has its principal place of business, principal executive offices, or substantial assets within the State of Ohio, and as to which no close corporation agreement exists. Examples of transactions regulated by the merger moratorium provisions include mergers, consolidations, voluntary dissolutions, the disposition of assets and the transfer of shares. After the three-year period, a moratorium transaction may take place provided that certain conditions are satisfied, including that:

- the board of directors approves the transaction;
- the transaction is approved by the holders of shares with at least two-thirds of the voting power of the corporation (or a different proportion set forth in the articles of incorporation), including at least a majority of the outstanding shares after excluding shares controlled by the interested shareholder; or
- the business combination results in shareholders, other than the interested shareholder, receiving a fair price plus interest for their shares, as determined in accordance with the statute.

Although the merger moratorium provisions may apply, a corporation may elect not to be covered by the merger moratorium provisions, or subsequently elect to be covered, with an appropriate amendment to its articles of incorporation. United Bancshares has not opted out of the Ohio merger moratorium statute.

Preferred Stock Authorization

If the proposed amendment is adopted by the shareholders, the Corporation's Board of Directors, without shareholder approval, would have the authority under the Corporation's Articles, as thereby amended, to issue Preferred Stock with rights superior to the rights of the holders of Common Stock. As a result, Preferred Stock, while not intended as a defensive measure against takeovers, could be issued quickly and easily, could adversely affect the rights of holders of Common Stock and could be issued with terms calculated to delay or prevent a change of control of the Corporation or make removal of management more difficult.

CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS

Under Rule 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, a beneficial owner of a security is any person who directly or indirectly has or shares voting power or investment power over such security. Such beneficial owner under this definition need not enjoy the economic benefit of such securities. The shareholder identified in the following table is deemed to be beneficial owner of 5% or more of the common stock of United Bancshares as of December 31, 2008. The Corporation is not aware of any other shareholder beneficially owning 5% or more of the Corporation's common stock.

Title of Class	Name and Address of Beneficial Owner	Numbers of Shares Beneficially Owned	Percent of Class
Common	Joe S. Edwards, Jr.  2626 Shoreline Drive  Lima, Ohio 45805	185,101	5.38

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In the ordinary course of conducting its business, United Bancshares, for itself or through its banking subsidiary, may engage in transactions with the employees, directors and managers of United Bancshares and The Union Bank Company which may include, but not be limited to, loans. With the exception of certain discounts available to employees which are administered in accordance with Ohio banking law, all banking transactions with directors, employees or managers of United Bancshares, or its subsidiary, are conducted on the same basis and terms as would be provided to any other bank customer. In addition, each of these transactions was made on terms similar to those that could have been negotiated with an unaffiliated third party.

To the knowledge of United Bancshares, no director, officer or affiliate of the Corporation, owner of record or beneficially of more than 5% of the Corporation's common stock, or any associate of any such director, officer, affiliate of the Corporation or security holder, is an adverse party to the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or has a material interest that is adverse to the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires United Bancshares' officers and directors and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Corporation's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater than 10% shareholders are required to furnish United Bancshares with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on the Corporation's review of the Section 16(a) forms received by it and by statements of officers and directors concerning their compliance with the applicable filing requirements and with the exception of seven Form 5s for dividend reinvestment purchases by David P. Roach for the years 2001 - 2007 for a total of 27 shares, which were subsequently filed in February 2009, the officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners of United Bancshares have complied with all applicable filing requirements.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Board of Director and Shareholders Meetings

The Board of Directors met 13 times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008. The directorate as a whole attended at least 97% of the total number of Board meetings and 4 of the directors attended 100% of the total number of meetings. United Bancshares encourages its directors to attend its Annual Meetings of Shareholders, and all directors attended the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Directors receive up to $10,000 annual compensation for their service on the Board of Directors of United Bancshares. Additionally, the Chairman of the Board receives $5,000, the Chairman of the Audit Committee receives $2,500, the Chairman of the Nominating Committee receives $500 and the Chairman of the Compensation Committee receives $500 for their service in these positions. Inside directors are not compensated for their services as directors beyond their salaries received from United Bancshares or its subsidiaries. All of the directors of United Bancshares also serve as directors of United Bancshares' depository subsidiary, The Union Bank Company. Each of the outside directors may receive additional compensation for their services as a director of a subsidiary.

Board of Director Independence

Each year the Board of Directors reviews the relationships that each director has with the Corporation and with other parties. Only those directors who do not have any of the categorical relationships that preclude them from being independent within the meaning of applicable Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Rules and who the Board of Directors affirmatively determines have no relationships that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director are considered to be independent directors. Such definition of independence is not available on the Corporation's website; however, it is attached as Appendix A to the Corporation's Definitive Proxy Statement pursuant to Section 14(a) filed on March 20, 2008, SEC file reference number 333-86453. The Board of Directors has reviewed a number of factors to evaluate the independence of each of its members. These factors include its members' current and historic relationships with the Corporation and its competitors, suppliers and customers; their relationships with management and other directors; the relationships their current and former employers have with the Corporation; and the relationships between the Corporation and other companies of which the Corporation's board members are directors or executive officers. After evaluating these factors, the Board of Directors has determined that all of the Directors, with the exception of Daniel W. Schutt, are independent directors of the Corporation within the meaning of applicable FINRA Rules.

Independent members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation meet in executive session without management present, and are scheduled to do so at least two times per year. The Board of Directors has designated James N. Reynolds as the presiding director for these meetings.

Shareholder Communications

Our shareholders may communicate directly with the members of the Board of Directors or the individual chairman of standing committees of the Board of Directors by writing directly to those individuals at the following address: 100 South High Street, Columbus Grove, Ohio 45830. The Corporation's general policy is to forward, and not to intentionally screen, any mail received at the Corporation's corporate office that is sent directly to an individual.

Code of Ethics

On February 17, 2004, the Board of Directors adopted a Code of Ethics which is applicable to the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and all other senior financial officers. A copy of the Code of Ethics is attached as Appendix B to the Corporation's Definitive Proxy Statement pursuant to Section 14(a) filed on March 20, 2008, SEC file reference number 333-86453. In addition, the Board of Directors has adopted a code of ethics that applies to all of our employees, officers and directors.

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Corporation has an Audit Committee the members of which are R. Steven Unverferth, Robert L. Dillhoff, and Robert L. Benroth (Chairman). The Audit Committee was created and a written charter for the Audit Committee was adopted on August 8, 2000, and amended on February 15, 2005. All of the members of the Audit Committee are (i) independent directors as defined in Nasdaq Stock Market Rule 4200(a)(15); (ii) meet the criteria for independence set forth in Rule 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and (iii) have not participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Corporation or any current subsidiary of the Corporation at any time during the past three years. The Board of Directors has determined that Robert L. Benroth is an audit committee financial expert as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K. The Audit Committee has the sole authority to retain and dismiss the independent auditors and reviews their performance and independence with management. The primary functions of the Audit Committee are to oversee: (i) the audit of the financial statements of the Corporation provided to the SEC, the Corporation's shareholders and to the general public; (ii) the Corporation's internal financial and accounting controls and processes; and (iii) the independent audit process. The Corporation has a Nominating Committee, the members of which are Robert L. Dillhoff (Chairman), Robert L. Benroth, and H. Edward Rigel. This Committee is responsible for reviewing the qualifications of potential candidates for the Board of Directors, including those potential candidates submitted by shareholders. In addition, the Nominating Committee recommends to the Board of Directors candidates for election as directors at the Corporation's annual meetings and candidates to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors. United Bancshares does not have a formal policy regarding consideration of such recommendations, however, any recommendations received from shareholders will be evaluated in the same manner that potential nominees suggested by the Board of Directors are evaluated, as described below. Shareholders may send director nomination recommendations to the Secretary of the Corporation at 100 South High Street, Columbus Grove, Ohio 45830. The Nominating Committee met a total of 2 times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008. The Nominating Committee has adopted a written charter. It is a policy of the Nominating Committee that candidates for director possess the highest personal and professional integrity, have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment, and have skills and expertise appropriate for the Corporation and serving the long-term interest of the Corporation's shareholders. The Nominating Committee's process for identifying and evaluating nominees is as follows: (1) in the case of incumbent directors whose terms of office are set to expire, the Nominating Committee reviews such directors overall service to the Corporation during their term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation, quality of performance, and any related party transactions with the Corporation during the applicable time period; and (2) in the case of new director candidates, the Nominating Committee first conducts any appropriate and necessary inquiries into the backgrounds and qualifications of possible candidates after considering the function and needs of the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee may conduct an interview of a possible candidate and then meet to discuss and consider such candidates' qualifications, including whether the nominee is independent for purposes of the FINRA Rules. It then selects a candidate for recommendation to the Board of Directors by majority vote. In seeking potential nominees, the Nominating Committee uses its network of contacts and those who have expressed interest to compile a list of potential candidates. To date, the Nominating Committee has not paid a fee to any third party to assist in the process of identifying or evaluating director candidates. The Nominating Committee meets as many times as necessary to determine the nominees for the Board of Directors for the next annual meeting.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing the compensation, performance and retention related issues with respect to the executive officers of United Bancshares. The Compensation Committee does not have a charter. In 2008, the Compensation Committee met 3 times.

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for determining the compensation to be paid to the Corporation's executive officers and for the performance review of the Chief Executive Officer, while the entire Board of Directors of the Corporation is responsible for developing the executive compensation principles, policies and programs for all of our executive officers. In establishing the final compensation for the named executive officers, the Compensation Committee proposes the compensation amounts to the Board of Directors, which makes any necessary changes to the compensation and gives final approval of the compensation.

Such amounts have been expensed and are reflected as an accrued liability by the Corporation, but have not been funded.

The Union Bank Company sponsors supplemental income plans. These non-qualified retirement plans benefit certain individuals designated by the Board of Directors of the Bank. The supplemental income plans provide eligible individuals with supplemental retirement benefits, the amount of which is based upon the individual's years of service with The Union Bank Company. Currently, Mr. Schutt and Mr. Young are among those individuals who participate in the plans. The formula by which benefits are determined is based upon age, years of service, age at retirement and actuarially determined variables. Under his plan, Mr. Schutt's annual retirement benefit, if he retires after reaching age 62, will be $40,000 per year for fifteen years. However, as mentioned above, Mr. Schutt is not currently vested in his plan. All of Mr. Schutt's deferred income in his plan will be forfeited if he leaves the Corporation before he vests in the plan and no other triggering event (described below) takes place. Under his plan, Mr. Young's retirement benefit, if he retires at age 65, will be a lump sum distribution of approximately $144,000. The current accrued values of the named executive's plans are $300,684 and $6,050 for Mr. Schutt and Mr. Young, respectively.

Benefits under the supplemental income plan become payable when the designated individual's employment terminates with The Union Bank Company due to normal retirement, early retirement, death or disability.

Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control

The employment agreements of the named executive officers, as well as the Chief Executive Officer's Executive Supplemental Income Agreement, and the Chief Financial Officer's Salary Continuation Agreement provide for payments and/or vesting of benefits under certain circumstances in connection with termination of employment and a change in control. The triggering events for payments and vesting of benefits in the various agreements and plans are relatively common for agreements and plans of this nature, and are designed to provide for fair treatment of the participants under the various circumstances and to reasonably reward the participants for their loyalty and commitment to the Corporation. The following section describes the potential payments and other benefits that would have been received by each named executive if there had been a change in control or other termination of their employment with the Corporation on the last day of 2008.

While the definition of change in control varies among our various agreements and plans, in general a "change in control" means a change in the ownership or effective control of the Corporation, or in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of the Corporation.

Daniel W. Schutt

Under the terms of Mr. Schutt's employment agreement, he would have received no change in control payment as of the end of 2008. Under Mr. Schutt's Salary Continuation Agreement, in the event of a change in control at the end of 2008, Mr. Schutt would be entitled to receive annual payments of $40,000 for the 15 years after the change in control.

In the event that Mr. Schutt was terminated without cause at the end of 2008, Mr. Schutt would have been entitled to a lump sum payment equal to his base salary through the end of the term of the employment agreement, equal to $291,000 and no other payments under either employment agreement or his Salary Continuation Agreement.

In the event that Mr. Schutt left the employment of the Corporation for any other reason (including death, disability, retirement, termination for cause, or resignation) at the end of 2008, he would only have been entitled to compensation through the last date of the employment under his employment agreement. Under his Salary Continuation Agreement, because Mr. Schutt was not 62 years of age at the end of 2008, in the event that he left the employment of the Corporation for any of these reasons, other than disability or death, he would have been entitled to no payments.

Under his Salary Continuation Agreement, in the event that Mr. Schutt became disabled at the end of 2008, he would be entitled to aggregate payments equal to $300,684 paid in 180 consecutive equal monthly installments beginning 30 days after his separation of service due to the disability.

In the event that Mr. Schutt died at the end of 2008, under his Salary Continuation Agreement, his beneficiaries would have been entitled to receive annual payments of $40,000 for the 15 years after Mr. Schutt's termination of employment.

Brian D. Young

Under the terms of Mr. Young's employment agreement, if a change in control were to have occurred at the end of 2008, Mr. Young would have been entitled to the lesser of $405,000 (2.5 times his base salary as the date of the change of control), or one dollar less than the largest amount that could be paid to him without the payment qualifying as a "parachute payment" under Section 280G(b)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Corporation would have had to make the payment within 15 days of the change in control. The Corporation would also have to pay the premiums for Mr. Young's COBRA insurance for one year following the termination.

Also, in the event that Mr. Young's employment was terminated in connection with the change in control, he also would be entitled to the entire amount accrued under his Salary Continuation Agreement, or $6,050 to be paid within 90 days from the change in control.

In the event that Mr. Young was terminated without cause, or resigned due to (a) a material diminution of his duties, responsibilities, compensation or benefits, (b) a reduction in his base salary, (c) a required relocation of more than 20 miles from Columbus Grove, Ohio, or (d) a disagreement as to the strategic plan of the Corporation, Mr. Young would be entitled to the same benefits as if a change in control happened. In addition, in such event, Mr. Young would have been entitled to a payment of $6,050 (the amount accrued under the Salary Continuation Agreement).

In the event that Mr. Young was terminated for cause, Mr. Young would be entitled to payment of his base salary through the end of his employment, and no further payments.

In the event that Mr. Young voluntarily resigned other than for the reasons listed above, or was disabled at the end of 2008, he would be entitled to payment of his base salary through the end of his employment, and would be entitled to a payment of $6,050 (the amount accrued under the Salary Continuation Agreement).

In the event that Mr. Young's employment with the Corporation terminated due to death at the end of 2008, his beneficiaries would be entitled to the payment of his base salary through the end of his employment, and would be entitled to a payment of approximately $144,000.
