Edgar Filing: SOUTHERN CO - Form 8-K

In June 2004, Mirant's bankruptcy counsel notified Southern Company that it was investigating, on behalf of a committee of independent Mirant directors, potential claims against Southern Company. Southern Company produced documents in response to related informal requests by Mirant's bankruptcy counsel and has cooperated in the investigation. On March 25, 2005, Mirant filed with the Bankruptcy Court a First Amended Disclosure Statement relating to Mirant's plan of reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. In the First Amended Disclosure Statement, Mirant disclosed that its board of directors has authorized litigation against Southern Company to recover certain transfers made by Mirant to Southern Company from 1999 through 2001. The transfers disclosed by Mirant include (1) certain dividends in an aggregate amount of $668 million, (2) the repayment of certain intercompany loans and accrued interest thereon in an aggregate amount of $1.035 billion, and (3) the dividend distribution of one share of Series B Preferred Stock and its subsequent redemption in exchange for Mirant's 80% interest in a holding company which owned SE Finance Capital Corporation and Southern Company Capital Funding, Inc., which transfer Mirant asserts is valued at $242 million. Other than identifying these transfers, the First Amended Disclosure Statement provided no factual or legal basis for any claim against Southern Company. Southern Company believes there is no meritorious basis for a claim and intends to vigorously defend itself in the event Mirant brings an action to recover any amounts in connection with these transfers. The ultimate outcome of any potential action by Mirant cannot be determined at this time.
