PART I

ITEM 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Recent Developments

On August 21, 2003, LCS Group, Inc. (the "Company") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, as amended, with its wholly owned subsidiary LCS Acquisition Corp. ("LCSAC"), privately-held Conversion Services International, Inc. ("CSI") and certain affiliated stockholders of CSI. The agreement called for CSI merging with and into LCSAC, the Company changing its name to "Conversion Services International, Inc." and the former stockholders of CSI controlling the board of directors of the Company and approximately 84.3% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company (the "Common Stock").

At a special meeting of Company stockholders held on January 23, 2004, Company stockholders approved, among other things: (i) an increase in the Company's authorized shares of Common Stock from 50,000,000 to 1,000,000,000, (ii) the authorization of up to 20,000,000 shares of "blank check" preferred stock, (iii) the adoption of a stock incentive plan for the Company, and (iv) the election of Scott Newman and Glenn Peipert, the principals of CSI, and Lawrence K. Reisman, a nominee of Messrs. Newman and Peipert, to the Company's board of directors.

At the closing of the merger on January 30, 2004, the stockholders of CSI received 500,000,000 newly-issued shares of Common Stock (approximately 84.3% of the then outstanding shares). As part of the restructuring, certain officers, directors and convertible note holders of the Company and certain other third parties received an aggregate of 43,779,824 shares of Common Stock, or approximately 9% of the outstanding shares. Included in such 43,779,824 were 18,313,157 shares issued to Dr. Michael Mitchell, our former President, Chief Executive Officer and sole director, and 1,000,000 shares issued to Alex Bruni, our former Chief Financial Officer.

At the closing of the merger, Dr. Mitchell resigned as the sole director of the Company and all officers of the Company, including Dr. Mitchell, also resigned. The new Board of Directors of the Company appointed Mr. Newman as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Glenn Peipert as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Mr. Mitchell Peipert, the brother of Glenn Peipert, as Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Secretary and Treasurer. Also, as part of its merger with CSI, LCSAC changed its name to "CSI Sub Corp. (DE)".

ITEM 7. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.

Reference is made to the Financial Statements referred to in the accompanying Index, setting forth the consolidated financial statements of LCS Group, Inc. and subsidiaries, which are included at the end of this Form 10-KSB beginning on page F-1.

Since the stockholders of CSI own a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of LCS Group, Inc. (prior to the name change noted above) after the merger, this transaction will be accounted for as a reverse merger whereby CSI is deemed to be the accounting acquirer of LCS Group, Inc.. Because LCS Group, Inc. did not have any assets or liabilities prior to the merger, there is no goodwill or other intangibles that will arise from the merger. As a result, historical stockholder's equity of CSI will be retroactively restated to reflect the recapitalization.

Such officers have concluded (based on their evaluation of these controls and procedures as of a date within 90 days of the filing of this report) that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company in this report is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its principal executive officers as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders
LCS Group, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of operation, changes in capital deficit and cash flows of LCS Golf, Inc., now known as LCS Group, Inc., for the year ended February 28, 2003. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements of LCS Golf, Inc., now known as LCS Group, Inc., enumerated above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated results of their operation and their consolidated cash flows for the year ended February 28, 2003 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements for the year ended February 28, 2003 have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1, the Company experienced recurring losses from operations, was in default of certain indebtedness and had to rely on loans from its majority stockholder and others. These factors raised substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans regarding this matter are also described in Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

LCS GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS

LCS Golf, Inc. (LCS) was formed under the laws of the State of New York on March 8, 1994. From October 1994 through November 1999, LCS designed, assembled and marketed golf clubs and related accessories as well as providing products and services to the golf playing public and marketed the database information obtained from its websites. During the fiscal year ended February 28, 2003, LCS had lost its websites and domain names, and its database had become obsolete.

From November 1999 through the year ended December 31, 2003, LCS had suspended almost all of its revenue generating operations.

On July 16, 2003, LCS became the wholly-owned subsidiary of LCS Group, Inc., hereafter referred to as the "Company." Pursuant to this transaction, the Company acquired all of the assets of LCS at the time, all former stockholders of LCS became the stockholders of the Company, which is the entity that is now publicly traded on the OTC Bulletin Board, and the officers and sole director of LCS became the officers and sole director of the Company.

On August 21, 2003, the Company entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, as amended, with its wholly owned subsidiary LCS Acquisition Corp. ("LCSAC"), privately-held Conversion Services International, Inc. ("CSI") and certain affiliated stockholders of CSI. The agreement called for CSI merging with and into LCSAC, the Company changing its name to "Conversion Services International, Inc." and the former stockholders of CSI controlling the board of directors of the Company and approximately 84.3% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company (the "Common Stock").

On January 22, 2004 and as part of merger, the Company sold, as a condition to the consummation of the merger transaction, 100% of the outstanding stock of LCS to an unrelated third party for a nominal amount.

At a special meeting of Company stockholders held on January 23, 2004, Company stockholders approved, among other things: (i) an increase in the Company's authorized shares of Common Stock from 50,000,000 to 1,000,000,000, (ii) the authorization of up to 20,000,000 shares of "blank check" preferred stock, (iii) the adoption of a stock incentive plan for the Company, and (iv) the election of a new Board of Directors.

At the closing of the merger on January 30, 2004, the stockholders of CSI received 500,000,000 newly-issued shares of Common Stock (approximately 84.3% of the then outstanding shares). As part of the restructuring, certain officers, directors and convertible note holders of the Company and certain other third parties received an aggregate of 43,779,824 shares of Common Stock, or approximately 9% of the outstanding shares. Included in the 43,779,824 were approximately 18,154,824 shares issued to the former sole director, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and 1,000,000 shares issued to the former Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer.

Since the stockholders of CSI own a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of LCS Group, Inc. (prior to the name change noted above) after the merger, this transaction will be accounted for as a reverse merger whereby CSI is deemed to be the accounting acquirer of LCS Group, Inc. Because LCS Group, Inc. did not have any assets or liabilities prior to the merger, there is no goodwill or other intangibles that will arise from the merger. (See Note 11. Subsequent Events) As a result, historical stockholder's equity of CSI will be retroactively restated to reflect the recapitalization.

At the closing of the merger, the sole director and officers of LCS Group, Inc.

resigned. The new Board of Directors of the Company appointed new officers Also, as part of its merger with CSI, LCSAC changed its name to "CSI Sub Corp. (DE)".

Through February 28, 2003, the Company was not able to generate significant revenues from its operations to cover its costs and operating expenses and had incurred significant losses. In addition, the Company had a significant working capital deficiency and a capital deficit and was in default of certain indebtedness. Although the Company issued its common stock for a significant portion of its expenses and it had to rely on loans from its major stockholder/president and others, it was not known whether the Company would have been able to continue this practice. It was also not known if the Company would have been able to meet its operating expense requirements. These circumstances raised substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern as of February 28, 2003.

As a result of the merger with CSI, as more fully described below, the circumstances which gave rise to the substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern no longer exists as of December 31, 2003. In Form 8-K/A previously filed by Company, we refer you to CSI's financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2003 wherein CSI received an unqualified opinion with no emphasis of matter.

Edgar Filing: CONVERSION SERVICES INTERNATIONAL INC - Form 10KSB

Since the stockholders of CSI own a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of LCS Group, Inc. (prior to the name change noted above) after the merger, this transaction will be accounted for as a reverse merger whereby CSI is deemed to be the accounting acquirer of LCS Group, Inc. Because LCS Group, Inc. did not have any assets or liabilities prior to the merger, there is no goodwill or other intangibles that will arise from the merger. (See Note 11. Subsequent Events - Reverse Merger) As a result, historical stockholder's equity of CSI will be retroactively restated to reflect the recapitalization.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of LCS Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries. All material intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

DEFERRED INCOME TAXES

Deferred income taxes are reported using the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

LOSS PER SHARE

Loss per share has been computed by dividing the net loss by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding, including shares with respect to liabilities to be paid with common stock, during each period. The effect of outstanding potential shares of common stock, including stock options, warrants and convertible debt is not included in the per share calculations as it would be anti-dilutive.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, which are subject to impairment considerations, liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. RECENT PRONOUNCEMENTS

In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure - an Amendment to SFAS No. 123". SFAS No. 148 provides alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value-based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, this statement amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 123 for public companies. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2002. The Company does not have any transactions that would require disclosure under SFAS No. 148.

In January 2003 (revised December 2003), the FASB issued FIN No. 46, "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities -- An Interpretation of ARB No. 51", which clarifies the application of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, "Consolidated Financial Statements," to certain entities in which equity investors do not have the characteristics of a controlling financial interest or do not have sufficient equity at risk for the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support from other parties. FIN No. 46 provides guidance related to identifying variable interest entities (previously known generally as special purpose entities, or SPEs) and determining whether such entities should be consolidated. FIN No. 46 must be applied immediately to variable interest entities created or interests in variable interest entities obtained after January 31, 2003. For those variable interest entities created or interests in variable interest entities obtained on or before January 31, 2003, the guidance in FIN No. 46 must be applied in the first fiscal year or interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company does not have any transactions that would require disclosure under FIN No. 46 .

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity". This statement establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures in its statement of financial position certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. It requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances) because that financial instrument embodies the characteristics of an obligation of the issuer. This standard is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company has determined that it did not have any financial instruments that are impacted by SFAS No. 150.

3. DUE TO RELATED PARTIES

These amounts are due to two officers of the Company. Interest is accrued on one loan at prime (4.0% at December 31, 2003). The amounts consist of accrued payroll, expense reimbursements and open account advances received from the officers. In connection with the merger with CSI and pursuant to settlement agreements entered into by the Company, on January 30, 2004 all of these obligations were settled for 19,254,824 shares of CSI common stock and general releases in full satisfaction of the liabilities were obtained by the Company.

4. CONVERTIBLE NOTES PAYABLE

During the ten months ended December 2003, the Company issued convertible secured notes payable due on demand totaling $652,500 to various unrelated third parties and bear no interest of which $602,500 was outstanding at December 31, 2003. In connection with the merger with CSI and pursuant to settlement agreements entered into by the Company, on January 30, 2004, all of these obligations were converted into 21,750,000 common shares of CSI.

5. SETTLED OBLIGATIONS

During the ten months ended December 2003, the Company entered into several settlement obligations with unrelated third parties for the payment of past services and note obligations that were past due. In connection with the merger with CSI and pursuant to settlement agreements entered into by the Company, on January 30, 2004, all of these obligations were settled for 2,800,000 shares of CSI common stock and general releases in full satisfaction of the liabilities were obtained by the Company. The Company's former President / CEO had guaranteed one obligation totaling $232,500.

6. DEBT NOT IN COMPLIANCE WITH TERMS

Edgar Filing: CONVERSION SERVICES INTERNATIONAL INC - Form 10KSB

On August 8, 2000, the LCS borrowed $300,000 and issued a convertible promissory note that bears interest at 8% per annum with a maturity date which is past due. On January 31, 2002, LCS was notified that it was in default on this note. In connection with the default, in June 2002, the LCS entered into an Agreement and Release with the Noteholder. In accordance with the release, the Noteholder was issued an additional 6,000,000 shares of common stock in November 2002. In addition, the Noteholder exercised warrants that were issued in conjunction with the notes.

7. COMMON STOCK

In November 2003, and in connection with a litigation settlement, LCS issued 100,000 shares and paid $10,000 in total satisfaction of a lawsuit for a breach of contract.

8. INCOME TAXES

At December 31, 2003, the Company has available for federal income tax purposes, net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $15,500,000 expiring through 2023. For the ten months ended December 31, 2003, the Company provided an additional valuation allowance of approximately $331,000 since the likelihood of realization cannot be determined. The difference between the statutory tax rate of 34 percent and the Company's effective tax rate of 0 percent is due to the 100 percent valuation allowance against net deferred tax assets. As a result of the merger in January 2004, the use of the net operating loss carryforward will be significantly limited due to the change in control of the Company in accordance with Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Deferred tax assets consisted of the following temporary differences:

	December 31, 2003

Net operating losses	$ 6,199,672
Accrued expenses	766,442

	6,966,114
Valuation allowance	(6,966,114)

9. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

On November 6, 2003, an unrelated third party filed a complaint in the New York State Supreme Court in Rockland County, New York against LCS and the Company's former chief executive officer and sole director. The complaint alleged a breach of agreement, a breach of guarantee by the Company's former chief executive officer and sole director and reliance by this party on false statements, and sought aggregate damages of approximately $1,500,000 plus interest, legal fees and expenses. On November 14, 2003, the parties entered into an agreement pursuant to which the Company paid $30,000 and agreed to pay an additional $32,500 when the closing of the proposed merger with CSI was consummated. The Company agreed to issue to this party 250,000 shares of CSI's common stock within five days after the closing. The Company is awaiting the withdrawal of the complaint without prejudice.

On May 1, 2003 a complaint naming LCS, the Company's two former officers and two other individuals was filed by a third party in Palm Beach County, Florida. The Complaint alleged a breach of contract and contained allegations of losses of $1,625,000 plus securities and other compensation. The Company settled this litigation by entering into an agreement on September 25, 2003. The agreement called for the issuance of 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock and a payment of $10,000. The Company paid this amount on October 22, 2003 and issued the 100,000 shares to a designee of the third party on November 24, 2003.

In November 2002, an unrelated third party filed a complaint in the New York State Supreme Court in New York County, New York against LCS Golf, Inc. and the Company's former chief executive officer and chief financial officer to recover legal fees and disbursements claimed to be due in the amount of $54,772.06 plus interest and attorneys' fees. This action is still pending.

11. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

REVERSE MERGER

On August 21, 2003, LCS Group, Inc., LCS Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of LCS Group, Inc., CSI and CSI's executive officers and principal stockholders, executed an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization to merge CSI into LCS Acquisition Corp. This transaction was consummated on January 30, 2004, CSI became the operating entity, LCS Group changed its name to CSI and the CSI shareholders control approximately 84% of the shares of the combined company. As part of this transaction, the Company's affiliate, Doorways, Inc. was merged into CSI.

In connection with this transaction, LCS Group, Inc. agreed to a.) increase the number of common shares they were authorized to issue from 50,000,000 to 1,000,000,000; b.) authorized the right to issue up to 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock; and c.) adopted the 2003 Stock Incentive Plan (the "2003 Stock Option Plan").

The 2003 Stock Option Plan authorizes the issuance of up to 100,000,000 shares of common stock for the exercise of options. It also authorizes the issuance of stock appreciation rights. On March 29, 2004, the Company granted 19,200,000 options to purchase its common stock at an exercise price of $0.165.

Since the stockholders of CSI own a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of LCS Group, Inc. (prior to the name change noted above) after the merger, this transaction will be accounted for as a reverse merger whereby CSI is deemed to be the accounting acquirer of LCS Group, Inc.. Because LCS Group, Inc. did not have any assets or liabilities prior to the merger, there is no goodwill or other intangibles that will arise from the merger. As a result, historical stockholder's equity of CSI will be retroactively restated to reflect the recapitalization.

SALE OF LCS GOLF, INC.

On January 22, 2004 and as part of merger, the Company sold, as a condition to the consummation of the merger transaction, 100% of the outstanding stock of LCS to an unrelated third party for a nominal amount. The following pro-forma information reflects the effects of this sale on the Company's consolidated liabilities:

Edgar Filing: CONVERSION SERVICES INTERNATIONAL INC - Form 10KSB

	Liabilities as of December 31, 2003	Sale of LCS Golf, Inc.	Liability Sale of LCS
