SCHEDULE IV

Merrill Entities:

On May 31, 2006, as part of a settlement relating to managing auctions for auction rate securities, the Commission accepted the offer of settlement of 15 firms, including Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (Merrill Lynch), and issued a settlement order on May 31, 2006. The Commission found, and Merrill Lynch neither admitted nor denied, that Merrill Lynch violated section 17(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 by managing auctions for auction rate securities in ways that were not adequately disclosed or that did not conform to disclosed procedures. Merrill Lynch submitted, and the Commission accepted, an offer of settlement whereby, without admitting or denying the findings contained in the Commission s order, Merrill Lynch consented to a cease and desist order, a censure, a civil money penalty of $1,500,000 (paid to the Commission on June 1, 2006) and compliance with certain undertakings to provide customers with written descriptions of Merrill Lynch s material auction practices and procedures and to implement procedures reasonably designed to prevent and detect failures by Merrill Lynch s to conduct auctions for auction rate securities in accordance with disclosed procedures.

On March 13, 2006, Merrill Lynch entered into a settlement with the SEC, without admitting or denying the allegations, that includes findings with regard to failure to provide in a timely manner representatives of the SEC with electronic mail communications as required and failure to retain certain emails related to its business in violation of Section 17(A) of the Exchange Act and Rules 17A-4(J) and 17A-4(B)(4), respectively. The settlement resulted in the payment of $2.5 million to the SEC.

In March 2005, Merrill Lynch reached agreements with the State of New Jersey and the New York Stock Exchange and reached an agreement in principle with the State of Connecticut pursuant to which Merrill Lynch, without admitting or denying the allegations, consented to a settlement that included findings that it failed to maintain certain books and records and to reasonably supervise a team of former FAs who facilitated improper market timing by a hedge fund client. Merrill Lynch terminated the FAs in October 2003, brought the matter to the attention of regulators, and cooperated fully in the regulators—review. The settlement will result in aggregate payments of $13.5 million.

In July 2005, Merrill Lynch entered into a settlement with the New York Stock Exchange, without admitting or denying the allegations, that includes findings with regard to certain matters relating to the failure to deliver prospectuses for certain auction rate preferred shares and open-end mutual funds; the failure to deliver product descriptions with regard to certain exchange traded funds; the failure to ensure that proper registration qualifications were obtained for certain personnel; issues with regard to the retention, retrieval and review of e-mails; isolated lapses in branch office supervision; late reporting of certain events such as customer complaints and arbitrations; the failure to report certain complaints in quarterly reports to the NYSE due to a systems error; and partial non-compliance with Continuing Education requirements. The settlement resulted in a payment of $10 million to the NYSE.

On June 3, 2005, entered into a settlement with the State of New Jersey, without admitting or denying the allegations, in connection with the termination of a financial advisor s IAR registration in error, which error caused the financial advisor to engage in business within the state without the proper registration. The settlement resulted in a payment of $53,000 to the State of New Jersey.

On November 3, 2004, a jury in Houston, Texas convicted four former Merrill Lynch employees of criminal misconduct in connection with a Nigerian barge transaction that the government alleged helped Enron inflate its 1999 earnings by $12 million. The jury also found that the transaction led to investor losses of $13.7 million. Those convictions were vacated by a federal appellate court on August 1, 2006, except for one conviction against one employee based on perjury and obstruction of justice. In 2003, Merrill Lynch agreed, without admitting or denying the charges, to pay $80 million to settle SEC charges that it aided and abetted Enron s fraud by engaging in two improper year-end transactions in 1999, including the Nigerian barge transaction. The $80 million paid in connection with the settlement with the SEC will be made available to settle investor claims. In September 2003, the United States Department of Justice agreed not to prosecute Merrill Lynch for crimes that may have been committed by its former employees related to certain transactions with Enron, subject to certain understandings, including Merrill Lynch s continued cooperation with the Department, its acceptance of responsibility for conduct of its former employees, and its agreement to adopt and implement new policies and procedures related to the integrity of client and counter-party financial statements, complex structured finance transactions and year-end transactions.

On April 22, 2005, Merrill Lynch was fined $7,000 for failing to provide in a timely manner information requested by the State of Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions, Division of Securities, in connection with an agent s insurance license application and for failing to update the agent s record to reflect his current address.

On June 17, 2004, Merrill Lynch was fined $10,000 by the State of Florida because, as a result of an administrative error, two offices were operating without being properly licensed.

On January 30, 2004, Merrill Lynch entered into a settlement with the Commonwealth of Virginia, without admitting or denying the allegations, in connection with an investigation into certain improprieties by former financial advisors in the accounts of two customers. The settlement resulted in aggregate payments of $342,267.93 in restitution to these customers.

On April 28, 2003, the Securities and Exchange Commission, New York Stock Exchange, National Association of Securities Dealers, and state securities regulators announced settlements with regard to ten securities firms, including Merrill Lynch. On October 31, 2003, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered final judgments in connection with the April 28, 2003, research settlements. This settlement followed a settlement with all 50 states, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico and the National Association of State Securities Administrators pursuant to which Merrill Lynch made payments totaling $100 million. The final settlements pertaining to Merrill Lynch, which involved both monetary and non-monetary relief set forth in the regulators—announcements, brought to a conclusion the regulatory actions against Merrill Lynch related to alleged conflicts of interest affecting research analysts. Merrill Lynch entered into these settlements without admitting or denying the allegations and findings by the regulators, and the settlements did not establish wrongdoing or liability for purposes of any other proceedings.

On July 23, 2002, Merrill Lynch entered into a settlement with the State of Delaware Securities Division, without admitting or denying the allegations, in connection with an investigation into unauthorized trading in a customer s account. The settlement resulted in aggregate payments of $28,290.93 in administrative fines and restitution to the customer.

On July 12, 2002, Merrill Lynch entered into a settlement with the State of New Hampshire Bureau of Securities Regulation, without admitting or denying the allegations, in connection with an investigation into certain improprieties, including Blue Sky violations, by a financial advisor. Under the settlement, Merrill Lynch was required to retain a consultant to review current compliance policy and procedures in its Manchester office; circulate a global compliance alert to all U.S. private client personnel addressing the issues raised in this matter; and offering rescission of the purchases of the specific stocks by those clients of the financial advisor. The settlement resulted in a payment of $575,000 to the State of New Hampshire Bureau of Securities Regulation.
