Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

On August 16, 2012, State Street Corporation received a notice required by Section 101(i)(2)(E) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 regarding the commencement of a temporary blackout period, described below, resulting from the transition of recordkeeping services for State Street's Salary Savings Plan. Due to this transition, participants in the plan will be temporarily unable to direct or diversify investments in individual accounts in, or obtain a loan, withdrawal or distribution from, the plan during the temporary blackout period that is scheduled to begin at 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on September 21, 2012, and is expected to end during the week of October 7, 2012.

Pursuant to Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, on August 16, 2012, State Street sent a blackout trading restriction notice to its directors and executive officers informing them that, during the temporary blackout period described above, all of State Street's directors and executive officers will be unable to, directly or indirectly, purchase, sell or otherwise acquire or transfer any shares of State Street's common stock (including any stock options or derivative securities) if those securities were acquired in connection with employment or service as a director or executive officer of State Street.

A copy of the blackout trading restriction notice, also referred to as a BTR Notice, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. Any inquiries regarding the temporary blackout period may be directed to State Street's Global Human Resources Service Center at +1 855 447 7007, or by emailing ghrservicectr@statestreet.com.

Item 99.1. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
