On June 16, 2010 LabCorp acquired certain assets of Westcliff Medical Laboratories and related entities ("Westcliff"), which operate a clinical laboratory testing business in the State of California, pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement dated May 17,2010 and an Order of the Bankruptcy Court administering the bankruptcy of Westcliff. The Company was notified by the Federal Trade Commission that the FTC intended to review the acquisition and on June 24, 2010, the Company entered into an agreement with the FTC to hold the Westcliff business as an independent laboratory, separate and apart from LabCorp while the FTC conducts its review of the transaction. LabCorp is working with the FTC to complete the review as quickly as possible but the Company is presently unable to determine the time frame for conclusion of the FTC's review.
