Redemption:

In whole or in part, at the option of Webster, at any time (optional redemption), or in whole but not in part, at the option of Webster, within 90 days after the occurrence of a tax event, a capital treatment event, an investment company event or a rating agency event; in each case, at the redemption price described below.

Redemption Price:

Prior to the First Par Call Date: In the case of any optional redemption, or any redemption within 90 days after the occurrence of a tax event or a rating agency event, the redemption price will be equal to (1) 100% of the principal amount of the junior subordinated notes being redeemed or (2) if greater, the present value of scheduled payments of principal and interest from the redemption date (not including any portion of such payments of interest accrued to but excluding the date of redemption) to June 15, 2017 on the junior subordinated notes being redeemed, discounted to the redemption date on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at a discount rate equal to the treasury rate plus the applicable spread (as defined below), in each case plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date. In the case of redemption within 90 days after the occurrence of a capital treatment event or an investment company event, the redemption price will be equal to 100% of the principal amount of the junior subordinated notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date.

After the First Par Call Date: In the case of any optional redemption, other than an optional redemption that occurs on an optional par redemption date (as defined below), the redemption price will be equal to (1) 100% of the principal amount of the junior subordinated notes being redeemed or (2) if greater, the present value of scheduled payments of principal and interest from the redemption date (not including any portion of such payments of interest accrued to but excluding the date of redemption) to the next succeeding optional par redemption date on the junior subordinated notes being redeemed, discounted to the redemption date on a quarterly basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at a discount rate equal to the three-month LIBOR applicable to the interest period immediately preceding the date on which the junior subordinated notes are redeemed, in each case plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date. In the case of a redemption on an optional par redemption date or within 90 days after the occurrence of a tax event, a capital treatment event or an investment company event, the redemption price will be equal to 100% of the principal amount of the junior subordinated notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date.

On and after the scheduled maturity date, the junior subordinated notes will be redeemable at any time at a redemption price equal to the principal amount of the junior subordinated notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date.

Edgar Filing: WEBSTER CAPITAL TRUST IV - Form FWP

Optional Par Redemption Date: June 15, 2017 and each date thereafter that is the fifth anniversary of a prior optional par redemption date.
