Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 – Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On October 28, 2018, Denbury Resources Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Penn Virginia Corporation, a Virginia corporation (“Penn Virginia”), Dragon Merger Sub Inc., a Virginia corporation and DR Sub LLC, a Virginia limited liability company (“DR Sub”) and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (“Merger Sub”), pursuant to which Merger Sub shall be merged with and into Penn Virginia (the “Merger”) and the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease, and Penn Virginia shall continue as the surviving entity in the Merger (the “Surviving Corporation”) as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Immediately upon the effectiveness of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), the Surviving Corporation shall be merged with and into DR Sub and the separate corporate existence of the Surviving Corporation shall cease, and DR Sub shall continue as the surviving entity.

On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, upon the Effective Time, each share of Penn Virginia common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Penn Virginia Common Stock”), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than as described in the Merger Agreement) shall be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder of such share of Penn Virginia Common Stock, either, (i) $25.86 in cash without interest and 12.4 shares of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share (“Denbury Common Stock”), (ii) $79.80 in cash without interest (the “Cash Election”), or (iii) 18.3454 shares of Denbury Common Stock (the “Stock Election”). The Cash and Stock Elections will be subject to proration to ensure that the total amount of cash paid to holders of Penn Virginia Common Stock is equal to $400 million.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of the Company and Penn Virginia relating to their respective businesses, financial statements and public filings, in each case generally subject to customary materiality qualifiers. Additionally, the Merger Agreement provides for customary pre-closing covenants of the Company and Penn Virginia, including covenants relating to conducting their respective businesses in the ordinary course and to refrain from taking certain actions without the other party’s consent. The Merger Agreement also contains covenants of Penn Virginia not to solicit proposals relating to alternative transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning or provide information in connection with alternative transactions and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its shareholders approve the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement also contains covenants of the Company not to solicit proposals relating to alternative transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning or provide information in connection with alternative transactions and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its stockholders approve (i) the issuance of Denbury Common Stock in connection with the Merger (the “Stock Issuance”) and (ii) an amendment to the Company’s Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of shares of Denbury Common Stock the Company is authorized to issue (the “Charter Amendment”).

The completion of the Merger is subject to certain customary mutual conditions, including (i) approval of the Merger Agreement by the holders of Penn Virginia Common Stock by the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds (2/3) of all votes entitled to be cast at a meeting of Penn Virginia’s shareholders, (ii) (A) approval of the Stock Issuance by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of Denbury Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at a meeting of the Company’s stockholders and (B) approval of the Charter Amendment by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Denbury Common Stock entitled to vote thereon, (iii) the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, (iv) the absence of any governmental order or law that prevents, makes illegal or prohibits the consummation of the Merger, (v) the Company’s registration statement on Form S-4 having been declared effective by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), (vi) the Denbury Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger having been authorized for listing on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”), upon official notice of issuance, and (vii) the receipt by each party of a customary opinion that the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the U.S. tax code. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon the other party's representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality exceptions) and the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

Prior to, but not after, the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Penn Virginia's shareholders, the board of directors of Penn Virginia (the "Penn Virginia Board") may withdraw, modify or qualify its recommendation that Penn Virginia's shareholders approve the Merger Agreement (a "Penn Virginia Adverse Recommendation Change") as result of a "Superior Company Proposal" or a "Company Intervening Event" (each as is defined in the Merger Agreement as pertaining to Penn Virginia), if, among other things, the Penn Virginia Board determines in good faith that the failure to make such a change of recommendation would be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties owed by the Penn Virginia Board to Penn Virginia's shareholders under applicable law, subject to complying with certain notice and other specified conditions, including giving the Company the opportunity to propose revisions to the Merger Agreement during a match right period and the payment of a termination fee in connection with a termination by the Company pursuant to its right to terminate the Merger Agreement in the event of a Penn Virginia Adverse Recommendation Change.

Prior to, but not after, the approval of the Stock Issuance and the Charter Amendment by the Company's stockholders, the board of directors of the Company (the "Company Board") may withdraw, modify or qualify its recommendation that the Company's stockholders approve the Stock Issuance and the Charter Amendment (a "Parent Adverse Recommendation Change") as result of a "Superior Parent Proposal" or a "Parent Intervening Event" (each as is defined in the Merger Agreement), if, among other things, the Company Board determines in good faith that the failure to make such a change of recommendation would be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties owed by the Company Board to the Company's stockholders under applicable law, subject to complying with certain notice and other specified conditions, including giving Penn Virginia the opportunity to propose revisions to the terms of the Merger Agreement during a match right period and the payment of a termination fee in connection with a termination by Penn Virginia pursuant to its right to terminate the Merger Agreement in the event of a Parent Adverse Recommendation Change.

The Merger Agreement contains termination rights for each of the Company and Penn Virginia, including, among others, if the consummation of the Merger does not occur on or before April 30, 2019. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including, generally, the termination by the Company in the event of a Penn Virginia Adverse Recommendation Change or the termination by Penn Virginia to enter into an agreement providing for a Penn Virginia Superior Company Proposal, Penn Virginia would be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $45 million. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including, generally, the termination by Penn Virginia in the event of a Parent Adverse Recommendation Change or the termination by the Company to enter into an agreement providing for a Superior Parent Proposal, the Company would be required to pay Penn Virginia a termination fee of $45 million.

Prior to the Effective Time, the Company is required to take all necessary corporate action so that upon and after the Effective Time, (i) the size of the Company Board is increased by two members and (ii) two members of the Penn Virginia Board (who are (A) mutually agreed upon between Penn Virginia and the Company and (B) determined to be independent under the standards of the NYSE) are appointed to the Company Board to fill the vacancies created by such increase. The Company is required to take all necessary action to recommend that such directors be elected to the Company Board in the proxy statement relating to the first annual meeting of the Company's stockholders following the consummation of the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the actual Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Penn Virginia or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates or to modify or supplement any factual disclosures about the Company or Penn Virginia included in their public reports filed with the SEC. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreements and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the respective parties to such agreements, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the respective parties to such agreements instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties thereto or of any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

Voting Agreements

On October 28, 2018, in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, the Company entered into voting and support agreements (each, a "Voting Agreement" and, collectively, the "Voting Agreements"), with (i) Strategic Value

Partners, LLC (“SVP”) and certain investment funds directly and indirectly managed by SVP (collectively, the “SVP Shareholders”), (ii) KLS Diversified Asset Management LP (“KLS”) and (iii) each director and executive officer of Penn Virginia. The Voting Agreements require, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, that the SVP Shareholders, KLS and each director and executive officer of Penn Virginia vote their shares of Penn Virginia Common Stock in favor of the Merger and any other matter presented or proposed as to approval of the Merger or any part or aspect thereof or any other transactions or matters contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Voting Agreements and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the actual Voting Agreements, copies of which are filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 and incorporated herein by reference.

Any undrawn commitments under the Bridge Facility will automatically terminate on the closing date of the Merger. The Bridge Facility will be subject to representations, warranties and covenants consistent with similar facilities and, subject to certain agreed modifications, substantially similar to the Credit Facility.

However, the absence of these words does not mean that the statements are not forward-looking. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the Transaction, pro forma descriptions of the combined company and its operations, integration and transition plans, synergies, opportunities and anticipated future performance. There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements included in this communication. These include the expected timing and likelihood of completion of the Transaction, including the timing, receipt and terms and conditions of any required governmental and regulatory approvals of the Transaction that could reduce anticipated benefits or cause the parties to abandon the Transaction, the ability to successfully integrate the businesses, the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger and on their operating results and businesses generally, the risk the pending Transaction could distract management of both entities from ongoing business operations or cause them to incur substantial costs, the risk that problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of the companies, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected, the risk that the combined company may be unable to achieve synergies or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies and other important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. All such factors are difficult to predict and are beyond the Company's or Penn Virginia's control, including those detailed in the Company's annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K that are available on its website at www.denbury.com and on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, and those detailed in Penn Virginia's annual reports on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K that are available on Penn Virginia's website at www.pennvirginia.com and on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.
