The common units and special common units of limited partnership interest in the Operating Partnership were also split on a two-for-one basis so that they continue to be exchangeable on a one-for-one basis into shares of the Company’s Common Stock.

Certain Terms of Jacobs Acquisition

In connection with the Jacobs Acquisition and pursuant to a voting and standstill agreement (the Voting/Standstill Agreement ), the Company agreed to expand its Board of Directors from seven to nine members and to nominate two designees of JRI as members of the Board. Martin J. Cleary and Gary L. Bryenton were appointed to the Board as these initial designees. Under the Voting/Standstill Agreement, JRI will continue to be entitled to nominate two Board members until JRI, together with Richard E. Jacobs and certain members of his family and certain trusts for the benefit of the families of Richard E. Jacobs and David H. Jacobs (collectively, the Jacobs Persons ), as a group, beneficially own fewer than 13.55 million special common units in the Operating Partnership ( SCUs ) and shares of Common Stock (adjusted to reflect the 6/15/05 Stock Split), following which JRI will be entitled to nominate only one Board member. JRI will no longer be entitled to nominate any Board members if the Jacobs Persons, as a group, beneficially own fewer than 6.67 million SCUs and shares of Common Stock (adjusted to reflect the 6/15/05 Stock Split). Pursuant to the Voting/Standstill Agreement, CBL’s Predecessor and certain of the Company’s executive officers have agreed to vote their shares in favor of JRI’s designees until the twelfth anniversary of the Jacobs Acquisition. The Jacobs Persons have agreed to a 12-year standstill period during which they will not seek to acquire control of the Company and will not participate in a group which seeks to acquire such control. The Jacobs Persons also agreed until the twelfth anniversary of the Jacobs Acquisition to vote their shares in favor of the election of the Board's nominees to the Board of Directors who are running unopposed and uncontested. Effective as of January 1, 2006, the Voting/Standstill Agreement was amended to remove Martin J. Cleary as a party to that agreement. Neither Martin J. Cleary nor Gary L. Bryenton are parties to the Voting/Standstill Agreement, nor is either of them a party to any agreement which obligates them to vote with management of the Company on any matter.

Corporate Governance Matters

Overview. The Board of Directors has adopted guidelines on corporate governance (including director independence criteria), committee charters, and a code of business conduct and ethics setting forth the Company's corporate governance principles and practices and, effective as of January 1, 2006, the Company adopted amended and restated guidelines on corporate governance incorporating all previous guidelines on corporate governance and including additional policy statements (collectively, as amended and restated, referred to herein as the Corporate Governance Guidelines). See Corporate Governance Matters Additional Policy Statements. These documents can be accessed in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website cblproperties.com or by directing a written request for copies to the Company at CBL & Associates Properties, Inc., CBL Center, Suite 500, 2030 Hamilton Place Boulevard, Chattanooga, Tennessee 37421-6000, Attention: Director of Investor Relations.

Director Independence. The Board has adopted a set of director independence standards ( Director Independence Standards ) for evaluating the independence of each of the directors in accordance with the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission ( SEC ) and of the NYSE corporate governance standards. In March 2007, the Board undertook its annual review of director independence pursuant to NYSE Rule 303A.02(a) and the provisions of the Company's Director Independence Standards (as set forth below). During this process, the Board reviewed whether any director has any relationship with the Company's independent auditors that would preclude independence under SEC and NYSE rules, or any material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, member, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) which could (directly or indirectly) materially impact the ability of such director or nominee to exert his independent judgment and analysis as a member of the Board. As a result of this review, the Board affirmatively determined that six of the Company's nine directors were independent under the standards of the SEC and NYSE and as set forth in the Company's Director Independence Standards. Messrs. Charles B. Lebovitz, Stephen D. Lebovitz and John N. Foy, who are executive officers of the Company and employees of the Management Company, were not deemed independent. In making the independence determinations with respect to the other six directors, the Board considered the following matters and determined that they did not interfere with the independence of the following three directors: (i) with respect to Mr. Cleary and Mr. Bryenton, the Company's contractual commitments in connection with the terms of the Jacobs Acquisition as described above (see above Certain Terms of Jacobs Acquisition ); (ii) with respect to Mr. Cleary, the fact that, due to his retained ownership interests in certain entities within the Jacobs Group that contributed properties to the Operating Partnership in connection with the Jacobs Acquisition, he intends to recuse himself from participation in any Board decision involving the taxable sale of, or a significant reduction in the debt encumbering, any such properties that could trigger income tax liability based on the unrealized gain attributable to the difference between the fair market value and the adjusted tax basis in such properties immediately prior to the Jacobs Acquisition; (iii) with respect to Mr. Bryenton, the fact that he continues to serve as legal counsel to the Jacobs Group and to certain members of the Jacobs family, but solely concerning matters unrelated to the Company and the Jacobs Acquisition (for which such parties employ separate counsel); and (iv) with respect to Mr. Fields, the fact that he is Co-Chairman of Weisberg & Fields, Inc., an investment advisory firm that provides certain advisory services, from time to time, to Charles B. Lebovitz, members of his family and to the Lebovitz Family Charitable Trust, a charitable foundation. In 2006, fees paid to Weisberg & Fields, Inc. by Charles B. Lebovitz, members of his family and the Lebovitz Family Charitable Trust totaled approximately $171,000. The full text of the Director Independence Standards is as follows:

A. GENERAL INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS

In determining whether or not any director or nominee for director may be considered independent, the Board shall apply the following criteria:

(1) No director or nominee shall be deemed independent unless the Board affirmatively determines that the director or nominee satisfies the requirements stated herein and has no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, member, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). For purposes of this test, a relationship with the Company shall be deemed to be a material relationship which precludes a determination that a director or nominee is independent if, in the opinion of the Board and in light of all the relevant facts and circumstances, such relationship (directly or indirectly) could materially impact the ability of such director or nominee to exert his or her independent judgment and analysis as a member of the Board. For purposes hereof, ownership of the Company's stock (even in a significant amount) or ownership of securities convertible to the Company's stock shall not be viewed, in and of themselves, as a bar to a finding of independence. To assist in this determination, the Company shall periodically (at least annually and prior to any nominee becoming a director for his or her initial term as a director) deliver to the directors and/or nominees for directorships a Directors and Officers Questionnaire designed to elicit information from such director or nominee as to material relationships and other information relative to these Independence Standards; and

(2) In addition, to be considered independent, a director or nominee must satisfy all other independence criteria for directors of a publicly traded company which are now, or may be hereafter, set forth in applicable federal statutes and rules promulgated by the SEC, and in the related listing standards promulgated by the NYSE and any other exchange upon which the Company's stock may be listed, as such statutes and/or rules and listing standards may be revised or amended from time to time.

B. ADDITIONAL AUDIT COMMITTEE INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS

In determining whether or not any director or nominee satisfies the independence requirement for Audit Committee membership, in addition to satisfying all of the requirements set forth in Paragraph A hereof, such director also must satisfy the following:

Such director or nominee must satisfy all additional requirements for the independence of audit committee members of publicly traded companies which are now, or may be hereafter, set forth in applicable federal statutes and rules promulgated by the SEC, and in the related listing standards promulgated by the NYSE and any other exchange upon which the Company's stock may be listed, as such statutes and/or rules and listing standards may be revised or amended from time to time.

The Director Independence Standards also are included as an exhibit to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, which can be found in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com. A copy may also be obtained upon request from the Company's Director of Investor Relations at the address provided above.

Additional Policy Statements. Effective as of January 1, 2006, the Company has included additional policy statements as part of the Corporate Governance Guidelines. A summary of these new policy statements is as follows:

Limits on Other Board Participation a policy statement that limits to four (4) the number of other public company boards (not counting the Company's Board) upon which a director may serve at any given time.

Minimum Stock Ownership for Non-Employee Directors a policy statement that provides that by the later of five (5) years from the adoption of the policy or becoming a member of the Company's Board, a Non-Employee Director (a director that is not an employee of the Company, currently, the Independent Directors) must own at least the lesser of 3,500 shares of the Company's Common Stock or $150,000 worth of the Company's Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: CBL & ASSOCIATES PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Minimum Stock Ownership for Executive Officers a policy statement that provides that by the later of five (5) years from the adoption of the policy or becoming an executive officer, such executive officer must own an amount of the Company's Common Stock, determined as set forth in the policy statement, having a value at least equal to the following formula amounts:

Executive Officer	Level of Stock Ownership
Chief Executive Officer	3x prior calendar year's annual base salary
President	2x prior calendar year's annual base salary
Chief Financial Officer	2x prior calendar year's annual base salary
Executive Vice President	2x prior calendar year's annual base salary

Changes in Director's Principal Occupation or Business Association a policy statement that provides that when the principal occupation or business association of a member of the Board of Directors changes substantially from the position he or she held when originally invited to join the Board of Directors, such director shall promptly tender his or her resignation as a director to the Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee shall then review whether it is appropriate and in the best interests of the Company to allow the continued participation of such director as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company. If the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee recommends that such director should no longer serve as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company as a result of such change, and the full Board of Directors (excluding the director at issue) ratifies such recommendation, then the tender of resignation by the affected director shall be accepted by the Board of Directors.

Initial Term of Director Appointed to Fill a Board Vacancy a policy statement that provides that any director appointed by the Board of Directors of the Company to fill a vacancy created by the departure of another director shall serve only until the next regularly scheduled annual meeting of the Company's stockholders. In order for such director to continue to serve thereafter, he or she must be nominated and duly elected to fill the remainder of the term to which the director was originally appointed (or for another full term, as appropriate).

Executive Sessions for Independent Directors. In accordance with the NYSE Rule 303A.03, the Independent Directors of the Company meet from time to time in scheduled executive sessions without management participation. The Board of Directors has designated Winston W. Walker as lead Independent Director, solely for the purpose of chairing these executive sessions. The Independent Directors met in four executive sessions during 2006.

Communicating with the Board of Directors. The Company provides a process for stockholders to send communications to the Board or any of the directors. Stockholders may send written communications to the Board or any of the directors c/o the Corporate Secretary, CBL & Associates Properties, Inc., 2030 Hamilton Place Blvd., Suite 500, CBL Center, Chattanooga, Tennessee, 37421-6000. All communications will be compiled by the Company's Corporate Secretary and submitted to the Board or the individual director(s) to whom such communication is addressed. It is the Company's policy that all directors attend the Annual Meeting unless they are prevented from attending due to scheduling conflicts or important personal or business reasons; provided, however, it is the Company's policy that a majority of the directors (including a majority of the Company's Independent Directors) attend each Annual Meeting. All of the Company's directors attended the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. The Board has adopted an Amended and Restated Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, as amended (the Code of Business Conduct) that applies to all directors, officers and employees, including the Company's principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer. The Code of Business Conduct is available in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com, or at no charge by written request to the Company's Director of Investor Relations at the address provided above. The purpose of the Code of Business Conduct is to provide a codification of standards that is reasonably designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote accountability for and adherence to the standards of the Code, including honest and ethical conduct; the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships; full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in the Company's filings with the SEC and in other public communications by the Company; and compliance with all applicable rules and regulations that apply to the Company and to its directors, officers and employees.

Board of Directors Meetings and Committees

The Board of Directors has established standing Executive, Audit, Compensation and Nominating/ Corporate Governance Committees. The Board of Directors met eight times and took action by unanimous written consent three times during 2006. Each director attended more than 75% of the aggregate of (i) the total number of Board meetings and (ii) the total number of meetings of Board committees on which the director served at the time during 2006.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is comprised of Charles B. Lebovitz (Chairman), John N. Foy and Leo Fields. The Executive Committee may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors of the Company in the management of the business and affairs of the Company as permitted by law; provided, however, unless specifically authorized by the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee may not exercise the power and authority of the Board of Directors with respect to (i) the declaration of dividends, (ii) issuance of stock, (iii) amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, (iv) filling vacancies on the Board of Directors, (v) approval of borrowings in excess of $40 million per transaction or series of related transactions, (vi) hiring executive officers, (vii) approval of acquisitions or dispositions of property or assets in excess of $40 million per transaction and (viii) certain transactions between the Company and its directors and officers and certain sales of real estate and reductions of debt that produce disproportionate tax allocations to CBL's Predecessor pursuant to the Company's Bylaws. The Executive Committee met five times and took action by unanimous written consent one time during 2006.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is comprised of Winston W. Walker (Chairman), Claude M. Ballard, Gary L. Bryenton and Matthew S. Dominski, all of whom the Board of Directors has determined are Independent Directors pursuant to the independence requirements of Sections 303A.02 and 303A.07(b) of the listing standards of the NYSE as currently applicable. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written amended and restated charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the amended and restated charter is available and can be accessed in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website cblproperties.com, or at no charge by written request to the Company's Director of Investor Relations at the address provided above. The Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of the independent auditors and the plans and results of the audit engagement. The Audit Committee approves audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditors and the fees for such services and reviews the adequacy of the Company's internal accounting controls as well as the Company's accounting policies and results. The Audit Committee met six times during 2006.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee is comprised of Claude M. Ballard (Chairman), Martin J. Cleary, Matthew S. Dominski and Winston W. Walker, all of whom the Board of Directors has determined are Independent Directors. The Compensation Committee operates pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the charter is available and can be accessed in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website cblproperties.com, or at no charge by written request to the Company's Director of Investor Relations at the address provided above. The Compensation Committee generally reviews and approves compensation programs and, specifically, reviews and approves salaries, bonuses, stock awards and stock options for officers of the Company of the level of vice president or higher. The Compensation Committee administers the Amended and Restated CBL & Associates Properties, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan (the "Stock Incentive Plan"), but typically delegates the responsibility for routine, ministerial functions related to the Stock Incentive Plan, such as the documentation and record-keeping functions concerning awards issued under the plan, to employees in the Company's accounting and treasury departments, with assistance from Company counsel. Similar authority is delegated to the same individuals with respect to the record keeping and tax reporting functions applicable to the Company's other compensation programs, including those for officers of the level of vice president or higher. Notwithstanding the delegation of these routine administrative responsibilities, however, the Compensation Committee retains responsibility for all policy-making decisions related to such compensation matters and for setting the level of all such compensation. In exercising this authority, the Compensation Committee considers the suggestions of management of the Company and gives particular weight to the recommendations of the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer with regard to the compensation of all officers other than himself. The Compensation Committee met two times and took action by unanimous written consent one time during 2006.

Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee is comprised of Gary L. Bryenton (Chairman), Claude M. Ballard, Matthew S. Dominski and Winston W. Walker, all of whom the Board of Directors has determined are Independent Directors. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee operates pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the charter is available and can be accessed in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com, or at no charge by written request to the Company's Director of Investor Relations at the address provided above. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding various aspects of the Board of Directors and the Company's governance processes and procedures. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee also evaluates and recommends candidates for election to fill vacancies on the Board, including consideration of the renominations of members whose terms are due to expire. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee requires a majority of the Company's directors to be independent in accordance with applicable requirements of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws as well as rules of the SEC and NYSE (including certain additional independence requirements for Audit Committee members). A set of uniform Director Independence Standards, which was used in making all such Independent Director determinations, is set forth above and is included in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, a copy of which is available in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at cblproperties.com. In addition and as part of the evaluation of potential candidates, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee considers the breadth of a candidate's business and professional skills and experiences, diversity of background, reputation for personal integrity, and ability to devote sufficient time to Board service, as well as the Company's needs for particular skills, insight and/or talents on the Board of Directors. For incumbent directors whose terms of office are set to expire, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee reviews such directors' overall service during their term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation and quality of performance. With respect to the Board seats presently held by Mr. Cleary and Mr. Bryenton, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee also considers the Company's contractual commitments in connection with the terms of the Jacobs Acquisition, as discussed above.

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will consider candidates for Board of Directors' seats proposed by stockholders. Any such proposals should be made in writing to CBL & Associates Properties, Inc., 2030 Hamilton Place Blvd., Suite 500, CBL Center, Chattanooga, Tennessee, 37421-6000, Attention: Corporate Secretary, and must be received no later than December 1, 2007, in order to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for the 2008 Annual Meeting. In order to be considered by the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, any candidate proposed by stockholders will be required to submit appropriate biographical and other information equivalent to that required of all other director candidates, including consent to an initial background check. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee does not intend to alter the manner in which it evaluates candidates on the criteria set forth above regardless of whether the candidate was recommended by a stockholder or by the Company. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee met two times in 2006.

- (1) The Company conducts all of its business activities through the Operating Partnership. Pursuant to the third amended and restated partnership agreement of the Operating Partnership and all subsequent amendments thereto (collectively, the Operating Partnership Agreement), each of the partners of the Operating Partnership, which include, among others, CBL's Predecessor and certain of the executive officers named in this Proxy Statement, has the right (CBL Rights) to exchange all or a portion of its common units or special common units (as applicable) in the Operating Partnership for shares of Common Stock or their cash equivalent, at the Company's election. Under the terms of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), shares of Common Stock that may be acquired within 60 days are deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage of Common Stock owned by a stockholder. Therefore, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act, percentage ownership of the Common Stock is computed based on the sum of (i) 65,605,028 shares of Common Stock actually outstanding as of March 12, 2007, (ii) as described in the accompanying footnotes, each individual's or entity's share of 50,662,521 shares of Common Stock that may be acquired upon exercise of CBL Rights by the individual or entity whose percentage of share ownership is being computed (but not taking account of the exercise of CBL Rights by any other person or entity) and (iii) as described in the accompanying footnotes, each individual's share of 1,354,136 shares of Common Stock that may be acquired within 60 days of March 12, 2007 upon the exercise of outstanding options by the individual whose percentage of share ownership is being computed (but not taking into account the exercise of such outstanding options by any other person). Amounts shown were determined without regard to applicable ownership limits contained in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation.
- (2) The Fully-Diluted Percentage calculation is based on (i) 65,605,028 shares of Common Stock outstanding and (ii) assumes the full exercise of all CBL Rights for shares of Common Stock by all holders of common units and SCUs of the Operating Partnership (in each case, without regard to applicable ownership limits), for an aggregate of 116,267,549 shares of Common Stock. The Fully-Diluted Percentage calculation does not include 1,354,136 shares of Common Stock subject to outstanding stock options other than, with respect to each person whose fully-diluted percentage is being computed, shares which may be acquired within 60 days of March 12, 2007 upon the exercise of outstanding options.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors, executive officers and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in beneficial ownership of Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file.

Based solely upon the Company's review of copies of such reports furnished to it through the date hereof, or written representations that no other reports were required to be filed, the Company believes that during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 all officers, directors and ten percent stockholders complied with the filing requirements applicable to them, except for the following late filings for the following directors or executive officers: Charles H. May, II (one report covering one transaction); Augustus N. Stephas (one report covering two transactions); R. Stephen Tingle (one report covering one transaction); and Winston W. Walker (one report covering one transaction). The Company is not aware of any failure to file a required report by any of its Section 16(a) reporting persons.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The Company is a self-managed, self-administered, fully-integrated real estate company which is engaged in the ownership, marketing, management, leasing, expansion, development, redevelopment, acquisition and financing of regional malls, open air and community and neighborhood centers. The Company itself has no employees other than its statutory officers and its officers receive all of their compensation in their capacity as employees of the Management Company, which also employs all of the other personnel engaged in the operation of the Company's business.

The Compensation Committee determines all matters related to the compensation of all officers of the Company of the level of vice president or higher and administers the Company's Amended and Restated Stock Incentive Plan, as amended (the "Stock Incentive Plan"). The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the charter is available and can be accessed in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website cblproperties.com.

The factors, objectives and policies underlying each element of compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers are discussed below.

The Compensation Committee's objectives in administering the Company's executive compensation with respect to the Named Executive Officers are to ensure that pay levels and incentive compensation are (i) competitive in attracting and retaining the best personnel, (ii) properly linked to the Company's performance, and (iii) simple in design. To fulfill these objectives, the compensation approach for the Named Executive Officers includes three primary elements: base salary, discretionary bonuses and periodic grants of stock awards and stock options pursuant to the Stock Incentive Plan.

The base salary and discretionary cash bonus components of the compensation of the Named Executive Officers are designed to provide the Company's executives with immediate, tangible rewards commensurate with the Compensation Committee's evaluation of their contributions to the Company's current performance (including the successful completion of specific projects or the attainment of other specified objectives considered by the Compensation Committee in determining the amount of annual bonus payments to certain officers).

The Compensation Committee believes that one of the most effective means of both encouraging and rewarding the creation of long-term value for the Company's stockholders by senior executives (including the Named Executive Officers), as well as retaining superior management talent, is to use the Stock Incentive Plan to ensure that such individuals attain a significant proprietary interest in the Company. As detailed above under the heading Corporate Governance Matters Additional Policy Statements, the Company has adopted stock ownership guidelines for both non-employee directors and executive officers in its Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Compensation Committee, as well as the entire Board of Directors, believes that it is in the best interests of the Company's stockholders for those who manage and oversee the Company's operations to have a stake in the creation of long-term stockholder value. The time-vested stock option and stock award elements of compensation, coupled with the opportunity (as discussed below) offered to all of the Company's officers to receive amounts payable with respect to annual bonuses in unrestricted shares of Common Stock, are designed to work in conjunction with the stock ownership guidelines to encourage and create ownership and retention of the Company's stock by both directors and key employees (including the Named Executive Officers), thereby matching their interests to those of stockholders and allowing the opportunity for such individuals to build a meaningful ownership stake in the Company.

Additionally, the Company's four most senior executives—three of whom are Named Executive Officers Charles B. Lebovitz, John N. Foy and Stephen D. Lebovitz—have entered into agreements under the Stock Incentive Plan pursuant to which they receive all amounts representing annual increases over each of their base salaries since 1995 (net of the dollar amounts withheld for taxes) in the form of quarterly installments of the Company's unrestricted Common Stock rather than cash, with the number of shares issued in payment of each such installment determined based on the market price of the Common Stock at the end of each applicable pay period.

The Compensation Committee believes that these arrangements set a favorable tone for management decisions throughout the organization, in that they represent a significant commitment by the Company's top management team to align both their immediate and long-term financial interests with those of the Company's stockholders.

The processes followed by the Compensation Committee in establishing each of the three key elements of compensation for the Company's officers are discussed in more detail below. In making its annual determinations with regard to each of these three elements, the Compensation Committee considers the input of the Company's senior management with respect to each individual's performance during the current year, and particularly that of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Charles B. Lebovitz, who participates in an advisory capacity in the Compensation Committee's evaluation of the compensation of each of the Company's officers, including each of the Named Executive Officers (other than himself). As a key element in this process, each officer of the Company (including each of the Named Executive Officers) participates in an annual review of such officer's performance. Such annual reviews (other than the annual review of the Chief Executive Officer) are undertaken by one or more of the Chief Executive Officer and the President, generally accompanied by the immediate supervisor of the officer being evaluated. The annual review of Charles B. Lebovitz is undertaken by the Compensation Committee.

The Compensation Committee also considers such issues as historical levels of compensation for each officer, the relationship of the level of each officer's compensation to the overall compensation of the Company's officers and the performance of the Company's business for the year in question. The Compensation Committee does not, however, use a formulaic approach in considering any of these factors and the compensation paid to each officer. Compensation decisions are based primarily on the Compensation Committee's discretionary evaluation of each individual's annual performance in conjunction with the annual performance reviews discussed above, but with such factors also being considered.

Base Salaries The Compensation Committee establishes base salaries for the Named Executive Officers reflecting the Compensation Committee's consideration of a variety of factors, including each Named Executive Officer's level of responsibility, overall performance, experience and tenure with the Company, as well as the Compensation Committee's evaluation of the Company's overall performance. The Compensation Committee's determination of each Named Executive Officer's base salary also includes a review of base salaries for executives at a group of seven comparable publicly traded mall REITs whose compensation structures the Committee reviewed in making base salary decisions for 2006. The seven publicly traded mall REITs used for comparison were: General Growth Properties, Inc.; The Macerich Company; The Mills Corporation; Glimcher Realty Trust; Simon Property Group, Inc.; Taubman Centers, Inc. and Pennsylvania Real Estate Investment Trust. The Compensation Committee annually evaluates and approves adjustments to the base salaries of the Named Executive Officers, with such review and adjustments normally being undertaken during the fourth quarter to be effective for the following fiscal year.

Bonus Opportunities For 2006, the Compensation Committee also provided each of the Company's Named Executive Officers with the opportunity to earn bonuses designed to reward such persons for the achievement of objectives believed by the Compensation Committee to contribute significantly to the Company's overall performance and the creation of stockholder value. For most of the Company's officers, including Named Executive Officers John N. Foy, Stephen D. Lebovitz and Eric P. Snyder, in determining the potential bonus that each could earn, as well as the amount ultimately paid, the Compensation Committee considered the successful continuation and/or completion of development, financing, leasing and re-leasing, expansions, acquisitions and joint ventures with respect to the Company and its properties identified by the Compensation Committee as being within such executive's areas of responsibility. The maximum potential bonuses that the Compensation Committee provided that three of the Named Executive Officers could earn based on the consideration of such matters for fiscal 2006 were as follows: John N. Foy $725,000; Stephen D. Lebovitz $725,000; and Eric P. Snyder $325,000. While the actual amount of any bonus payout is normally determined by the Compensation Committee with reference to the successful continuation or completion of the projects or matters designated by the Compensation Committee for each officer (as well as the officer's continued employment with the Company), the Compensation Committee retains the discretion to increase, decrease or eliminate a bonus payment to any officer in accordance with its ultimate evaluation of such officer's performance during the year. For three of the Company's most senior executives, including Named Executive Officers Charles B. Lebovitz and Augustus N. Stephas, the Compensation Committee allocated up to $1,125,000 of funds to be available as bonuses that could be earned by such officers for 2006, consisting of specified maximum bonuses that could be earned by these two Named Executive Officers totaling $975,000 plus the opportunity to share (together with one other senior executive officer) in an unallocated discretionary bonus pool of up to $150,000. The potential bonus payouts set by the Compensation Committee for Charles B. Lebovitz and Augustus N. Stephas pursuant to this allocation were as follows: Charles B. Lebovitz - $725,000 plus any additional participation in the unallocated $150,000 pool, and Augustus N. Stephas - $250,000 plus any additional participation in the unallocated $150,000 pool. The actual bonus payments to these two Named Executive Officers, including the amount (if any) to be paid out of the $150,000 unallocated pool, were determined during the fourth quarter of 2006 by the Compensation Committee, based upon its evaluation of such officer's performance and contributions to the Company's overall performance during the year without consideration of specifically designated projects. As an additional means of encouraging equity ownership in the Company, the Compensation Committee allows each officer who receives a bonus (including the Named Executive Officers) the choice of whether to have the bonus paid in cash or in unrestricted shares of the Company's Common Stock issued under the Stock Incentive Plan. The number of shares issued for any bonus that an officer elects to receive in Common Stock is determined based on the market value of the Common Stock on the date when such bonus becomes payable.

Restricted Stock Awards The third principal element of the compensation of the Company's officers (including the Named Executive Officers) for 2006 was awards of shares of restricted stock under the Company's Stock Incentive Plan. Restricted stock awards to both officer and non-officer employees typically are made annually in May, in conjunction with the Company's annual meeting of stockholders, and generally vest in five equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the grant. The Compensation Committee's objective in making restricted stock awards to the Company's officers (including the Named Executive Officers) is to increase the alignment of their economic interests with the interests of the Company's stockholders, thereby supplementing the incentives provided by annual bonuses with additional incentives for the officers (including the Named Executive Officers) to manage the Company with a view towards maximizing long-term stockholder value. The number of shares granted annually to officers, including the Named Executive Officers, is based on the Compensation Committee's consideration of each officer's level of responsibility, experience and tenure with the Company and the Committee's evaluation of each officer's performance during the preceding year. In determining the total amount of restricted stock to be granted annually, including awards to Company officers, the Compensation Committee also considers such factors as the number of shares available for issuance under the Stock Incentive Plan, potential dilution and the Company's overall performance during the preceding year.

Section 162(m) Issues. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) imposes a $1,000,000 ceiling on a publicly traded company's federal income tax deduction for compensation paid in a taxable year to an individual who, on the last day of the taxable year, was (i) the chief executive officer or (ii) among the four other most highly compensated executive officers whose compensation is reported in the Summary Compensation Table in such company's proxy statement. The limitation does not apply to any compensation that satisfies the certain specific and detailed requirements to be treated as qualified performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) and its associated regulations.

The Compensation Committee has reviewed the potential impacts of Section 162(m) on the anticipated tax treatment to the Company and its officers (including the Named Executive Officers) in its review and establishment of compensation programs and payments. While the Compensation Committee generally seeks to preserve the Company's ability to claim any applicable tax deductions for compensation paid to executives to the greatest extent practicable, the Compensation Committee also believes that stockholder interests are best served by having the Committee retain the discretion and flexibility to structure certain elements of the Company's incentive compensation programs based on considerations other than the full deductibility of compensation.

Summary Compensation Table

Pursuant to SEC rules, the amounts shown exclude the impact of estimated forfeitures related to service-based vesting conditions. For grants of both restricted and unrestricted shares of Common Stock, fair value is calculated using the average of the high and low sales prices for the Company's Common Stock on the NYSE on the date of grant (which, in the case of shares issued in lieu of salary or bonus compensation, is the date on which such amounts otherwise become payable, notwithstanding the fact that such shares are not actually issued until a later date). - (5) Represents an award of fully vested, unrestricted shares issued to Mr. Snyder under the Stock Incentive Plan as a gross-up for dividends that would have been accrued on shares issued January 3, 2006 in payment of a bonus earned for fiscal 2005 performance, pursuant to each officer's option to elect whether to have his or her bonus paid in cash or in shares of the Company's Common Stock, as described below.

Additional Information Concerning Compensation Reported Above

The following discussion presents additional information relevant to the compensation reported above for each of the Named Executive Officers in the Summary Compensation Table and the 2006 Grants of Plan-Based Awards Table.

Quarterly Deferred Compensation Arrangements for Three Named Executive Officers

As described in the footnotes to the two preceding tables, each of Charles B. Lebovitz, John N. Foy and Stephen D. Lebovitz are parties to agreements entered into under the Stock Incentive Plan, dated as of January 1, 2004, pursuant to which the amounts representing annual increases over each of such officers' base salaries since 1995 (net of the dollar amounts withheld for taxes) are paid in quarterly installments (generally on the last business day of each quarter) in the form of the Company's Common Stock rather than cash, with the number of shares issued in payment of each such quarterly installment determined based on the average of the high and low trading prices reported for the Company's Common Stock on the NYSE as of the month-end dates on which each of the three installments of deferred compensation became payable during the applicable quarterly period.

Bonus Arrangements for Named Executive Officers

The terms of the bonus arrangements for the Named Executive Officers for fiscal 2006 are described above in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section. Each officer who received a bonus had the option of electing whether to have his or her bonus paid in cash or in shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to the terms of the Stock Incentive Plan. The number of shares issued with respect to any bonus that an officer elects to receive in Common Stock is determined based on the market value of the Common Stock on the date when such bonus becomes payable. John N. Foy was awarded 15,737 fully vested, unrestricted shares of Common Stock in January 2007 after making such elections with respect to his bonus compensation payable for fiscal year 2006 performance.

Terms of Restricted Stock Grants to Named Executive Officers

The terms of each award of restricted shares of Common Stock granted to the Named Executive Officers during 2006 provide that the recipient of the award generally has all of the rights of a stockholder during the vesting/restricted period, including the right to receive dividends on the same basis and at the same rate as all other outstanding shares of Common Stock and the right to vote such shares on any matter on which holders of the Company's Common Stock are entitled to vote. Each such award of restricted stock was made in May 2006 in conjunction with the annual meeting of stockholders, and the restrictions expire with respect to 20% of the shares granted to each Named Executive Officer annually beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. The shares generally are not transferable during the restricted period, except for any transfers which may be required by law (such as pursuant to a domestic relations order). If the Named Executive Officer's employment terminates during the restricted period for any reason other than death, disability, or retirement after reaching age 70 with at least 10 years of continuous service, any non-vested portion of the restricted stock award is immediately forfeited by such officer. If employment terminates during the restricted period due to death or disability (as defined in the award), or due to the officer having retired after reaching age 70 and having maintained at least 10 years of continuous employment with the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, any portion of the restricted stock award that is not vested as of such date shall immediately become fully vested in the officer or his estate, as applicable. The terms of the restricted stock awards to the Named Executive Officers are substantially identical (except as to the number of shares subject to each such award) to the terms of all other annual restricted stock awards granted under the Stock Incentive Plan in May 2006 to employees of the Company.

Non-Competition Arrangements

Pursuant to agreements entered into at the time of the Company's initial public offering in November 1993, each of Charles B. Lebovitz, John N. Foy and Stephen D. Lebovitz has agreed to refrain from competing with the Company until two years from the date of termination of his employment. Prohibited competition includes any participation in the development, improvement or construction of any shopping center project, acquiring any interest in a shopping center project or acquiring vacant land for development as a shopping center project. Charles B.

Lebovitz, John N. Foy and Stephen D. Lebovitz are, however, permitted to hold certain investments which they owned prior to completion of the Company's initial public offering in November 1993.

(1) The Company has not granted any stock options since 2002. All option awards reflected in the table vest in 20% increments on each of the first through fifth anniversaries of their date of grant and expire on the tenth anniversary of their date of grant; accordingly, each of the remaining unexercisable installments reflected in the table will vest in full on May 7, 2007. Both the number of shares subject to each such option and the option exercise price have been adjusted to reflect the 6/15/05 Stock Split.

- (2) Except as otherwise noted, all of these shares were issued as part of the Company's annual restricted stock grants to officers and other key employees in May of each year. Shares issued pursuant to each such annual restricted stock grant vest in 20% increments on each of the first through fifth anniversaries of their date of grant. Market value shown for all unvested shares of restricted stock is based on the closing price for the Company's Common Stock on the NYSE on the last trading day of fiscal 2006 (December 29) of $43.35 per share.

- (1) For option exercises by each Named Executive Officer during 2006, amounts shown represent the aggregate sum of the difference between the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the NYSE on the date that each option was exercised and the option exercise price, times the number of shares underlying the exercised options. For vesting of restricted stock awards, amounts shown are based on the closing market price for the Company's Common Stock on the NYSE on the respective dates when each installment vests. In each case, the officer either (A) may elect to sell all (or some portion) of the underlying shares immediately following the option exercise or the vesting date or (B) may elect to hold all (or some portion) of the underlying shares indefinitely or for sale at a later date. Accordingly, such amounts do not correspond to the actual value that will be realized by each Named Executive Officer pursuant to stock option exercises or the vesting of restricted stock during the year.
- (2) Includes 2,900 immediately vested shares (valued at $119,880) which Charles B. Lebovitz received in payment of quarterly salary deferrals, as discussed above, and 5,280 shares (valued at $209,354) received pursuant to restricted stock awards which vested during fiscal 2006.
- (3) Includes 22,628 immediately vested shares (valued at $947,126) which Mr. Foy received in payment of quarterly salary deferrals and a fiscal year 2005 bonus that Mr. Foy elected to receive in stock in January 2006, and 5,280 shares (valued at $209,354) received pursuant to restricted stock awards which vested during fiscal 2006.
- (4) Includes 4,870 immediately vested shares (valued at $201,304) which Stephen D. Lebovitz received in payment of quarterly salary deferrals, as discussed above, and 10,360 shares (valued at $414,152) received pursuant to restricted stock awards which vested during fiscal 2006.

Edgar Filing: CBL & ASSOCIATES PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

- (5) Includes 8,222 immediately vested shares (valued at $335,186) which Mr. Snyder received in payment of a fiscal year 2005 bonus that Mr. Snyder elected to receive in stock in January 2006, and 1,520 shares (valued at $60,196) received pursuant to restricted stock awards which vested during fiscal 2006.
- (6) Includes 1,520 shares (valued at $60,196) received pursuant to restricted stock awards which vested during fiscal 2006.

Potential Payments Upon Termination

Except for the noncompetition arrangements described above, the Named Executive Officers do not have any employment, severance or change of control agreements with the Company. Accordingly, except for certain impacts on outstanding equity awards as described below, such officers will not receive compensation in connection with any termination of employment due to death, disability, retirement or any other reason, except for such benefits as are available generally to all salaried employees under the Company's 401(k) Plan, insurance and other benefits programs.

Impact of Death, Disability or Retirement on Outstanding Awards Under the Stock Incentive Plan

All of the outstanding options granted to the Named Executive Officers under the Stock Incentive Plan provide that if the grantee's employment terminates by reason of death, the option may be exercised by the grantee's estate or representative for up to one year thereafter, but only to the extent that it was vested/exercisable on the date of death. In the case of a termination of employment due to disability or retirement, such options provide that they generally may be exercised by the grantee or the grantee's representative for up to three years following such event, but only to the extent that they were vested/exercisable on the date of termination.

Outstanding restricted stock awards made to the Named Executive Officers prior to 2004 under the Stock Incentive Plan generally provide that all unvested shares are immediately forfeited if the grantee's employment terminates for any reason, including death, disability or retirement. The only exception to this is one award of 21,780 shares of restricted stock made to Stephen D. Lebovitz on October 28, 2002, which vests on the fifth anniversary of the date of grant (October 28, 2007), and provides that it would immediately vest prior to that time if the grantee's employment should terminate due to death, disability or termination by the Company without cause (as defined to include dishonesty, gross neglect of duties or persistent failure to abide by Company policies). Restricted stock awards made to the Named Executive Officers in 2004 and subsequent years, however, provide that if the grantee's employment terminates by reason of death or disability, any portion of the award that is not vested on the date of such termination shall immediately vest in the grantee or the grantee's estate.

Disability for these purposes generally means the employee's complete and permanent disability as defined by the Company's health insurance plans or as otherwise defined by the Company from time to time.

Beginning with the 2006 annual restricted stock grants, the Company has added a provision which states that, if the grantee's employment terminates due to retirement after reaching age 70 and having maintained at least 10 years of continuous employment with the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, any portion of the award that is not vested as of such date shall immediately vest in the grantee.

Based on the foregoing, the following table summarizes the intrinsic value (that is, the value based on the Company's stock price, and in the case of options, the Company's stock price minus the exercise price) of all equity awards that each of the Named Executive Officers would have been entitled to retain if he had retired, died or become disabled, assuming that such event occurred as of December 31, 2006 (and using the NYSE closing price of $43.35 per share on December 29, 2006, the last trading day of the year):

Name	Termination Due to Retirement		Termination Due to Death/Disability
	Restricted		Restricted
	Options	Stock Grants	Options	Stock Grants
Charles B. Lebovitz	$4,528,498	$650,250 (1)	$4,528,498	$1,427,082
John N. Foy	5,643,696		5,643,696	1,427,082
Stephen D. Lebovitz	6,144,544		6,144,544	2,371,245
Eric P. Snyder				315,588
Augustus N. Stephas	361,188		361,188	315,588

- (1) Since Charles B. Lebovitz is the only Named Executive Officer to have attained age 70 with 10 years of continuous employment with the Company as of December 31, 2006, no other Named Executive Officer would have retained any unvested shares of restricted stock if he had retired as of such date.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

The following table sets forth information regarding the compensation of each director not employed by the Company (a Non-Employee Director) for the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. Directors who are employees of the Company do not receive any separate compensation for service in their capacity as a director.

Winston W. Walker	68,000	20,065		88,065

- (1) This column reports the aggregate amount of all cash compensation paid to each Non-Employee Director during 2006 for Board and committee service, determined as described below under Additional Information Concerning Director Compensation.
- (2) This column represents the dollar amount of compensation expense recognized for financial statement reporting purposes with respect to fiscal 2006 for the fair value of all stock awards granted to the Non-Employee Directors under the Stock Incentive Plan in 2006 as well as in prior fiscal years, calculated in accordance with SFAS 123(R). The fair value of these restricted stock grants is calculated using the high low average price for the Company's Common Stock on the NYSE on the date of grant. For additional information, refer to Note 18 Share Based Compensation in the Company's audited financial statements contained in the Annual Report to Shareholders that accompanies this proxy statement and in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 filed with the SEC. Amounts shown reflect the Company's accounting expense for these awards, and do not correspond to the actual value that will be realized by each Non-Employee Director.

- (3) During 2006, each Non-Employee Director was granted 500 shares of restricted Common Stock under the Stock Incentive Plan, having a grant date fair value of $40.13 per share, which was the average of the high and low trading prices of the Company's Common Stock as reported on the NYSE on January 3, 2006. The aggregate number of the outstanding shares of restricted Common Stock held by each Non-Employee Director as of December 31, 2006 was as follows: Claude M. Ballard 2,200 shares; Gary L. Bryenton 2,200 shares; Martin J. Cleary 2,200 shares; Matthew S. Dominski 1,500 shares; Leo Fields 2,200 shares; and Winston W. Walker 2,200 shares.
- (4) The Company did not grant any stock options during 2006. The Company did not record any compensation expense in fiscal 2006 related to stock options granted to directors in prior years because all of such options were fully vested on the date of grant and, accordingly, all related compensation expense was recognized at that time.
- (5) The aggregate number of the shares of Common Stock subject to outstanding options held by each Non-Employee Director as of December 31, 2006 was as follows: Claude M. Ballard 7,000 shares; Gary L. Bryenton 2,000 shares; Martin J. Cleary 2,000 shares; Matthew S. Dominski none; Leo Fields none; and Winston W. Walker none.

Additional Information Concerning Director Compensation

During 2006, each Non-Employee Director received from the Company an annual fee of $27,500. In addition to the annual fee, each Non-Employee Director received a meeting fee of $1,500 for each Board, Compensation Committee and Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee meeting attended and $750 for each telephonic Board meeting attended and reimbursement of expenses incurred in attending meetings. In addition, but with the exception of Mr. Walker, the Chairman of the Audit Committee, each Non-Employee Director received from the Company a fee of $1,500 for each Audit Committee meeting attended. Each Non-Employee Director serving as a member of the Executive Committee received from the Company a monthly fee of $750 in lieu of meeting fees for participation on the Executive Committee in 2006. Mr. Walker, who served as Chairman of the Audit Committee, received a monthly fee of $2,000, in lieu of meeting fees for participation on the Audit Committee in 2006.

For each fiscal year of the Company, the Company's Stock Incentive Plan provides that each Non-Employee Director is entitled to receive either (i) an annual grant of options to purchase up to a maximum of 1,000 shares of Common Stock having an exercise price equal to 100% of the fair market value of the shares of Common Stock on December 31 of such fiscal year or (ii) an annual grant of up to a maximum of 1,000 shares of restricted Common Stock of the Company. For 2006, each Non-Employee Director received 500 shares of restricted Common Stock of the Company with a value (on the date of grant, January 3, 2007) of $42.975 per share, the average of the high and low trading prices of the Company's Common Stock as reported on the NYSE on January 3, 2007. The restrictions on shares of Common Stock received by the Non-Employee Directors are set forth in the Stock Incentive Plan and provide that such shares may not be transferred during the Non-Employee Director's term and for one year thereafter. Each holder of a Non-Employee Director option granted pursuant to the above-stated arrangement has the same rights as other holders of options in the event of a change in control. Options granted to the Non-Employee Directors (A) shall have a term of 10 years from date of grant, (B) are 100% vested upon grant, (C) are non-forfeitable prior to the expiration of the term except upon the Non-Employee Director's conviction for any criminal activity involving the Company or, if non-exercised, within one year following the date the Non-Employee Director ceases to be a director of the Company, and (D) are non-transferable. In addition, any person who becomes a Non-Employee Director will receive an initial grant of 1,000 shares of restricted Common Stock upon joining the Board of Directors.

Equity Compensation Plan Information as of December 31, 2006

The following table sets forth information as to the Company's equity compensation plans as of the end of the Company's 2006 fiscal year:

Plan Category	Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of the outstanding options, warrants and rights	Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights	Number of securities remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding securities reflected in column (a))
Equity compensation plans approved by security holders	1,502,720	$14.40 (1)	1,526,389
Equity compensation plans not approved by security holders	None	N/A	N/A

- (1) The weighted average calculation does not reflect 47,813 shares reserved for issuance under deferred compensation arrangements as of December 31, 2006. The Company's Stock Incentive Plan permits the Compensation Committee to enter into deferred compensation arrangements designed to provide a deferral of taxable income to participants, which may be funded or unfunded and may provide for future payments to participants in the form of Common Stock or cash. As used by the Compensation Committee, these deferred compensation arrangements typically allow the executive/employee to elect to defer a portion of his/her salary or bonuses into the arrangement on an unfunded and unsecured basis. For deferred compensation arrangements payable in Common Stock, the amount of salary or bonus deferred is then deemed to be converted to shares of the Company's Common Stock based on the closing price of the Common Stock on the date of the deferral. The number of such shares is then further deemed to increase as dividends are paid on the Common Stock as if such dividends had been utilized via the Company's Dividend Reinvestment Plan to acquire additional shares of Common Stock at the price provided through the Company's Dividend Reinvestment Plan. The arrangements generally provide that on the earlier of (i) a date certain as specified in each deferred compensation arrangement or (ii) the death, disability or termination of employment of the executive/employee or (iii) the merger, consolidation or sale of the Company, the executive/employee will then be entitled to receive the stated amount of cash or, for deferred compensation arrangements payable in Common Stock, that number of shares of Common Stock deemed set aside on the date of the deferral together with additional shares of Common Stock deemed acquired through the Company's Dividend Reinvestment Plan through the date of the payout.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company is composed of four Independent Directors (Winston W. Walker, Chairman, Claude M. Ballard, Gary L. Bryenton and Matthew S. Dominski) and operates under an amended and restated written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 3, 2004. A copy of the amended and restated charter is available and can be accessed in the Investing Corporate Governance section of the Company's website cblproperties.com. The Company's Board of Directors has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee is independent pursuant to the listing standards of the NYSE as currently applicable.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and for issuing a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with Management and the Company's independent auditors. Management reported to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements for the Company's 2006 fiscal year were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed these consolidated financial statements with Management and the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as amended.

The Company's independent auditors also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors their firm's independence. The Audit Committee considered whether the provision of services by the independent auditors (other than audit services) is compatible with maintaining the independent auditors' independence.

Pursuant to the mandates of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Company's Board of Directors has determined that Winston W. Walker, an Independent Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee, qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as such term is defined by the SEC.

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the Company's audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, filed with the SEC and provide in such Annual Report on Form 10-K the disclosure of Winston W. Walker as an audit committee financial expert.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PERSON TRANSACTIONS

Review and Approval of Related Person Transactions

The Company's Bylaws provide that any contract or transaction (i) between the Company or the Operating Partnership and one or more directors or officers of the Company or (ii) between the Company or the Operating Partnership and any other entity in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, must be approved by a majority of the Independent Directors (excluding any director who has an interest in the matter) or by the Company's stockholders, after the material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to them. The application of these provisions to the review and approval of those transactions and relationships reported for fiscal 2006 is described in pertinent detail below.

Management Company and Management Agreement

The Company is party to a management agreement with the Management Company pursuant to which the Management Company renders management and administrative services with respect to the Company's properties. The Management Company also provides management services for certain properties owned by CBL's Predecessor and certain other third parties for which the Management Company is paid a management fee. See Retained Property Interests. The Operating Partnership owns 100% of both of the Management Company's preferred stock and its common stock.

Operating Partnership Agreement; CBL Rights

The Company, through subsidiaries, serves as the sole general partner of the Operating Partnership and owned, as of March 12, 2007, 65,605,028 common partnership units, representing a 1.615% interest as the sole general partner and a 54.811% interest as a limited partner for an aggregate 56.426% interest in the Operating Partnership. As of March 12, 2007, CBL's Predecessor owned 14,678,230 common partnership units, representing a 12.625% limited partner interest in the Operating Partnership and CBL's Predecessor also owned 2,985,678 shares of the Company's Common Stock, for a combined total interest of 15.192% in the Operating Partnership. Certain executive and senior officers also own common partnership units.

Pursuant to the Operating Partnership Agreement, the limited partners possess CBL Rights, consisting of the rights to exchange all or a portion of their common units or special common units (as applicable) in the Operating Partnership for shares of Common Stock or their cash equivalent, at the Company's election. The CBL Rights may be exercised at any time and from time to time to the extent that, upon exercise of the CBL Rights, the exercising party shall not beneficially or constructively own shares of Common Stock in excess of the applicable share ownership limits set forth in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation. The Company, however, may not pay in shares of Common Stock to the extent that this would result in a limited partner beneficially or constructively owning in the aggregate more than its applicable ownership limit or otherwise jeopardize, in the opinion of counsel to the Company, the Company's qualification as a REIT for tax purposes.

The number of shares of Common Stock received by the limited partners of the Operating Partnership upon exercise of CBL Rights will be based upon the equivalent number of partnership units owned by the limited partners on a one-for-one basis and the amount of cash received by the limited partners upon such exercise, if the Company elects to pay cash, will be based upon the trading price of the shares of Common Stock at the time of exercise.

CBL Rights will expire in November 2043 if not exercised prior to that date.

Retained Property Interests

CBL's Predecessor owns interests in outparcels at certain of the Company's malls and a 22.5% minority interest in Mall of the Avenues Limited Partnership, the majority interest of which is owned by third parties. The properties retained by CBL's Predecessor are managed and leased by the Management Company, which receives a fee for its services pursuant to property management agreements that were already in place prior to the Company's initial public offering in November 1993. Accordingly, these agreements were not subject to review under the procedures prescribed in the Company's Bylaws since they predate the adoption of the Bylaws, and their existence was disclosed in the Company's initial public offering prospectus and has been continually disclosed to investors in the Company's periodic reports filed with the SEC since that time. During fiscal year 2006, CBL's Predecessor paid the Management Company approximately $268,000 under such arrangements. The following individuals, collectively, own 100% of the equity interests in CBL's Predecessor: Charles B. Lebovitz (Chairman and CEO of the Company); the four children of Charles B. Lebovitz (Stephen D. Lebovitz (President and Secretary of the Company); Michael I. Lebovitz (Senior Vice President - Chief Development Officer of the Company); Alan L. Lebovitz (Vice President - Asset Management of the Company); and Beth Lebovitz-Backer); John N. Foy (Vice Chairman of the Board and Chief Financial Officer of the Company); and Ben S. Landress (Executive Vice President - Management of the Company).

These property management arrangements are expected to continue on substantially similar terms, with management fees paid on the same basis, during fiscal year 2007.

Affiliated Entities

Certain executive officers of the Company and two members of the immediate family of Charles B. Lebovitz collectively have a significant but non-controlling interest in EMJ Corporation, a major national construction company that built substantially all of the properties developed by the Company and is currently building 22 of the Company's projects under construction, including renovations and expansions. Such interests, which collectively aggregate to 46.28% of the total equity interests in the construction company, are held by the following individuals: Charles B. Lebovitz (Chairman and CEO of the Company); the four children of Charles B. Lebovitz (Stephen D. Lebovitz (President and Secretary of the Company); Michael I. Lebovitz (Senior Vice President - Chief Development Officer of the Company); Alan L. Lebovitz (Vice President - Asset Management of the Company); and Beth Lebovitz-Backer); John N. Foy (Vice Chairman of the Board and Chief Financial Officer of the Company); and Ben S. Landress (Executive Vice President - Management of the Company). Charles B. Lebovitz is also a director of this construction company and receives substantial director fees in such capacity. The majority interest in the construction company is held by members of the construction company's senior management and a majority of the construction company's directors are members of its senior management, none of whom are affiliated (as shareholders or directors) with CBL's Predecessor or the Company.

As of December 31, 2006, the Company had 32 active contracts (including contracts with respect to each of the construction properties) with such construction company having an aggregate value of approximately $305.9 million (the portion of such amount that is the Company's obligation is $297.8 million and the balance is the obligation of third party partners). During fiscal year 2006, the Company and its third party partners paid an aggregate of approximately $218.6 million to this construction company (the portion of such amount that was paid by the Company was $215.0 million and the balance was paid by third party partners). Gross revenues to the construction company from its contracts with the Company in 2006 represented less than one-third of the 2006 aggregate gross revenues of the construction company.

The Company's Audit Committee reviews the relationship between the Company and the referenced construction company pursuant to procedures approved by the Independent Directors in accordance with the Bylaws upon their establishment in November 1994. These procedures include an ongoing review by the Company's independent auditors of a cross section of the Company's contracts with the referenced construction company for, among other things, the provisions for allocation of cost savings between owner and contractor.

Edgar Filing: CBL & ASSOCIATES PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

The construction company also leases 20,637 square feet of office space at the Company's office building in Chattanooga, Tennessee. This lease was approved at the time that it was entered into by the Independent Directors in accordance with the Bylaws. In connection with such approval, the Independent Directors considered management's opinion that, at the time such lease was entered into, it provided for rental payments at market rates and terms. The aggregate of all payments made (or to be made) by the construction company to the Company from January 1, 2006 through the end of the contract term of such lease is $3,622,000, with such payments during fiscal 2006 having totaled $609,000. The construction company also is currently engaged in negotiations with the Company regarding the terms of a new lease agreement to be entered into with respect to office space (which will replace the office space subject to the current arrangement) in a new office building that is under construction adjacent to the Company's existing office building. Once finalized, the terms of the new lease also will be subject to approval by the Company's Independent Directors in accordance with the Bylaws.

100 SC Partners, a limited partnership that owns two aircraft and a fractional interest in another aircraft used by the personnel of the Company and the construction company, is beneficially owned as follows: 560, Inc., which holds a 1% interest as the sole general partner of the partnership, is wholly owned by Charles B. Lebovitz; CBL's Predecessor holds a 98% limited partner interest and the construction company owns a 1% limited partner interest. Each partner contributes equally to fixed costs and shares variable costs through an hourly charge based on usage. The Company reimburses the partnership for costs on an hourly basis associated with use of the aircraft relating to the business of the Company. During fiscal year 2006, the Company paid approximately $2.8 million as reimbursement for operating expenses pursuant to such arrangement, with the amount of such reimbursement being previously approved by the Company's Independent Directors in accordance with the Bylaws. As described above, certain individuals who are deemed to be related persons with respect to the Company in accordance with applicable SEC rules collectively own 100% of CBL's Predecessor and own 46.28% of the equity interests in the construction company.

Certain Retail Leases

Certain officers and certain Company employees are partners in partnerships that lease 32 spaces representing approximately 30,000 square feet in 24 of the Company's malls as tenants. Such spaces are operated as food service and entertainment establishments. The aggregate of all payments made (or to be made) by such entities to the Company from January 1, 2006 through the end of the contract term of each of the relevant leases is $13,799,000, with such payments during fiscal 2006 having totaled $2,490,792. The following table sets forth information concerning the interest of each of the Company's executive officers who participates in any these partnerships, to the extent that the value of such officer's pro-rata interest the aggregate lease payments described above exceeds $120,000:

Certain Employment Relationships

Edgar Filing: CBL & ASSOCIATES PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Michael I. Lebovitz and Alan L. Lebovitz, sons of Charles B. Lebovitz, are employed by the Company as Senior Vice President - Chief Development Officer and Vice President - Asset Management, respectively. Each receives compensation from the Company commensurate with his level of experience and other Company employees having similar responsibilities, and based upon an annual review of his individual performance conducted in the same manner described above for all Company officers. During 2006, the aggregate compensation paid by the Company to these individuals (including both cash compensation and the amount of compensation expense recognized by the Company pursuant to SFAS 123(R) with respect to outstanding stock and option awards) was as follows: Michael I. Lebovitz - $721,463 and Alan L. Lebovitz - $490,220.
