Item 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

On January 10, counsel for two Commerce Bancorp, Inc ( Commerce ) shareholders filed an application with the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, Camden Vicinage, for leave to file a complaint-in-intervention for appointment as lead plaintiffs and their counsel as lead counsel, for expedited discovery and for an expedited preliminary injunction hearing, seeking to challenge the fairness of the merger of Commerce and The Toronto-Dominion Bank announced on October 2, 2007, and the fairness of a settlement-in-principle among certain parties to various putative shareholder class action suits pending against Commerce and its directors and The Toronto-Dominion Bank in connection with the merger. On January 17, the Court denied, in its entirety, the shareholders application.

On January 14, Commerce and certain of its directors and officers were sued by Commerce s former chief executive officer, Vernon W. Hill, II, his wife Shirley Hill and InterArch, Inc. ( InterArch ) a company owned by Shirley Hill. The lawsuit seeks more than $57 million in damages and injunctive relief. The lawsuit alleges, among other things, that Commerce and/or its directors have violated the Hills and InterArch s constitutional rights, breached certain contracts with Mr. Hill and InterArch, are infringing certain copyrights owned by InterArch and have intentionally inflicted emotional distress on the plaintiffs. Commerce believes that the lawsuit is without merit and will defend it vigorously.

On January 14, Commerce filed an action for declaratory relief and damages against InterArch, Inc., Shirley Hill and Raymond Klumb. By way of the action, Commerce seeks: (1) a declaration that Commerce had no legal duty to indemnify Shirley Hill and InterArch with regard to a verdict against them due to their judicially determined bad faith and malicious acts in matters related to an underlying controversy; and (2) recoupment and/or restitution of approximately $1.6 million for indemnification payments Commerce made on behalf of Shirley Hill and InterArch in connection with the same. Commerce also seeks damages from InterArch for breach of contract.
