ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

There are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships between the Reporting Persons (or their wholly owned subsidiaries) and other persons with respect to the Shares of Miravant aside from the following:

(a) The Stock Purchase Agreement, under which P&U S.p.A. (i) received rights to initiate registration of the non-registered Shares of Miravant which are held by P&U S.p.A.; (ii) received rights to participate in certain registrations initiated by Miravant or the shareholders of Miravant; and (iii) agreed not to transfer the 400,000 Shares which P&U S.p.A. received on July 1, 1994 for one year unless certain conditions are met. Pursuant to the Equity Investment Agreement, Section 5.5 of the Stock Purchase Agreement, which prevented Pharmacia S.p.A. from directly or indirectly acquiring additional Miravant securities without first receiving approval from Miravant's board of Directors until July 1, 2000, is void ab initio.

(b) The 1994 Stock Purchase Agreement, under which Pharmacia, Inc. received the right to cause PDT, Inc. to register Shares held by Pharmacia, Inc. and to participate in certain registrations initiated by PDT, Inc. and/or other shareholders of PDT, Inc. (the "1994 Stock Purchase Agreement").

(c) The PDT Warrant, under which Pharmacia, Inc. was granted a warrant to purchase up to 41,667 Shares (pre-split) of Miravant for the price of $12.00 per share (pre-split). The PDT Warrant was not exercised and has expired.

(d) The Equity Investment Agreement, under which P&U S.p.A. purchased from Miravant 1,136,533 Shares of Miravant for an aggregate purchase price of $19,000,000. Pursuant to the Equity Investment Agreement, prior to the 180th calendar day following closing, P&U Inc. and its subsidiaries could not sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the Shares received pursuant to the Equity Investment Agreement, except that P&U Inc. could transfer any of such Shares to any of its wholly owned subsidiaries. Moreover, the Equity Investment Agreement provides that prior to the earliest of (i) the occurrence of an Event of Default (as defined in the Original Credit Agreement), (ii) the commencement of a tender offer by any person or entity, other than P&U Inc. or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, for Shares of Miravant, and (iii) July 1, 2000, unless specifically requested in advance by the Miravant's Board of Directors, neither P&U Inc. nor any of its affiliates could, and P&U Inc. and its affiliates could not assist or encourage others (including by providing financing) to, directly or indirectly, acquire or agree, offer, seek or propose to acquire ownership of any securities issued by Miravant (including but not limited to beneficial ownership (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934)) or enter into any discussions, negotiations, arrangements or understandings with any person with respect to any of the foregoing; provided that such provision did not prohibit (i) the acquisition by P&U Inc. and its affiliates of a number of Shares which, taken together with the number of Shares held by P&U Inc. and its affiliates as of the date of such acquisition, does not exceed 25% of the aggregate number of outstanding Shares as of the date of this acquisition, (ii) the acquisition by P&U Inc. or its affiliates of Shares pursuant to the Original Credit Agreement or upon exercise of any Warrants, or (iii) the acquisition by P&U Inc. or its affiliates of promissory notes pursuant to the Original Credit Agreement or any other securities pursuant to the Credit Documents (as defined in the Original Credit Agreement). These provisions have now expired.

(e) The Original Credit Agreement, under which, subject to the terms and conditions of such Original Credit Agreement, Pharmacia Treasury agreed to lend to Miravant, for general corporate purposes, an aggregate amount not to exceed $22,500,000, in the form of up to six term loans, with not more than one such term loan to be made in each of the six calendar quarters between January 1, 1999 and June 30, 2000. Miravant has borrowed the full $22,500,000 available under the Original Credit Agreement and, as described in Item 3, Pharmacia Treasury has acquired 360,000 Warrants. Pursuant to the Original Credit Agreement, repaid loans may not be reborrowed.

(f) The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, under which, subject to the terms and conditions of such Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, Pharmacia Treasury agreed to lend to Miravant, for general corporate purposes, an aggregate amount not to exceed $13,136,092 in two tranches of up to twelve term loans. The first tranche will be available from January 1, 2002 to June 30, 2003 and consists of an amount not to exceed $3,136,092 in the form of up to twelve term loans, the with not more than two term loans to be made in each calendar quarter. In addition to the amount referred to in the previous sentence, a second tranche of an amount not to exceed $10,000,000 is available from July 1, 2002 to June 30, 2003 in the form of up to eight term loans, with not more than two term loans to be made in each calendar quarter. This second tranche, however, is only available after Miravant, Pharmacia Treasury or one of their respective affiliates (i) has reached the Endpoint in the Clinical Studies (as such terms are defined in the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement) or (ii) Pharmacia Treasury or one of its affiliates shall have filed a New Drug Application with respect the Clinical Studies. Miravant will issue to Pharmacia Treasury or one of its affiliates, in respect of each $62.50 in principal amount of loans extended under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, one warrant to purchase Common Stock of Miravant having the terms set forth in the Warrant Agreement attached as Exhibit F hereto. If Miravant borrows the full $13,136,092 available under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, Pharmacia Treasury or one of its affiliates will acquire 210,177 Warrants. The exercise price of each warrant will be equal to 140% of the average of the closing prices of the Common Stock for the ten trading days immediately preceding the borrowing request for the related loan. The Warrants will expire on the fifth anniversary of the first borrowing made pursuant to the Original Credit Agreement. Moreover, pursuant to the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement and subject to certain conditions, on the Maturity Date, Miravant may, at its option, repay any amounts borrowed under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement with a number of Shares of Miravant that will vary depending on the market price of the Shares at the time of repayment and the principal amount of borrowings repaid. Pursuant to the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, repaid loans may not be reborrowed.

(g) The Registration Rights Agreement, under which Miravant granted certain registration rights for Shares of Miravant issued pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the Equity Investment Agreement and the Warrant Agreement. Upon written demand, a majority of holders of the Shares received by P&U Inc. or any of its affiliates under either the Equity Investment Agreement or the Warrant Agreement may, subject to certain limitations, require Miravant to file a registration statement with respect to the Shares held by such holder and any other holder that desires to have its Shares included in such registration statement; provided that each of the holders shall have the right to make only three such elections to require Miravant to file such a registration statement. P&U Inc., together with its affiliates,

also has rights, subject to certain limitations, to require Miravant to include Shares in certain other registrations of equity securities by Miravant. The Registration Rights Agreement provides that Miravant will indemnify the selling holders for certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933. The Registration Rights Agreement also provides that all costs and expenses (other than underwriters' discounts and commissions and the fees and expenses of counsel to the selling holders as state securities officials may require that the holders of Securities pay) incurred in connection with the registration of the Shares pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement shall be paid by Miravant (including, without limitation, all registration and filing fees, printing expenses, costs of special audits incident to or required by any such registration, fees and disbursements of counsel for Miravant and up to $20,000 of fees and disbursements of one special counsel acting for the holders of Shares being included in any registration).

(h) The Warrant Agreement, under which each holder of Warrants is entitled to purchase a number of Shares of Miravant equal to one share, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments, provided, however, that Miravant may, at its sole election, in lieu of delivering any Shares, pay the holder of any Warrants so exercised a certain cash amount representing 95% of the closing price of the Shares as of the date of exercise of such Warrant multiplied by the number of Shares into which such Warrant is convertible. Miravant is entitled to purchase any Warrant issued pursuant to the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement and Warrant Agreement should the average closing price of the Shares of Miravant over any 30 consecutive trading days exceed the exercise price for such Warrant. The number of Shares issuable upon exercise of the Warrants is subject to adjustment upon, among other things, (i) the payment of a dividend on the outstanding Shares that is payable in additional Shares or securities convertible into additional Shares, (ii) the subdivision of the outstanding Shares into a greater number of shares (whether by stock split or otherwise), and (iii) the combination of the outstanding Shares into a smaller number of shares (whether by reverse stock split or otherwise).

(i) The Asset Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which P&U Co. purchased the API Assets for its appraised fair market value of $863,071. Pursuant to the Sublease Assignment, P&U Co. also obtained a temporary assignment of the Raytheon Sublease. Pursuant to the Sublease Assignment, P&U Co. will reassign the Raytheon Sublease to Miravant on the earlier of December 31, 2003 or certain events of default under the Site Access License Agreement.
