CVS to Postpone Shareholder Meeting to Vote on Caremark Merger

WOONSOCKET, R.I.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--February 13, 2007--CVS Corporation (NYSE: CVS) announced that in light of the Delaware Chancery Court's decision earlier today to enjoin the February 20, 2007 shareholder meeting of Caremark Rx, Inc. (NYSE:CMX) to allow more time for dissemination of information, it is postponing its February 23, 2007 shareholder meeting and will inform shareholders as promptly as possible regarding the new date for the meeting.

"We look forward to completing our merger with Caremark in early March," said Tom Ryan, Chairman, President and CEO of CVS, "Our merger is based on a compelling strategic rationale that has resonated with consumers, employers and shareholders and will create substantial shareholder value. Having cleared all regulatory hurdles (including FTC approval), we are poised to obtain shareholder approval and to move forward as the nation's leading pharmacy services provider."

About CVS

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements about CVS and Caremark. When used in this document, the words "anticipates", "may", "can", "believes", "expects", "projects", "intends", "likely", "will", "to be" and any similar expressions and any other statements that are not historical facts, in each case as they relate to CVS or Caremark or to the combined company, the management of either such company or the combined company or the transaction are intended to identify those assertions as forward-looking statements. In making any of those statements, the person making them believes that its expectations are based on reasonable assumptions. However, any such statement may be influenced by factors that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those projected or anticipated. These forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements relating to anticipated accretion, return on equity, cost synergies, incremental revenues and new products and offerings, are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties. There are various important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in any such forward-looking statements, many of which are beyond the control of CVS and Caremark, including macroeconomic condition and general industry conditions such as the competitive environment for retail pharmacy and pharmacy benefit management companies, regulatory and litigation matters and risks, legislative developments, changes in tax and other laws and the effect of changes in general economic conditions, the risk that a condition to closing of the transaction may not be satisfied, the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the transaction is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated and other risks to consummation of the transaction. The actual results or performance by CVS or Caremark or the combined company, and issues relating to the transaction, could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, any forward-looking statements relating to those matters. Accordingly, no assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur, or if any of them do so, what impact they will have on the results of operations or financial condition of CVS or Caremark, the combined company or the transaction.
